URGENT REQUEST FROM CITY HALL!

Due to the lack of funds for the city services street maintenance budget and an excessive amount of potholes in the streets, the city is requesting a non-tax deductible donation by the citizens of one bag of asphalt patch or gravel per household. City Manager Virgil Tinzlee is asking every citizen to donate as much as they possibly can. Small donations can be made at any time through the night deposit box. If you can afford large bags of cold patch, they can be delivered to the city manager's office.

CITY SCHOOLS START CRAMMIN FOR STATE TESTS

Superintendent Jimonetta Carter told the Wrinkle City Board of Education that all students would be cramming for the state proficiency tests. The tests will cover reading, writing, ciphering and common sense. "We need at least an 80% score to pass the proficiency she said."

"Sillyman Learning Services will replace the teachers for 2 months to drill the material into the little critters' heads" remarked Carter. "Besides, they will be in Columbus to protest" she said.

"We have contacted the all of the probation officers to make sure they check on the students who are doing in-home monitoring detention.

WRINKLE CITY AIRPORT APPLIES FOR SPECIAL STATUS

The Greater Wrinkle City Airport has applied to the F.A.A. to be designated as a special historical landing site so it can qualify for federal grant money to improve the airport.

The airport was constructed in the early 1930s and had two hangars and a grass landing strip for local aviators and stunt flyers. Over the years, it has floundered and the landing strip has turned into several large grassy potholes.

Airport Superintendent Angley "Ace" Flywell remarked "If the status is granted by the F.A.A., we can apply for grants to install a new 5,000 foot runway and instead of lightin' the field with burn barrels, we can get some of them new fangled lights!" "A new long runway sure would eliminate having to rev up and fly in a corkscrew fashion just to take off like we have to do from the pits," he said.

EASTER BUNNY SEEN DOING WHEELIES DOWN MAIN STREET

Witnesses reported seeing the Easter Bunny traveling at a high speed down N. Main Street doing wheelies. The high speed wabbit continued on its merry way toward the neighboring city of Troy leaving a trail of carrots and Easter Eggs. The police have asked that anyone seeing wabbits on bikes either stop drinking at Lusch's or contact them immediately at 779-TIPZ.

CITY MANAGER SOLICITS NEW BUSINESS

At a recent council meeting, City Manager Virgil Tinzley cited the need to seek additional renters for a vacated strip mall investment property owned by the city as the city was running short of funds.

The city has received offers from one San Francisco store. Kinks Klothes For Krossdressers, a division of Poof Enterprises, has expressed interest in occupying one of the units. "They had seen our advertisement in a nationally known real estate paper and expressed interest" said Tinzley. "However, upon talking with their property acquisition specialist, we believed it was not a good fit" he said. "They thought we were like them: a bunch of nuts, fruits and flakes" Tinzley stated.

Additional offers have been received by Larry's Tatoo and Brain Piercing Parlors, Inc. and Harley Hogg's Biker Bar.

Nuns Leave; Chief Returns

Chief Barney "One Bullit" McGinty and his officers have been attending the 2014 Police Extravaganza in Las Vegas during the months of February and March and have returned to a very different town.

Upon returning, Chief McGinty and his officers found no crime, no drunks and a confessional set up in the lobby of the police department! "I was amazed!" exclaimed McGinty. "The squad cars were cleaned, polished and had air fresheners and doilies on the arm rests ...even the old outhouse the cops used as their "reading room" was returned (minus the girlie mags), repaired and redecorated" he said. "They even put in a new sink and air fresheners that smelled like reeeeeeeel pine," he said.

NEW TENNANTS SOUGHT FOR CITY PLAZA

Since the last restaurant went "belly up" after nine months of operation, Mayor Alton J. Souhey has been looking for other interested "suckers" to re-open the high priced restaurant. They found one and so far, the food's been good. Souhey says he is looking to add some more businesses to the upper floors but nobody has yet to commit. The three possible candidates are Rhonda's Massages, Louwanda's Lingerie Modeling and Paulie's Fine Liquors.

VIC LUSCH DONATES CHANDELIER FOR MAYOR SOUHEY'S OFFICE

Local bar owner and entrepreneur of sorts, Vic Lusch, donated a beer bottle chandelier for Mayor Souhey's office. Lusch's colorful creation was made from various beer and liquor bottles.

SCAPEGOAT SPORTS

Coach Smithers has a serious losing season on his hands with the winless Wrinkle City High School's Fighting Scapegoats baseball team. "We've been practicing 30 minutes a day after school for the past 6 weeks trying to learn the fundamentals" Smithers remarked. "We can't help it the team is a bunch of idiots" he said.

SCAPEGOAT TRACK

In a recent interview, Coach Smithers said "Our track team is excellent and very talented, but I have to motivate them to run." "It seems they all run real fast when cops come by to watch the practice!" he exclaimed. "It takes me a couple of days to round them up" he said. "It must be those dadgummed sirens!" Smithers exclaimed!

PHIL COMMITS SUICIDE OVER SHORT WINTER PREDICTION

The famed Punxsutawney Phil finally couldn't take it anymore after making a wrong Spring forecast.

Phil was found dead from a self-inflicted gunshot wound after a two month-long drinking binge.

GRUMPIN AROUND TOWN WITH GRUMP

By Falworth T. Grump

Is it Spring yet? We've had one wacky winter. Snow, thaw, snow, thaw, warm weather, snow, thaw, warm weather. Phil the Groundhog in Pennsylvania screwed up the Spring prediction and said it would come early. What happened: Snow, thaw, snow thaw again! Our own Wrinkle City groundhog came out of his hole, farted and went back inside and got drunk. What gives?

Wish those SOB's in charge of seasons get their act together!

Grump out!

TALES FROM THE 19TH HOLE

By Toots Kowalski

A man and his wife walked into a dentist's office. The man said to the dentist, "Doc, I'm in one heck of a hurry I have two buddies sitting out in my car waiting for us to go play golf, so forget about the anesthetic, I don't have time for the gums to get numb. I just want you to pull the tooth, and be done with it! We have a 10:00 AM tee time at the best golf course in town and it's 9:30 already... I don't have time to wait for the anesthetic to work!"

The dentist thought to himself, "My goodness, this is surely a very brave man asking to have his tooth pulled without using anything to kill the pain." So the dentist asks him, "Which tooth is it sir?"

The man turned to his wife and said, "Open your mouth Honey, and show him . .

Golfing and Dentures

A couple of old guys were golfing when one mentioned that he was going to go to Dr. Smith for a new set of dentures in the morning.

His elderly buddy remarked that he; too, had gone to the very same dentist two years before.

"Is that so?" asked the first old guy. "Did he do a good job?"

The second oldster replied, "Well, I was on the golf course yesterday when a guy on the next fairway hooked a shot. The ball must have been going at least 200 mph when it smacked me right in the testicles."

The first old guy was confused and asked, "What the hell does that have to do with your dentures?"

"It was the first time in two years my teeth didn't hurt....."

Religious battle golf

The Pope met with the College of Cardinals to discuss a proposal from Shimon Peres, the former leader of Israel. "Your holiness," said one of the Cardinals, "Mr. Peres wants to determine whether Jews or Catholics are superior, by challenging you to a golf match." The Pope was greatly disturbed, as he had never held a golf club in his life.

"Not to worry," said the Cardinal, "we'll call America and talk to Jack Nicklaus. We'll make him a Cardinal, he can play Shimon Peres... We can't lose!" Everyone agreed it was a good idea. The call was made and, of course, Jack was honored and agreed to play.

The day after the match, Nicklaus reported to the Vatican to inform the Pope of his success in the match. "I came in second, your Holiness," said Nicklaus.

"Second?!!" exclaimed the surprised Pope. "You came in second to Shimon Peres?!!"

"No," said Nicklaus, "second to Rabbi Woods."

Doctor and a golfer

During his physical examination, a doctor asked a retired man about his physical activity level. The man said he spent 3 days a week, every week in the outdoors. "Well, yesterday afternoon was typical; I took a five hour walk about 7 miles through some pretty rough terrain. I waded along the edge of a lake. I pushed my way through 2 miles of brambles. I got sand in my shoes and my eyes. I avoided standing on a snake. I climbed several rocky hills. I took a few 'leaks' behind some big trees. I ran away from a pissed off mother bear and then ran away from one angry bull Elk. The mental stress of it all left me shattered. At the end of it all I drank eight beers and a tall glass of bourbon" Amazed by the story, the doctor said, "You must be one hell of an outdoors man!" "No," the guy replied, "I'm just a really crappy golfer".

Horseback Rider

A blonde decides to try horseback riding, even though she has had no lessons, nor prior experience. She mounts the horse unassisted, and the horse immediately springs into motion. It gallops along at a steady and rhythmic pace, but the blonde begins to slide from the saddle.

In terror, she grabs for the horse's mane, but cannot seem to get a firm grip. She tries to throw her arms around the horse's neck, but she slides down the horse's side anyway. The horse gallops along, seemingly impervious to its slipping rider.

Finally, giving up her frail grip, the blonde attempts to leap away from the horse and throw herself to safety. Unfortunately, her foot has become entangled in the stirrup, she is now at the mercy of the horse's pounding hooves as her head is struck against the ground over and over.

As her head is battered against the ground, she is mere moments away from unconsciousness when to her great fortune... Frank, the Walmart greeter, sees her dilemma and unplugs the horse.

And you thought all they did was say Hello.

MORTALLY SPEAKING...

By Emerson Balmer
Amigone Funeral & Cremation Service

A man and his ever-nagging wife went on vacation to Jerusalem. While they were there, the wife passed away. The undertaker told the husband, "You can have her shipped home for $5,000, or you can bury her here, in the Holy Land, for $150." The man thought about it and told him he would just have her shipped home.

The undertaker asked, "Why would you spend $5,000 to ship your wife home, when it would be wonderful to be buried here and you would spend only $150?"

The man replied, "Long ago a man died here, was buried here, and three days later he rose from the dead. I just can't take that chance."

RELIGIOUS HUMOR...

By Rev. Jeraldene Dibley

It was Sunday morning, and the priest had already preached to the adults in the congregation.

Now he was presenting a children's sermon. He asked the children if they knew what the Resurrection was.

Now, asking questions during children's sermons is crucial, but at the same time, asking children questions in front of a congregation can also be very dangerous. In response to the question, a little boy raised his hand.

The priest called on him and the boy said, "I know that if you have a resurrection that lasts more than four hours you are supposed to call the doctor."

It took ten minutes for the congregation to settle down enough for the service to continue.

Bloopers in the church

The following are actual church bulletin board bloopers found in churches across the United States.

The outreach committee has enlisted 25 visitors to make calls on people who are not afflicted with any church.

Low Self-Esteem Support Group will meet Thursday at 7 to 8:30 p.m. Please use the back door.

For those of you who have children and don't know it, we have a nursery downstairs.

Bishop Merriwether spoke briefly, much to the delight of the audience.

The pastor will preach his farewell message, after which the choir will sing, "Break Forth Into Joy."

Stewardship Offertory: "Jesus Paid It All"

Remember in prayer the many who are sick of our church and community.

The eighth-graders will be presenting Shakespeare's Hamlet in the church basement on Friday at 7 p.m. The congregation is invited to attend this tragedy.

Twenty-two members were present at the church meeting held at the home of Mrs. Marsha Crutchfield last evening. Mrs. Crutchfield and Mrs. Rankin sang a duet, The Lord Knows Why.

Potluck supper: Prayer and medication to follow.

Tearful Husband

A woman awakes during the night to find that her husband was not in their bed.

She puts on her robe and goes downstairs to look for him. She finds him sitting at the kitchen table with a cup of coffee in front him. He appears deep in thought, just staring at the wall. She watches as he wipes a tear from his eye and takes a sip of coffee.

"What's the matter, dear?" she whispers as she steps into the room. "Why are you down here at this time of night?"

The husband looks up, "Do you remember 20 years ago when we were dating, and you were only 17?" he asks solemnly.

The wife is touched thinking her husband is so caring and sensitive. "Yes, I do," she replies.

The husband pauses. The words are not coming easily. "Do you remember when your father caught us in the back seat of my car?"

"Yes, I remember," says the wife, lowering herself into a chair beside him.

The husband continues..."Do you remember when he shoved a shotgun in my face and said, "Either you marry my daughter, or I will send you to jail for 20 years".

I remember that too", she replies softly.

*He wipes another tear from his cheek and says...
"I would have gotten out today!"*

The Murphy Twins

Two men were sitting next to each other at Murphy's Pub in London. After awhile, one bloke looks at the other and says, 'I can't help but think, from listening to you, that you're from Ireland ' The other bloke responds proudly, 'Yes, that I am!' The first one says, 'So am I! And where about from Ireland might you be?'

The other bloke answers, 'I'm from Dublin , I am.'

The first one responds, 'So am I!'

'Mother Mary and begora. And what street did you live on in Dublin ?'

The other bloke says, 'A lovely little area it was. I lived on McCleary Street in the old central part of town.'

The first one says, 'Faith and it's a small world. So did I! So did I! And to what school would you have been going?'

The other bloke answers, 'Well now, I went to St. Mary's, of course.' The first one gets really excited and says, 'And so did I. Tell me, what year did you graduate?'

The other bloke answers, 'Well, now, let's see. I graduated in 1964.'

The first one exclaims, 'The Good Lord must be smiling down upon us! I can hardly believe our good luck at winding up in the same place tonight. Can you believe it, I graduated from St. Mary's in 1964 my own self!'

About this time, Vicky walks up to the bar, sits down and orders a drink.

Brian, the barman, walks over to Vicky, shaking his head and mutters, 'It's going to be a long night tonight.'

Vicky asks, 'Why do you say that, Brian?'

'The Murphy twins are drunk again.'
