MEMORIAL DAY PARADE A BIG POLLUTING SUCCESS

The long awaited 15 minute Memorial Day Parade slowly travelled down School Street to Park Avenue causing problems as it passed. It seems like the 50 tractor motorcade was doing well until Bud Millfoyle's tractor stalled for five minutes halting the parade. Bud was on his way to his field about 8 blocks from the cemetery where he wanted to fertilize the pasture with some fresh hog manure. "I was cuttin' through town and the first thing I knows I was in a parade. Everybody was a waving at me so's I waved back and follerd the guys in front of me" said Millfoyle. "I went to give th tractor the gas and it just died" he said. The tractor wouldn't restart and with the high temperature of the morning, the manure was gettin perty rank! If it weren't for the rescue squad wearing their breathing gear and a couple of cops with gas masks helping me, I'd never have gotten the dang tractor restarted" Millfoyle said.

said Delarina Foster.

There were also reports of the exhausts from the tractors and pickemup trucks nearly asphyxiated the crowd watching the parade. "I don't know which smell was worse"

After the parade regained its composure and headed toward the cemetery, kids enjoyed the other units of the parade.

TEENS ON MINI-BIKES TERRORIZE THE STREETS!

Zoooooom Zooooom Zooooom !!! 'Tis the season for out of school teens to terrorize Wrinkle Citians on the city streets. Often riding four abreast on the city streets and well exceeding the stated 25 mph speed limit, these malcontents blatantly speed with reckless abandonment down the side streets disturbing the peace and causing the dogs to go nutz! "Sometimes you just want to string a net across the street to catch those little ESSOBEEZ and give them a little whoopazz to make them stop" said 80 yr. old Willie Paskle.

FOREST RIDGE FANCIED UP FOR MEMORIAL DAY

The maintenance crews at the 128 year old Forest Ridge Cemetery on the outskirts of Wrinkle City have been mowing and decorating the cemetery in preparation of Memorial Day. "We pride ourselves in the upkeep of this historical cemetery" said Superintendent Jim "Digger" Jones. "The streets for our 28,000 residents don't have potholes like the city does" he said.

"Visitors are always welcome during daylight hours" stated Jones.

Wrinkle City Weather

Stinkin Hot, Damn Stormy, Dumb Kids,
Everything's in Disrepair And Getting Worse All The Time

WRINKLE SCHOOL STUDENTS FAIL EXAMS; MUST TAKE AGAIN

Wrinkle City Students studied for their final exams to see if they can be promoted to the next grade. They failed.

The Gazette was previously given an advance look at the 12th grade test. "The test is pretty darn hard to pass" said Jimmonetta Carter, the school superintendent. "Our results were disappointing, so we're going to give them a second chance" she said.

STINKY STALBERT DOES IT AGAIN

Wrinkle City Rescue was called to the local Home and Farm Store to help ventilate the building due to a rank odor emanating from the weed spray display area.

It seems that Stinky Stalbert was looking at the Deer and Rabbit Repellant display when he "accidentally" opened a bottle of the stuff to see what it smelled like. "I musta squeezed too hard and the stuff went everywhere!" he exclaimed. "I had it on my clothes, shoes and hands....it stunk real bad...it's worse than skunk" he said. "When I went to tell the manager what had happened, he kept running away!" exclaimed Stinky.

Nobody was seriously hurt. Mrs. Stalbert made Stinky sleep in the shed for a few days until the stench wore off.

The Way I Seez It

by Vic Lusch

Like a lot of unlucky stiffs in this town, I have to mow my yard every week and have a lawn service to take care of the dandelions ... I need to keep up with the Jones' so to speak.

My friend Vinnie has a broken down mower, and a lawn full of dandelions and weeds. Each year he has a beautiful yard festooned with these yellow flowers that turn fluffy.

When the wind blows, those little white fluffy balls blow through the air and causes me to have an extra application of Weed B Gone on my yard. What I do have a problem with him is not keeping his property weed-free and mowed. Ole' Vinnie needs to wake up some mornin' smellin' the scent of gasoline poured on his weeds. If Igotsta mow and have a presentable yard, so duzz he! ...And that's the way I seez it!

COMMISSIONERS VOTE TO TEAR DOWN OLD BUILDINGS

At a recent commission meeting, it was unanimously decided that several dilapidated old buildings be raised as they do not meet city building and safety codes. Each commissioner rang the ceremonial "Gong of Approval" after condemning the buildings and then chanting "Another slum bites the dust!" "We oughta have a dozer derby and start at one end of town and go to the other" said Commissioner Delbert Smitz.

HAPPY BUNZ CLOTHING OPTIONAL SOCIETY DELAYS OPENING

The seasonal opening of the Happy Bunz Clothing Optional Society has been delayed due to a severe outbreak of poison ivy and sumac.

Owners Orville and Fern Bunz indicated due to some heavy rains and warm temperatures, the once controlled poison ivy and sumac have gotten out of control and threaten several areas of the camp especially along the fence separating the beginner golf course at Echo Pond Golf Course. "We'll have it under control as soon as our hazmat suits come in so we can get in there and remove the stuff" said Orville. "We don't need to be itchin 24 / 7 and covered with calamine lotion as it's sunnin season!" exclaimed Fern.

SCAPEGOAT SPORTS

It's been a dismal year for the Wrinkle City High School Scapegoats. The football team won two games due to forfeitures. The basketball team lost them all. The baseball team won two games due to rainouts. The track team was running from the truant officer and the cops. The bowling team couldn't participate in the regional championships due to finger fungus. "This was the second worst year for sports in Scapegoat history" said Coach Smithers. "Looks like we'll have to pay some good kids under the table to participate next year" he said.

BEGINNERS COURSE REVENUE UP DESPITE RAIN

Toots Kowalski, golf pro at Echo Pond golf Course, reported to the city council that the revenues were up 15% despite the rain as new and experienced golfers were playing on the beginners course in anticipation of the opening of Happy Bunz. "We're getting so many golfers leaning on the fence waiting to tee off that the fence is leaning into the weeds at Happy Bunz" said Kowalski. "The new golfers are just itchin to go" he said. Kowalski also reported that sales of sun screen and calamine lotion have been exceptionally high.

TALES FROM THE 19TH HOLE

By Toots Kowalski

Reasons Why Golf Is Better Than Sex

- Your golf partner won't keep asking questions about other partners you've golfed with
- It's perfectly respectable to golf with a total stranger
- When you see a really good golfer, you don't have to feel guilty about imagining the two of you golfing together.
- If your regular golf partner isn't available, he/she won't object if you golf with someone else.
- You don't have to go to a sleazy shop in a seedy neighborhood to buy golf stuff.
- You can have a golf calendar on your wall at the office, tell golf jokes and invite co-workers to golf with you without getting sued for harassment
- There is no such thing as a golf transmitted disease

GRUMPIN AROUND TOWN

WITH GRUMP

By Falworth T. Grump

I need to applaud the city council for letting the town go to hell in a hand basket!

They've done a poor job at bringing good paying jobs into town. If it weren't for Grandma's Tattoo Parlor, Funky's Head Shop, Adam and Steve's Adult Toy Store, Lusch's Bar and Grille, Amigone Funerall Home, Bubba's Big Time BBQ and Boobs 'N Beer, we'd have no business at all.

When neighboring towns can get Honder's Nuclear Motors Warehouse, Miner's Home Store, and China Goods 'N More, why can't we? Sub-minimum wage is killin this town.

All we're attracting is a bunch of welfare recipients and drug dealers from Dayton!

Wish those SOB's in charge get their act together!

Grump out!

BEDPAN ALLEY

A lighter side of medical humor

By Dr. I. M. Nutz

Dr. Jones goes to the retirement home for his monthly rounds. He sees Joe and asks him, "Joe, how much is three times three?" Joe responds "59." He goes over to Tom and asks, "Tom, how much is three times three?" Tom responds, "Wednesday." He finally goes over to John and asks, "John, how much is three times three?" "NINE" replies John. "That's right ...now how did you come to that answer?" "It was easy...I just subtracted 59 from Wednesday!

Novel Treatment

A long time ago a patient came to Emergency with a fish bone stuck in her throat. The ENT staff physician on call was contacted and the intern was told to take the patient to the ENT operating room.

Just outside the Emergency was a corridor with a gently sloping ramp that led to another part of the hospital where the ENT OR was located.

At the top of the ramp the intern lost control of the wheelchair, which hurtled down the ramp. At the bottom of the ramp one of the wheels of the wheelchair caught on the doorway and the patient was thrown to the ground.

The patient immediately coughed up the fish bone.

The intern, with great presence of mind, said, "You're awfully lucky, lady. Usually we have to do this two or three times before we get it out."

WRINKLE CITY RULES

by Hyacinth Flowers

1. Always identify people in your yard before shooting at them.
2. If you have to vacuum the bed, it is time to change the sheets.
3. Even if you're certain that you are included in the will, it is still considered tacky to drive a U-Haul to the funeral home.
6. If drinking directly from the bottle of cheap beer, always rip off the label.

7. Avoid throwing bones and food scraps on the floor as the restaurant may not have dogs.

8. It's not polite to make under-arm pharting noises at the dinner table or in a restaurant but it's OK during a concert in the park!

9. It's dishonest to stick beer bottle labels on your arm and claim you're a recovering alcoholic and your "on the patch."

YOU MIGHT BE FROM WRINKLE CITY IF ...

There are no sober parents at your school's parent / teacher events.

You mute the TV before breaking wind.

Your RV used to be an ambulance.

You think a pen pal is the guy you served 12 years with.

You're unable to start a family due to a childhood wedgie.

You look forward to reading the Wrinkle City Gazette.

MORTALLY SPEAKING...

By Emerson Balmer
Amigone Funeral & Cremation Service

Who says us undertakers don't have a sense of humor?! We do have a funny side...sometimes!

This guy's father dies, so he goes to the undertaker and tells him he wants the best of everything for his father.

The man gets really sick the day of the funeral, however, and is unable to attend.

The next day, he gets a bill for $16,000. He pays it. The next month, he gets another bill for $85. He figures it's just a little supplementary bill, so he pays that, too.

Next month, another bill for $85 arrives, so he calls up the undertaker and says, "I keep getting these bills for $85 dollars. I thought I paid for the funeral already."

The undertaker says, "Well, you said you wanted the best for your father, so I rented him a tux."

A funeral service is being held in a church for a woman who has just passed away. At the end of the service, the pallbearers carrying the casket accidentally bump into a wall jarring the casket. They hear a faint moan. They open the casket and find that the woman is actually alive. She lives for 10 more years and then dies. A ceremony is again held at the same church and at the end the pallbearers are again carrying the casket out. As they are walking, the husband calls out, "Watch out for the wall!"

Any day above ground is a good one.

RELIGIOUS HUMOR...

By Rev. Jeraldene Dibley

It seems that there was a little old church out in the countryside: painted white and with a high steeple.

One Sunday, the pastor noticed that his church needed painting. He checked out the Sunday ads and found a paint sale. The next day, he went into town and bought a gallon of white paint. He went back out to the church and began the job.

He got done with the first side. It was looking great.

But he noticed he had already used a half gallon. He didn't want to run back in town and being the creative person that he was, he found a gallon of thinner in the shed out back, and began to thin his paint.

It worked out great. He finished the remaining three sides with that last half gallon of paint.

That night, it rained: it rained hard. The next morning when he stepped outside of the parsonage to admire his work, he saw that the first side was looking great, but that the paint on the other three sides had washed away.

The pastor looked up in sky in anguish and cried out, "What shall I do?"

A voice came back from the heavens saying, "Repaint, and thin no more!"

ST. CROISSANT'S TEA SIPPING CLUB CANCELS JUNE MEETINGS

President Marvella Pennywhistle of the local "Tea" Sipping Club at St. Croissant's Church informed the Gazette that the club is cancelling their meetings during the month of June due to an error in celebrating their tea sipping last month. It seems that Charmaine Hippenwell accidentally had some poison ivy in her mint tea as well as a bad case of finger fungus she obtained when she bowled at Wrinkle City Lanes. "It's not the finger fungus we're worried about" said Pennywhistle. "It's the poison ivy that will leave you speechless."

The club will resume tea tasting parties in July.
