

MEMORIAL DAY PARADE HAS ITS UPS AND DOWNS

The Memorial Day parade was, as usual, quite an ordeal. Local scouts and brownies waved flags as they led the procession followed by the Scapegoat Band, the Wrinkle City VFD, antique cars and, as usual, with Bud Millfoyle's hoey hearse bringing up the end.

Over 20 Boy Scouts and Brownies waved their flags as they attempted to march in straight lines while waiving to the assembled crowds along the way. "We always enjoy participating in the parade" said Scout Master Del Foster. "It helps us get our hiking badge" he said.

The Scapegoat Band was made up of Freshmen, Sophomores and Juniors trying to play music. The Seniors were not in attendance as they were trying to sober up after the prom or doing community service for toilet papering the trees in front of the high school.

The WCVFD had all three trucks in the parade spewing dark clouds of French fry smelling diesel fumes as they passed in review. When asked about the dark cloud of French fry fumes, Chief Red Spenders said they were trying to save money by using used fry oil from McDoogles and Wendeez. "It's cheap, it burns and it makes you hungry at the same time" he said. "The firemen have put on 20 extra pounds!," exclaimed Chief Spenders.

The Civic Band float made its presence known to all. It seems the band showed up, had a few quick drinks and played Dixieland jazz all the way down the parade route.

The Memorial Day Parade slowly and smoothly travelled down School Street to Park Avenue. It seems like the parade was doing well until Bud Millfoyle's tractor stalled for five minutes halting the parade. Bud was on his way to his field about 8 blocks from the cemetery where he wanted to fertilize the pasture with some fresh hog manure. "I was cuttin' through town and the next thing I knows I was in a parade. Everybody was a waving at me so's I waved back and follerd the guys in front of me like I did last year" said Millfoyle. "I went to give the tractor the gas and it just died" he said. The tractor wouldn't restart and high humidity of the morning, the manure was gettin perty rank! If it weren't for the rescue squad wearing their breathing gear and a couple of cops with gas masks helping me, I'd never have gotten the dang tractor restarted" Millfoyle said.

After the parade regained its composure and headed toward the cemetery, kids enjoyed the other units of the parade.

At the cemetery, Mayor Alton J. Souhey gave the traditional speech honoring the veterans. All went well until the local VFW honored the deceased by firing a volley of loud rifle shots startling the pidgins roosting in the trees above the review stand. The startled pidgins promptly expressed their feelings on the review stand below causing a shortened celebration.

FOREST RIDGE FANCIED UP FOR MEMORIAL DAY

The maintenance crews at the 128 year old Forest Ridge Cemetery on the outskirts of Wrinkle City have been mowing and decorating the cemetery in preparation of Memorial Day. "We pride ourselves in the upkeep of this historical cemetery" said Superintendent Jim "Digger" Jones. "The streets for our 28,000 residents don't have potholes like the city does" he said.

"We've done a lot to spruce up the cemetery by removing dead trees and underbrush as well as planting flowers and spreading mulch" he said. "Visitors are always welcome during daylight hours" stated Jones.

STINKY STALBERT DOES IT AGAIN

Wrinkle City Rescue was called to the local Home and Farm Store to help ventilate the building due to a rank odor emanating from the weed spray display area.

It seems that Stinky Stalbert was looking at the Deer and Rabbit Repellent display when he "accidentally" opened a bottle of the stuff to see what it smelled like. "I musta squeezed too hard and the stuff went everywhere!" he exclaimed. "I had it on my clothes, shoes and hands...it stunk real bad...it's worse than skunk" he said. "When I went to tell the manager what had happened, he kept running away!" exclaimed Stinky.

Nobody was seriously hurt. Mrs. Stalbert made Stinky sleep in the shed for a few days until the stench wore off. The local animals vacated their dens and sought comfort several blocks away.

The Way I Seez It

by Vic Lusch

Like a lot of unlucky stiffs in this town, I have to mow my yard every week and have a lawn service to take care of the dandelions ... I need to keep up with the Jones' so to speak.

A lot of people in Wrinkle City don't mow their lawns as they should. Many have a broken down mower, and a lawn full of dandelions and weeds. Each year the city has a beautiful yard festooned with these yellow flowers that turn fluffy.

When the wind blows, those little white fluffy balls blow through the air and causes me to have an extra application of Weed B Gone on my yard. What I do have a problem with them is not keeping his property weed-free and mowed. Ole' Vinnie needs to wake up some mornin' smellin' the scent of gasoline poured on his weeds. If I gotsta mow and have a presentable yard, so duzz they! ...And that's the way I seez it!

CITY REPAVING TO BEGIN / 25-A ALMOST DONE!

With good weather ahead, Wrinkle City paving crews will begin patching the vast amounts of potholes throughout the town. "We're at least 4 weeks ahead of schedule so far due to the warm dry weather" said Parker Navitny, assistant project manager. "With any luck at all, we'll be able to open the downtown up for monkey business as usual," he said.

"Route 25-A reconstruction is almost finished, but the mayor lost his keys in the freshly poured asphalt and we had to dig up part of the highway!" exclaimed Navitny.

"Them special EPA oil drains had to be excavated too, so it looks like another 2 months of work." He said.

COMMISSIONERS VOTE TO TEAR DOWN OLD BUILDINGS

At a recent commission meeting, it was unanimously decided that several dilapidated old buildings be raised as they do not meet city building and safety codes. Each commissioner rang the ceremonial "Gong of Approval" after condemning the buildings and then chanting "Another slum bites the dust!" "We oughta have a dozer derby and start at one end of South Main and and go to the North Main bridge" said Commissioner Delbert Smitz.

HAPPY BUNZ CLOTHING OPTIONAL SOCIETY OPENS WITH A BANG!

The seasonal opening of the Happy Bunz Clothing Optional Society in the past has been delayed due to a severe outbreak of poison ivy and sumac delaying their traditional June opening. This year, however, owners

Orville and Fern Bunz said they have had dry weather and time to eradicate the pesky weeds and were almost ready to open on time. "I had everything done until Fern reminded me I had to clean the outhouse," Orville said. "When I walked in, there was a big flash. Seems like the festering raucous odors in the 12 hole outhouse grew over the winter and blew the roof off the building startling the golfers next door. Stuff went everywhere!" Orville exclaimed. "Fern always told me never to smoke while cleaning the crapper" said Orville. "Seems like I can never remember that!" he exclaimed. A construction crew was hired and a outhouse with ventilation will be in place when the grounds open in mid-June. Happy Bunz had to pay for the cleaning of the golfers' outfits.

HAPPY BUNZ NEEDS SUMMER HELP

Happy Bunz Clothing Optional Campground is looking for a semi-retired person to help in the daily operation of the campgrounds. Applicant must be able to do handyman repairs including plumbing, carpentry, electrical and lawncare. Call Orville at 545-BUNZ

BEGINNERS COURSE REVENUE UP DESPITE EXPLOSION

Toots Kowalski, golf pro at Echo Pond golf Course, reported to the city council that the revenues were up 15% despite the outhouse explosion as new and experienced golfers were playing on the beginners course in anticipation of the opening of Happy Bunz.

Reasons Why Golf Is Better Than Sex

- Your golf partner won't keep asking questions about other partners you've golfed with

- It's perfectly respectable to golf with a total stranger
- When you see a really good golfer, you don't have to feel guilty about imagining the two of you golfing together.
- If your regular golf partner isn't available, he/she won't object if you golf with someone else.
- You don't have to go to a sleazy shop in a seedy neighborhood to buy golf stuff.
- You can have a golf calendar on your wall at the office, tell golf jokes and invite co-workers to golf with you without getting sued for harassment
- There is no such thing as a golf transmitted disease

GRUMPIN AROUND TOWN WITH GRUMP

By Falworth T. Grump

I need to applaud the city council for letting the town go to hell in a hand basket!

They've done a poor job at bringing good paying jobs into town. If it weren't for Grandma's Tattoo Parlor, Funky's Head Shop, Adam and Steve's Adult Toy Store, Lusch's Bar and Grille, Amigone Funeral Home, Bubba's Big Time BBQ and Boobs 'N Beer, we'd have no business at all.

When neighboring towns can get Abbott's Pablum Factory, Miner's Home Store, and China Goods 'N More, why can't we? Sub-minimum wage is killin this town.

All we're attracting is a bunch of welfare recipients and drug dealers from Dayton!

Wish those SOB's in charge get their act together!

Grump out!

An old prospector shuffled into the town of El Indio, Texas leading a tired old mule. The old man headed straight for the only saloon in town, to clear his parched throat.

He walked up to the saloon and tied his old mule to the hitch rail.

As he stood there, brushing some of the dust from his face and clothes, a young gunslinger stepped out of the saloon with a gun in one hand and a bottle of whiskey in the other.

The young gunslinger looked at the old man and laughed, saying, "Hey old man, can you dance?"

The old man looked up at the gunslinger and said, "No son, I don't dance... never really wanted to"

A crowd had gathered as the gunslinger grinned and said, "Well, you old fool, you're gonna dance now!" and started shooting at the old man's feet.

The old prospector, not wanting to get a toe blown off, started hopping around like a flea on a hot skillet.

Everybody standing around was laughing..

When his last bullet had been fired, the young gunslinger, still laughing, holstered his gun and turned around to go back into the saloon.

The old man turned to his pack mule, pulled out a double-barreled 12 gauge shotgun and cocked both hammers.

The loud clicks carried clearly through the desert air. The crowd stopped laughing immediately.

The young gunslinger heard the sounds too, and he turned around very slowly.

The silence was deafening. The crowd watched as the young gunman stared at the old timer and the large gaping holes of those twin 12 gauge barrels.

The barrels of the shotgun never wavered in the old man's hands, as he quietly said;

"Son, have you ever kissed a mule's rear end?"

The gunslinger swallowed hard and said, "No sir... but.... I've always wanted to"

A lighter side of medical humor

By Dr. I. M. Nutz

Dr. Jones goes to the retirement home for his monthly rounds. He sees Joe and asks him, "Joe, how much is three times three?" Joe responds "59." He goes over to Tom and asks, "Tom, how much is three times three?" Tom responds, "Wednesday." He finally goes over to John and asks, "John, how much is three times three?" "NINE" replies John. "That's right ...now how did you come to that answer?" "It was easy...I just subtracted 59 from Wednesday!

After being married for thirty years, a wife asked her husband to describe her.

He looked at her for awhile, then said, "You're an alphabet wife ... A, B, C, D, E, F, G, H, I, J, K." She asked, "What the hell does that mean?"

He said, "Adorable, Beautiful, Cute, Delightful, Elegant, Foxy, Gorgeous, and Hot."

She smiled happily and said, "Oh, that's so lovely ... But what about I, J, K?"

He said, "I'm Just Kidding!"

The swelling in his eye is going down, and the doctor is cautiously optimistic about saving his testicles.

There are no sober parents at your school's parent / teacher events.

Your kid was busted for underage drinking at an after the prom party.

You mute the TV before breaking wind.

You think a pen pal is the guy you served 12 years with.

You're unable to start a family due to a childhood wedgie.

You look forward to reading the Wrinkle City Gazette.

MORTALLY SPEAKING...

By Emerson Balmer
Amigone Funeral & Cremation Service

Who says us undertakers don't have a sense of humor!?! We do have a funny side...sometimes!

A funeral service is being held in a church for a woman who has just passed away. At the end of the service, the pallbearers carrying the casket accidentally bump into a wall jarring the casket. They hear a faint moan. They open the casket and find that the woman is actually alive. She lives for 10 more years and then dies. The lady finally passes and a ceremony is again held at the same church and at the end the pallbearers are again carrying the casket out. As they are walking, the husband calls out, "Watch out for the wall!"

Any day above ground is a good one.

RELIGIOUS HUMOR...

By Rev. Jeraldene Dibley

It seems that there was a little old church out in the countryside: painted white and with a high steeple.

One Sunday, the pastor noticed that his church needed painting. He checked out the Sunday ads and found a paint sale. The next day, he went into town and bought a gallon of white paint. He went back out to the church and began the job.

He got done with the first side. It was looking great. But he noticed he had already used a half gallon. He didn't want to run back in town and being the creative person that he was, he found a gallon of thinner in the shed out back, and began to thin his paint.

It worked out great. He finished the remaining three sides with that last half gallon of paint.

That night, it rained: it rained hard. The next morning when he stepped outside of the parsonage to admire his work, he saw that the first side was looking great, but that the paint on the other three sides had washed away.

The pastor looked up in sky in anguish and cried out, "What shall I do?"

A voice came back from the heavens saying, "Repaint, and thin no more!"

SENIOR MOMENTS ...

THOUGHTS TO PONDER

- 1) Life is sexually transmitted.
- 2) Good health is merely the slowest possible rate at which one can die.
- 3) Men have two emotions: Hungry and Horny. They can't tell them apart. If you see a gleam in his eyes, make him a sandwich.
- 4) Give a person a fish and you feed them for a day. Teach a person to use the Internet and they won't bother you for weeks, months, maybe years.
- 5) Health nuts are going to feel stupid someday, lying in the hospitals, dying of nothing.
- 6) All of us could take a lesson from the weather. It pays no attention to criticism.
- 7) In the 60's, people took acid to make the world weird. Now the world is weird and people take Prozac to make it normal.

8) Life is like a jar of Jalapeno peppers—
What you do today, might burn your ass tomorrow.

COVINGTON NEWS

Covington city council has approved the purchase of three new police cruisers to replace the ageing Crown Vics. Mayor Sully Pikignew stated the fuel economy will be a lot better, but the response time will be a little slower.

In another action, city council is considering the purchase of a community bilge pump to get rid of excess rainwater due to the last rain where the city had 5 inches of water which flooded many low laying homes and businesses. "We'll just pump it into the river and let Pea Hill deal with it," said Pikignew.

PEA HILL UPDATE

ROAD CONSTRUCTION BEGINS ON MAIN STREET

Embarrassed by the long delays in construction on north Main Street, the Department of Transportation has begun digging up the roadway and is installing new sewer, water and gas lines. The project is to take at least 9 months before paving finally begins March of 2015. "Residents are asked to have their outhouses pumped dry by the end of June as Souhey's Septic Pumping Trucks will not be able to use the main roads and are too big for the alleys," said Mayor "Big John" Lolly.

NEW DINER OPENS IN PEA HILL

Loretta Squelch is the new proprietor of the House Park BBQ in downtown Pea Hill.

The menu consists of overly tenderized beef brisket and various cut of pork with a smoky flavor.

Hours are 10:00 AM to 7:00 PM Tuesday thru Sunday.

ST. CROISSANT'S TEA SIPPING CLUB CANCELS JUNE MEETINGS

President Marvella Pennywhistle reports that a mix up was made in the communion juice at St. Croissant's Church. It seems that Charmaine Hippenwell "accidentally" added some of her locally provided moon shine to help the flavor of the flat-tasting grape juice. To cover her tracks, she set aside a plain juice for the pastor and the spiked... er ... "enhanced" version for the parish attendees. After partaking of the wine, the congregation began speaking in tongues and dancing in the aisles. "For a minute the pastor thought he was in a Pentecostal church," said Pennywhistle. Hippenwell has been assigned other duties.

City Commission meetings (aka The Gong Show) held on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month. Citizens will be frisked at the door for cream pies, rotten tomatoes and building plans for porches and decks. The traditional “afterglow” at Boobs ‘N Beer will be followed by a tour of the city.
