

SALT SUPPLY STILL SHORT; CITY USES SWEET PICKLE BRINE SPREADERS INSTEAD. ONE STICKY MESS

Wrinkle City does not have enough salt to last the year. Instead, they are using salt brine and beet juice to put on the streets prior to snow falling. "It's a cheaper way to keep the snow manageable and make it melt quicker" said Dillard Bovotny, street supervisor. "We just got a new supply of free sweet pickle brine from Uncle Milty's Pickle factory and have been using it for the past 3 snows. "The city smelled at first like a giant dill pickle, but the scent goes away after awhile," said Bovotny . "We've been using the free sweet pickle brine and have found in some cases the motorists get better traction on the street," he said. "There were reports of pedestrians get the stuff on their feet when they used the crosswalks and then picking up all kinds of stuff on the soles of their shoes," said Bovotny.

Hopefully next month we won't need to use any!

STEP SHARKS & WEIRD CHARACTERS FOUND IN WRINKLE CITY

Some of the local yahos were very creative after the last big 6" snowfall.

There were Step Sharks and Minions all over town.

WRINKLE CITY MANAGER DECLARES WAR ON POTHOLES

This winter has not been very friendly to many of us Wrinklecitians as the heavy snow and ice freeze - thaw cycle has created numerous potholes on the city streets. Most of us have experienced a teeth chattering / bone jarring ride while going to work, taking the kids to school, going to the grocery or going to Boobs'N Beer for a stiff one.

After his car hit a huge pothole on High Street, City Manager Virgil Tinzlee declared war on the potholes. City crews will be filling all potholes in town with anything they can beg, borrow or steal as Tinzlee's car sustained heavy damage to its front end. "If it weren't for me hittin' that submerged school bus, I would have been a gonner," said Tinzlee.

Citizens wishing to donate to the paving cause and deliver bags of sand, gravel or cold patch to Tinzlee's office during normal hours or leave them outside the back door when the townhall is closed.

WRINKLE CITY PREPARES FOR SAINT PADDY'S PARADE

Saint Ignoramus' Parish is preparing for the annual St. Paddy's Day Parade. The parade will begin at City Hall and will be led by Mayor Alton J. Souhey dressed as St. Paddy and Virgil Tinzley dressed as a green shamrock. Music will be provided by the Scapegoat band. The parade will wind its way through the downtown to Lusch's Bar. The Shootin Sisters of Nomeracy will be controlling the crowds. Drunks and sinners are warned to bring plenty of money for the mission box.

CITY MANAGER CHALLENGES COUNCIL

City Manager Virgil Tinzlee challenged the Wrinkle City Commissioners at the last council meeting to spend 48 hours with every job position in city government. how others get city jobs. "Every commissioner needs to know what people do in the Street, Sanitation and Safety divisions" said Tinzlee.

Citizens attending the latest council meeting were in agreement and urged the commissioners to take on the challenge. "At least we'll get a good laugh out of it!"

exclaimed Hawley Smoot, local barber and part time comedian at Lusch's Bar and Grill. "We'll get to see them shoveling the hoey and patchin holes!" he exclaimed. "Workin' with those nuns are really keep them on their toes. They gotta watch out for those flyin' switch sticks those penguins use!" Smoot exclaimed.

NUNS WITH GUNS CLEAN UP WRINKLE CITY

Chief Barney "One Bullit" McGinty and his officers have been attending the 2015

Police Extravaganza in Las Vegas during the month of February and have asked to stay another month citing the need to study gambling and addiction. Mayor Souhey subcontracted the duties to the Shootin Sisters of the Sisters of Nomeracy Convent. The city council voted to extend the educational trip.

Last year's record for the Shootin Sisters resulted in over 300 arrests for illegal drugs, 200 DUI, 50 for spittin on the sidewalk, not to mention $10,000 in the Charity and Missions box.

"So far this year has been a snap!" exclaimed Sister Mary Elephant (The Mother Superior). "People see us comin and dig deep into their pockets to pay for their sins," she said. She expects everyone to be on their best behavior while the nuns are in town. "We've also been equipped with additional steel rulers and 175 gallons of Holy Water for the additional month" she said.

"Best be on your best behavior" said Mayor Alton J. Souhey. "These nuns mean business! "When the Holy Mother hauls out the big bat, you've had it!" he exclaimed.

CITY RAISES POWER RATES; CITIZENS COMPLAIN

A crowd of around 100 Wrinklecitians attended the city commission meeting complaining about high power bills.

City Manager Virgil Tinzlee listened to about 20 of the complaints before telling everyone in attendance to quit using quartz heaters and grow lights for their marijuana plants.

The Nuns of Nomeracy were called to clear the chambers before the council could resume business. "It was over in a flash!" exclaimed Jonathan Millrose. All I saw was a bunch of penguins barge into the room swinging steel rulers and forcing the complainers out the door. Another nun standing outside the door spraying them with Holy Water," Millrose said.

COUNCIL VOTES TO INCREASE INCOME TAX

Mayor Alton J. Souhey and the City Commissioners voted 4 – 0 to adjust the city income tax for the city residents and businesses. (Councilman Delbert Smittz was unavailable to vote as he was recuperating in the drunk tank.) The agreed additional charge will be $10.00 per acre of land owned per month.

Vic Lusch owner of several slum properties told those assembled at the city hall on the night of the vote "This is highway robbery, pillage and rape of everyone in the city! I'll just have to raise my booze and prices to fill the city's pockets" he said.

A 5 minute brawl broke out in the council chambers after Lusch's statement. Sister Mary Eliphant stopped the brawl by swinging her Holy Moses Baseball Bat and spanking the hands of those involved with her steel ruler. A $100 donation from each person involved in the donnybrook was made to the Charity and Missions Box. Order was regained and everyone re-took their seats.

Lusch said to citizens afterwards "Man that lady smacks a mean ruler" as he exited the council chambers.

GRUMPIN AROUND TOWN WITH GRUMP

By Falworth T. Grump

I was having my usual lunch at Wendeez Burgers when I heard a guy start describing his wife's overly rotund body. He said "she's so fat we had to put French doors on the front of the mobile home so she could get her butt in the door." I thought to myself now that's one hefty woman! He later went on to state that she was so fat she that he bought her a love seat so she'd have a place to sit on in the living room. After a few minutes, he barked out " My wife's so fat we have to put a wide load sign on the car and ask for a police escort just to go to the grocery!" he exclaimed. Then he stood up and exclaimed his wife was so fat he had to install steel beams in her love seat to keep it from sagging. He then remarked that "his wife was so fat that when she turned on the heated seats in the car, you could smell bacon burning!" Finally, he uttered the coop de gras: "she's so fat, when we need to clean the hot tub, she gets in and all the water flies out!" Unfortunately, his wife was eating with her friends a few tables away. The funeral will be held next Friday.

SCAPEGOAT BASKETBALL TEAM TO PLAY IN TOURNEY

The 8- 16 Scapegoat basketball team will take their balls to compete in the district tournament. The 'goats have increased their wins from a year ago. However, their season is under investigation as someone accused the board of education president paying the referees under the table with free food and beer at Lusch's.

SCAPEGOAT DANCING BIMBOS TO GIVE FREE SHOW

The WCHS Dancing Bimbos will have their famous halftime review dance show in the school gymnasium on March 15th at 7 PM. The Bimbos would have done the performance at the end of the regular basketball season, but Bertha "Big Thighs" Buttz was still nursing a sore rump from the last time she fell from the human pyramid formation. The 350 pound senior fell as she was at the very apex of the formation and dented the gym floor.

LAFFIN AT THE LAW

By Dewey Cheatham & Howe, LLP

The Deaf Italian Bookkeeper

A Mafia Godfather finds out that his bookkeeper, Guido, has cheated him out of $10,000,000. His bookkeeper is deaf. That was the reason he got the job in the first place. It was assumed that Guido would hear nothing so he would never have to testify in court. When the Godfather goes to confront Guido about his missing $10 million, he takes along his lawyer who knows sign language. The Godfather tells the lawyer, "Ask him where's the money? The lawyer, using sign language, asks Guido where's the money?. Guido signs back, "I don't know what you are talking about." The lawyer tells the Godfather, "He says he doesn't know what you're talking about." The Godfather pulls out a pistol, puts it to Guido's temple and says, "Ask him again!" The lawyer signs to Guido, "He'll kill you if you don't tell him.." Guido signs back, "OK!!!! You win! The money is in a brown briefcase, buried behind the shed at my cousin Bruno's house." The Godfather asks the lawyer, "What did he say?" The lawyer replies, " He says you don't have the balls to pull the trigger."

A Can of Peaches

A very cranky old woman was arrested for shoplifting at a grocery store. She gave everyone a hard time, from the store manager to the security guard to the arresting officer who took her away, complaining and criticizing throughout the process. When she appeared before the judge, the judge asked what she had stolen from the store. The lady defiantly replied, "Just a stupid can of peaches." The judge then asked why she had done it. She replied, "I was hungry and forgot to bring any cash to the store." The judge asked how many peaches were in the can. She replied, "Nine, but what do you care about that?" The judge patiently said, "Well, ma'am, because I'm going to give you nine days in jail -- one day for each peach." As the judge was about to drop his gavel, the lady's long suffering husband raised his hand and asked if he might speak. The judge said, "Yes, what do you have to add?" The husband said, "Your Honor, she also stole a can of peas."

A Dad's Reply

I took my dad to the mall the other day to buy some new shoes (he is 88). We decided to grab a bite at the food court. I noticed he was watching a teenager sitting next to him.

The teenager had spiked hair in all different colors - Green, red, orange, and blue.

My dad kept staring at her.

The teenager kept looking and would find my dad staring every time.

When the teenager had had enough, she sarcastically asked: "What's the matter old man, never done anything wild in your life?" Knowing my Dad, I quickly swallowed my food so that I would not choke on his response; I knew he would have a good one! In classic style he responded without batting an eyelid "Got stoned once and had sex with a parrot. I was just wondering if you might be my kid."

TALES FROM THE 19TH HOLE

By Toots Kowalski

The Laws of Golf

LAW 1:

No matter how bad your last shot was, you should have Inner Peace knowing that a shittier one is yet to come. This law does not expire on the 18th hole, since it has the supernatural tendency to extend over the course of a tournament, a summer and, eventually, a lifetime.

LAW 2:

Your best round of golf will be followed almost immediately by your worst round ever. The probability of the latter increases with the number of people you tell about the former.

LAW 3:

Brand new golf balls are water-magnetic. Though this cannot be proven in the lab, it is a known fact that the more expensive the golf ball, the greater its attraction to water. Expensive clubs have been known to be partly made with this most unusual natural alloy.

LAW 4:

Golf balls never bounce off of trees back into play. If one does, the tree is breaking a law of the universe and should be cut down.

LAW 5:

The higher a golfer's handicap, the more qualified he deems himself as an instructor.

LAW 6:

A golfer hitting into your group will always be bigger than anyone in your group. Likewise, a group you accidentally hit into will consist of a football player, a professional wrestler, a convicted murderer and an IRS agent -- or some similar combination.

LAW 7:

All 3-woods are demon-possessed. Your Mother in Law does not come close.

LAW 8:

Golf balls from the same "sleeve" tend to follow one another, particularly out of bounds or into the water. See LAW 3.

LAW 9:

The last three holes of a round will automatically adjust your score to what it really should be.

LAW 10:

Golf should be given up at least twice per month.

Children Say The Darndest Things

1. A nursery school pupil told his teacher he'd found a cat, but it was dead. 'How do you know that the cat was dead?' she asked her pupil. 'Because I pissed in its ear and it didn't move,' answered the child innocently. 'You did WHAT?' the teacher exclaimed in surprise. 'You know,' explained the boy, 'I leaned over and went 'Pssst' and it didn't move'

2. A small boy is sent to bed by his father. Five minutes later.....'Da-ad....' 'What?' 'I'm thirsty. Can you bring a drink of water?' 'No, You had your chance. Lights out.' Five minutes later: 'Da-aaaad.....' 'WHAT?' 'I'm THIRSTY. Can I have a drink of water??' 'I told you NO! If you ask again, I'll have to smack your butt!!' Five minutes later.....'Daaaa-aaaad.....' 'WHAT!' 'When you come in to smack me, can you bring a drink of water?'

3. An exasperated mother, whose son was always getting into mischief, finally asked him 'How do you expect to get into Heaven?' The boy thought it over and said, 'Well, I'll run in and out and in and out and keep slamming the door until St. Peter says, 'For Heaven's sake, Dylan, come in or stay out!'

4. One summer evening during a violent thunderstorm a mother was tucking her son into bed. She was about to turn off the light when he asked with a tremor in his voice, 'Mommy, will you sleep with me tonight?' The mother smiled and gave him a reassuring hug. 'I can't dear,' she said. 'I have to sleep in Daddy's room.' A long silence was broken at last by his shaky little voice: 'The big sissy.'

5. It was that time, during the Sunday morning service, for the children's sermon. All the children were invited to come forward. One little girl was wearing a particularly pretty dress and, as she sat down, the minister leaned over and said, 'That is a very pretty dress. Is it your Easter Dress?' The little girl replied, directly into the minister's clip-on microphone, 'Yes, and my Mom says it's a bitch to iron.'

6.. A little boy was doing his math homework. He said to himself, 'Two plus five, that son of a bitch is seven. Three plus six, that son of a bitch is nine....'

His mother heard what he was saying and gasped, 'What are you doing?' The little boy answered, 'I'm doing my math homework, Mom. "And this is how your teacher taught you to do it?" the mother asked 'Yes,' he answered. Infuriated, the mother asked the teacher the next day, 'What are you teaching my son in math?' The teacher replied, 'Right now, we are learning addition. 'The mother asked, 'And are you teaching them to say two plus two, that son of a bitch is four?' After the teacher stopped laughing, she answered, 'What I taught them was, two plus two, THE SUM OF WHICH, is four.'

7. One day the first grade nun was reading the story of Chicken Little to her class. She came to the part of the story where Chicken Little tried to warn the farmer.. She read, '... and so Chicken Little went up to the farmer and said, 'The sky is falling, the sky is falling!'

The nun paused then asked the class, 'And what do you think that farmer said?' One little girl raised her hand and said, 'I think he said: 'Holy Shit! A talking chicken!' The teacher was unable to teach for the next 10 minutes.

YOU MIGHT BE FROM WRINKLE CITY IF ...

SENIOR MOMENTS

Kergers & Purina

Yesterday I was at my local Kergers Market buying a large bag of Purina dog chow for my loyal pet, Jake, the Wonder Dog and was in the check-out line when a woman behind me asked if I had a dog. What did she think I had, an elephant?

So because I'm retired and have little to do, on impulse I told her that no, I didn't have a dog, I was starting the Purina Diet again. I added that I probably shouldn't, because I ended up in the hospital last time, but that I'd lost 50 pounds before I awakened in an intensive care ward with tubes coming out of most of my orifices and IVs in both arms.

I told her that it was essentially a perfect diet and that the way that it works is, to load your pants pockets with Purina Nuggets and simply eat one or two every time you feel hungry. The food is nutritionally complete so it works well and I was going to try it again. (I have to mention here that practically everyone in line was now enthralled with my story.)

Horrified, she asked if I ended up in intensive care, because the dog food poisoned me. I told her no, I stopped to pee on a fire hydrant and a car hit me.

I thought the guy behind her was going to have a heart attack he was laughing so hard.

Kergers Market won't let me shop there anymore.

The Parking Ticket

Delbert Gnarley and his wife went into town and visited a shop. When we came out, there was a cop writing out a parking ticket.. We went up to him and I said, "come on man, how about giving a senior citizen a break?" He ignored us and continued writing the ticket. I called him an "azzhole." He glared at me and started writing another ticket for having worn-out tires. So Bonnie (my wife) called him a "schitt head." He finished the second ticket and put it on the windshield with the first. Then he started writing more tickets. This went on for about 20 minutes. The more we abused him, the more tickets he wrote. He finally finished, sneered at us and walked away. Just then our bus arrived, and we got on it and went home.

We always look for cars with Obama stickers. We try to have a little fun each day now that we're retired. It's so important at our age!!

MORTALLY SPEAKING...

By Emerson Balmer
Amigone Funeral & Cremation Service

Poor Funeral Etiquette

The following should not be done when at a visitation or funeral service.

Walk around telling people that you've seen the will and they're not in it.

Get someone to call you on your cell phone during ceremony and pretend you're talking to the deceased person.

Promise the minister a hundred dollars if he doesn't keep a straight face while praising the deceased.

Please be assured, we at Amigone Funeral and Cremation Services wouldn't think of doing that! Besides, we're the only one in town. We always let you down...it's our business!

RELIGIOUS HUMOR...

By Rev. Jeraldene Dibley

All eyes were on the radiant bride as her father escorted her down the aisle. They reached the altar and the waiting groom. The bride kissed her father and placed something in his hand.

The guests in the front pews responded with ripples of laughter. Even the priest smiled broadly. As her father gave her away in marriage, the bride gave him back his credit card.

"It's a good thing Henry Ford didn't build cars in Wrinkle City 'cause we'd still be walkin!"

Atheist In The Woods

An atheist was walking through the woods. 'What majestic trees!' 'What powerful rivers!' 'What beautiful animals!' He said to himself.

As he was walking alongside the river, he heard a rustling in the bushes behind him. He turned to look. He saw a 7-foot grizzly bear charge towards him. He ran as fast as he could up the path. He looked over his shoulder and saw that the bear was closing in on him. He looked over his shoulder again, and the bear was even closer. He tripped and fell. He rolled over to pick himself up but saw that the bear was right on top of him, reaching for him with his left paw and raising his right paw to strike him.

At that instant moment, the Atheist cried out: 'Oh my God!' Time stopped. The bear froze. The forest was silent. As a bright light shone upon the man, a voice came out of the sky. 'You deny my existence for all these years, teach others I don't exist and even credit creation to cosmic accident.' 'Do you expect me to help you out of this predicament?' 'Am I to count you as a believer?' The atheist looked directly into the light, and said: 'It would be hypocritical of me to suddenly ask you to treat me as a Christian now, but perhaps you could make the BEAR a Christian?' 'Very well', said the voice. The light went out. The sounds of the forest resumed. And the bear dropped his right paw, brought both paws together, bowed his head and spoke:

'Lord bless this food, which I am about to receive from Thy bounty through Christ our Lord, Amen.'

Drinking and Driving Priest

An Irish priest is driving down to New York and gets stopped for speeding in Connecticut. The state trooper smells alcohol on the priest's breath and then sees an empty wine bottle on the floor of the car.

He says, 'Sir, have you been drinking?'

'Just water,' says the priest.

The trooper says, 'Then why do I smell wine?'

The priest looks at the bottle and says, 'Good Lord! He's done it again!'
