

THE WRINKLE

CITY GAZETTE

Mostly Bravo Sierra

But it's FREE!

Our Website: http://groups.yahoo.com/group/wrinkle_city_gazette

Edition 100

May 2011

STORMS HIT WRINKLE CITY; TREES TOPPLED

Wrinkle City was hit by several days of rain. Flooded back yards were evident across the city. Several trees toppled due to high winds hitting the city as rain soaked earth loosens roots.

City crews have been helping to clear trees from the streets.

Citizens have had problems mowing their grass too. "I had to put pontoons on my mower to mow the crabgrass in the back yard" said Siggie Muldoon.

HEAVY RAIN CAUSES OUTHOUSES TO FILL UP; ADDITIONAL PUMPING NEEDED.

Ground water saturation is causing a problem with local outhouses filling up. City Council has mandated all privies need to be pumped on a weekly basis.

Souhey Septic Sucking Services cannot handle the load and has brought in additional contractors to help during the rainy season.

URGENT REQUEST FROM CITY HALL!

Due to the lack of funds for the city services street maintenance budget and an excessive amount of potholes in the streets, the city is requesting a non-tax deductible donation by the citizens of one bag of asphalt patch or gravel per household. City Manager Virgil Tinzlee is asking every citizen to donate as much as they possibly can. Small donations can be made at any time through the night deposit box. If you can afford large bags of cold patch, they can be delivered to the city manager's office from 9:00 AM – 5:00 PM Monday through Friday.

NEW TENNANT SOUGHT FOR CITY PLAZA RESTAURANT

Since the last restaurant went "belly up" after nine months of operation, Mayor Alton J. Souhey has been looking for other interested "suckers" to re-open the high priced restaurant. Souhey says he has 3 interested parties, but no one has yet to commit. The three possible candidates are Snails to Go, Kermit's Vittles and Louie's House of Roadkill.

Wrinkle City Weather

Gloomy, Damn Wet, Windy, Taxes Past Due, City Full of Potholes And Getting Worse All The Time

CITY SCHOOLS STUDENTS TAKE STATE TESTS

Superintendent Jimonetta Carter told the Wrinkle City Board of Education that all students are taking the state proficiency tests.

The tests will cover reading, writing, ciphering and common sense. "We need at least an 80% score to pass the proficiency she said."

"Sillyman Learning Services have replaced the teachers to drill the material into the little critters' heads for the past month" remarked Carter. "The proof in the pudding will come when we git the test results" she said.

Traditionally, Wrinkle City students have done poorly on all state achievement tests except for pregnancy where they have excelled.

HAVE AN IDIOT FOR A KID???

We take dummies and turn them into above average students!

WE DON'T SCREW AROUND!

Sillyman's Learning Services 100 N. Main Street next to Lusch's Bar & Grille.

GRUMPIN AROUND TOWN

WITH GRUMP

By Falworth T. Grump

I need to comment about the city street department letting the potholes continue to grow. They multiply about as quickly as a female bunny in heat.

The other day I was driving down the main drag and hit one pothole after another. The rhythmic "thump" almost matched the rap music playin on my dang radio! Sunset, High and Ash Streets are they pits.

The street department needs to quit playin cards in the back room and start fillin them dang holes.

Wish those SOB's in charge get their act together!

Grump out!

CITY DELUGED WITH RAIN; MAYOR UPS RAIN WATER RATES

Recent heavy rain water runoff has created a problem for the sewer treatment facility as hooey from Fletcher and additional rainwater has inundated the system. "We can't handle all the stuff" said Ollie Dumpwell, Superintendent of the treatment facility. He said the system doesn't have enough storage and the city may resort to returning to a modified outhouse system.

Mayor Souhey has received approval to raise the runoff water rates to $10.00 a month to pay for building additional storage tanks. Property owners with outhouses will be assessed an additional $5.00 per month.

SCAPEGOAT SPORTS

Coach Smithers has a serious losing season on his hands with the winless Wrinkle City High School's Fighting Scapegoats baseball team. "We've been practicing 30 minutes in the dadgummed rain after school for the past 3 weeks trying to learn the fundamentals" Smithers remarked. "We've become proficient in mud sliding, but can't hit the ball worth a dang!" he exclaimed. "We can't help it the team is a bunch of idiots" he said.

SCAPEGOAT TRACK

In a recent interview, Coach Smithers said "Our track team is excellent and very talented, but I have to motivate them to run." "It seems they all run real fast when cops come by to watch the practice!" he exclaimed. "It takes me a couple of days to round them up" he said. "It must be those dammdarned sirens!" Smithers exclaimed!

SCAPEGOAT BOWLERS ROLL TO STATE TOURNEY

The Scapegoat bowling team will take their balls to Columbus to compete in the state tournament. The 14-3 'goats will take on Cleveland's 20-0 St. Ignoramus.

The 'Goats are still without their ace bowler who is still out with a severe case of finger fungus and gym itch.

TALES FROM THE 19TH HOLE

By Toots Kowalski

A golfer is in a competitive match with a friend, who is ahead by a couple of strokes. The golfer says to himself, "I'd give anything to sink this next putt."

A stranger walks up to him and whispers, "Would you give up a fourth of your sex life"

The golfer thinks the man is crazy and that his answer will be meaningless but also that perhaps this is a good omen and will put him in the right frame of mind to make the difficult putt and says, "OK." And sinks the putt.

Two holes later he mumbles to himself, "Boy, if I could only get an eagle on this hole."

The same stranger moves to his side and says, "Would it be worth another fourth of your sex life"

The golfer shrugs and says, "Sure." And he makes an eagle.

Down to the final hole. The golfer needs yet another eagle to win. Though he says nothing, the stranger moves to his side and says, "Would you be willing to give up the rest of your sex life to win this match"

The golfer says, "Certainly." And makes the eagle.

As the golfer walks to the club house, the stranger walks alongside and says, "You know, I've really not been fair with you because you don't know who I am. I'm the devil and from now on you will have no sex life."

"Nice to meet you," says the golfer. "My name's Father O'Malley."

You Might Be From Wrinkle City If ...

1. You fish coins out of public fountains.
2. You consider pork and beans to be a gourmet food.
3. Your potholes are 3 feet deep.
4. You enjoy going to Markie's Tires 'N Stuff each month to get your car aligned after driving on the streets .
5. Four generations of your family are currently working at McDonald's.
6. Your grandma wears a tank top without a bra.
7. The theme song at your high school prom was 'Friends in Low Places'

8. Your bathroom tissue is Wendy's napkins.
9. Your idea of talking during sex is "Ain't no cars coming, baby!"
10. Bank tellers put their hands up as soon as you walk in.
11. Ya can't get married to yer sweetheart cause there is a law against it.
12. You go to a family reunion at the county jail just to get a date.
13. If the stock market crashes and you're not affected by it.
14. Any of your daughters are older than your wife.
15. You've lost your wife in a poker game twice.
16. The church social committee is afraid to meet at your house.
17. The caterer for your wedding was Oscar Mayer.

MORTALLY SPEAKING...

By Emerson Balmer
Amigone Funeral & Cremation Service

Who says us undertakers don't have a sense of humor!?! We do have a funny side...sometimes!

A henpecked husband was advised by a psychiatrist to assert himself. "You don't have to let your wife bully you," he said. "Go home and show her you're the boss. " The husband decided to take the doctor's advice. He went home, slammed the door, shook his fist in his wife's face, and growled, "From now on you're taking orders from me. I want my supper right now, and when you get it on the table, go upstairs and lay out my clothes. Tonight I am going out with the boys. You are going to stay at home where you belong. Another thing, you know who is going to tie my bow tie? ""I certainly do," said his wife calmly, "the undertaker. "

Any day above ground is a good one.

RELIGIOUS HUMOR...

By Rev. Jeraldene Dibley

Overcrowded church

The one thousand member Baptist church was filled to overflowing capacity one Sunday morning. The preacher was ready to start the sermon when two men, dressed in long black coats and black hats entered thru the rear of the church.

One of the two men walked to the middle of the church while the other stayed at the back of the church. They both then reached under their coats and withdrew automatic weapons.

The one in the middle announced, "Everyone willing to take a bullet for Jesus stay in your seats!"

Naturally, the pews emptied, followed by the choir. The deacons ran out the door, followed by the choir director and the assistant pastor.

After a few moments, there were about twenty people left sitting in the church. The preacher was holding steady in the pulpit.

The men put their weapons away and said, gently, to the preacher, "All right, pastor, the hypocrites are gone now. You may begin the service."

After giving a sermon

The Methodist preacher just finished his sermon for the day and proceeded toward the back of the church for his usual greetings and handshaking as the congregation left the church. After shaking a few adult hands he came upon the seven year old son of one of the Deacons of the church.

"Good morning, Jonathan," the preacher said as he reached out to shake Jonathan's hand.

As he was doing so he felt something in the palm of Jonathan's hand. "What's this?" the preacher asked.

"Money," said Jonathan with a big smile on his face, "It's for you!"

"I don't want to take your money, Jonathan," the preacher answered.

"I want you to have it," said Jonathan. After a short pause Jonathan continued, "My daddy says you're the poorest preacher we ever had and I want to help you."

WHAT'S HAPPENIN IN COVINGTON?

Tree Hits House After Outhouse Explosion

Delbert Mackelerny on East US 36 was heeding the call of nature in his privy when he accidentally lit up his cigar while reading the Wrinkle City Gazette.

The flash and concussion from the explosion sent the outhouse flying and knocked over an old tree between the house and the privy.

Delbert was found mooning traffic from the top of a telephone pole in front of his house. While recovering at the hospital, Mackelerny said "You know...you can see a long distance from the top of a telephone pole, but them butt splinters hurt!"

Recovery is expected to take 3 weeks.

COVINGTON POLICE GO TO VEGAS FOR TRAINING

Covington will be without its police department for a month as they will take their pet drug dogs Himey the Chihuahua and Slumpy the Coon Dog to Las Vegas for training. "Somebody else will need to hide behind the fire department to run the radar to look for speeders" said Chief Harry Pitts.

Request a FREE subscription to the Wrinkle City Gazette. Send an Email to:

wrinkle.city.gazette@gmail.com

WHAT'S HAPPENIN' AROUND TOWN

Border City Luncheon Club meets every Monday at 11:30 AM at the Eagles for lunch. New members always welcome! Old members expected.

Stone Cutters meet the first Monday of the month. The Stone Cutters Companions meet on the first Tuesday next month.

Pastor Bob's Church of the Covered Dish

Join us for our weekly sauerkraut and bean casserole dinner in the church congregational center every Friday. We've got a new cauliflower salsa and chips deal too! The women's auxiliary will be selling Beano for those who need the extra help.

Blessing of the Brew held at First Lutheran Universalist Church every Saturday at 7:00 PM in the church hall. Parishioners are urged to bring some friends and some fresh brew to be blessed. This month's specialty will be vintage Bailey's Irish Crème!

The Laying On of Hands and Spiritual Healing Service at St. Agatha Christy's on Wednesday nights is postponed due to Fr. Enos' slip of hands again. The judge imposed another 30 day sentence on the good Father. The penance will do him good. Services will resume in June Judge willin!

City Commission meetings (aka The Gong Show) held on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month. Citizens will be frisked at the door for cream pies, rotten tomatoes and building plans for porches and decks. The traditional "afterglow" at Boobs 'N Beer will be followed by a tour of the city.

Liar's Club meets at City Hall on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month at 7:00 PM

St. Croissant's Church will hold their monthly Donut Sunday on May 29th at 9:15 AM prior to services.

The beer bottle band will practice every Wednesday night until they get ready for the Memorial Day concert. Members of the band need to calibrate their bottles prior to practice. No flat tones will be allowed.

Boobs 'N Beer

150 N. Main Street (next to Sillyman's)

Depressed??? Do the potholes and taxes have you down in the dumps? Relieved that the Shootin Sisters are gone? Get happy after the next City Commission meeting! Beer's a buck and the boobs are ... the Commissioners of course!

GOSSIP PLACES 'N TIMES

McDoogles on Covington Avenue 6 AM – 10 AM Any Day.

Casey's Old Italian Inn on Roosevelt 6 AM – 11 PM Any Day. Bill does a mean breakfast! (Lunch too!)

Wendeez Burger Shoppe 11 AM - 1 PM Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays, Fridays, and Saturdays

The Awful-Wafful House 11:30 AM – 1:00 PM Sundays. (Bring extra rubber gloves and sanitizing towels to clean your booth)

Amigone Funeral Services will have a grief counseling service and BBQ the last Saturday of the month. Our guest speaker will be Gonzo the Clown who topic will be: "What do we do after the BBQ?"

The Wrinkle City Commission will meet every Tuesday night in March at Lusch's Bar to discuss city problems and settle any bets. The first round is on Vic Lusch, the rest are on Virgil Tinzlee.

Covington Eagles is the place to be! Open to the public on Fridays! Embers expected; visitors welcome.

Git It At Wil-Mart

Will there be another Wrinkle City Gazette?

Who knows!

