HEAVY RAIN CAUSES OUTHOUSES TO FILL UP; ADDITIONAL PUMPING NEEDED.

Ground water saturation is causing a problem with local outhouses filling up. City Council has mandated all privies need to be pumped on a weekly basis.

Souhey Septic Sucking Services cannot handle the load and has brought in additional contractors to help during the rainy season.

IT'S TIME TO MOW!

Mayor Souhey is requesting that all Wrinkle City residents begin mowing their yards and getting rid of noxious weeds. "I have to make this announcement every year 'cause I'm the mayor", he lamented.

"Nobody in this town really cares about how it looks ... especially the one's in the trailer park condominiums!" said Souhey.

CITY COMMISSION DECLARES THE DANDELION AS THE OFFICIAL CITY FLOWER

The Wrinkle City Commission voted unanimously to declare the dandelion as the official city flower. "We might as well have done it years ago 'cause people don't mow

Mayor Alton J. Souhey urged citizens to harvest their dandelions and take them to his office as he needs them to make dandelion wine. He anticipates enough to make at least 150 gallons to sell at the Fourth of July celebration!

MAYOR SOUHEY GIVES POST ELECTION SPEECH

Mayor Alton J. Souhey addressed a crowd of local residents at the local Y thanking them for voting for him again. "I want to thank you all from bottom of my wallet for electing me to my 15th term as mayor of Wrinkle City," said Souhey. "As usual, I couldn't have done it without your help and your dead relatives," he said.

Refreshments were served for the crowd afterwards at Boobs 'N Beer.

SOUHEY'S SEPTIC SUCKING SERVICES PURCHASES NEW STOOL BUS

Souhey's has purchased a new Stool Bus to help with their customer's needs. "The 2,000 gallon slop tank can take anything you can throw at it," said owner Alton Souhey. "If it's brown and down, it'll bring it up!" exclaimed Souhey. "It'll suck the spots off a Dalmatian at 50 feet!" exclaimed Souhey.

CITY SCHOOLS STUDENTS TAKE STATE TESTS

Superintendent Jimonetta Carter told the Wrinkle City Board of Education that all students are taking the 2016 state proficiency tests. The tests will cover reading, writing, ciphering and common sense. "We need at least an 55% score to pass the new proficiency requirements," she said. "Last year we could only get 35%."

"Sillyman Learning Services have replaced the teachers to drill the material into the little critters' heads for the past month" remarked Carter. "The proof in the pudding will come when we git the test results" she said.

Traditionally, Wrinkle City students have done poorly on all state achievement tests except for pregnancy where they have excelled.

FIRE DEPARTMENT RESPONDS TO SEWAGE PLANT LEAK AGAIN

Wrinkle City firemen were awakened from their sleep around 5:00 AM from a frantic call from the local sewage treatment plant. It seems a gauge in the plant indicated low pressure in a tank which set off an alarm.

All 11 firemen responded with in 30 minutes to the scene to find the sewage treatment facility evacuated and a brown foul smelling sludge seeping from one of the treatment tanks. It seemed the over-stuffing of toilet paper, Sears catalog paper and corncobs clogged the system so bad that it backed up. The firemen donned their hazmat suits while Chief Red Spenders sprayed the air with a fog of Fabreeze to kill the stench. "We ran out of Odo-Ban and had to stop of 'n buy a case from Kerger's Market" he said.

The crack in the tank was sealed and the stench was cleaned up. Chief Spenders had hose practice on the firemen to clean them up before returning to the station. "The existing haz-mat suits will have to be scrapped if anyone will take them to the dump as the stench is so bad, the guys won't wear them," said Spenders. "The waste water that seeped into the river caused a large carp kill. No fishin' in that river until we get a lot more rain!" he exclaimed.

"People gave us crappy looks when we pulled into Tim Hortons for donutz and coffee while returning to the station" said Spenders. "They handed us our bags of donuts on ten foot poles and told us it was on the house!" he exclaimed.

GRUMPIN AROUND TOWN

WITH GRUMP

By Falworth T. Grump

I travel quite a bit since I'm retired and eat at a lot of restaurants in many states.

During my trips to Alabama, Kentucky and Tennessee, all of the restaurants had to post their most recent health inspections either on the front door or behind the cash register for everyone to see. That's not done in Wrinkle City. Who'd want to post a score of -10 on a 100 point scale!

Maybe we oughta learn something from the rednecks!

Grump out!

SCAPEGOAT SPORTS

Coach Smithers has a serious losing season on his hands with the winless Wrinkle City High School's Fighting Scapegoats baseball team. "We've been practicing 30 minutes after school for the past 3 weeks trying to learn the fundamentals" Smithers remarked. "We've become proficient in sliding and swearing at the umpire, but can't hit the ball worth a dang!" he exclaimed. "We can't help it the team is a bunch of idiots" he said. The 0-8 Scapegoats play 1-9 Fairlawn at Hardiman Field.

SCAPEGOAT TRACK

In a recent interview, Coach Smithers said "Our track team is excellent and very talented, but I have to motivate them to run." "It seems they all run real fast when cops come by to watch the practice!" he exclaimed. "It takes me a couple of days to round them up" he said. "It must be those dammdarned sireens!" Smithers exclaimed!

GOLFER AT THE DENTIST.

A man and his wife walked into a dentist's office. The man said to the dentist, "Doc, I'm in one heck of a hurry. I have two buddies sitting out in my car waiting for us to go play golf, so forget about the anesthetic, I don't have time for the gums to get numb. I just want you to pull the tooth, and be done with it! We have a 10:00 AM tee time at the best golf course in town and it's 9:30 already ... I don't have time to wait for the anesthetic to work!"

The dentist thought to himself ... "My goodness, this is surely a very brave man asking to have his tooth pulled without using anything to kill the pain." So the dentist asks him, "Which tooth is it sir?" The man turned to his wife and said, "Open your mouth Honey, and show him!"

Sell Your Golf Clubs, Perhaps?

Tim decided to marry his long time girlfriend. One evening, after the honeymoon, he was cleaning his golf shoes.

His new wife was standing there watching him. After a long period of silence she finally spoke. "Tim Darling now that we are married I think it's time you gave up golf. Perhaps you should consider selling your clubs." Tim looked horrified. She said, "Darling, what's wrong?"

"For a minute there you were sounding like my ex-wife." "Ex wife!" she gasped, "You didn't tell me you'd been married before"

"I haven't been" said Tim.

MORTALLY SPEAKING...

Who says us undertakers don't have a sense of humor!?! We do have a funny side...sometimes!

A henpecked husband was advised by a psychiatrist to assert himself. "You don't have to let your wife bully you," he said. "Go home and show her you're the boss." The husband decided to take the doctor's advice. He went home, slammed the door, shook his fist in his wife's face, and growled, "From now on you're taking orders from me. I want my supper right now, and when you get it on the table, go upstairs and lay out my clothes. Tonight I am going out with the boys. You are going to stay at home where you belong. Another thing, you know who is going to tie my bow tie?" "I certainly do," said his wife calmly, "the undertaker."

A Father Tells His Sons

A father told his three sons when he sent them to the university: "I feel it's my duty to provide you with the best possible education, and you do not owe me anything for that. However, I want you to appreciate it; as a token, please each put $1,000 into my coffin when I die."

And so it happened. The sons became a doctor, a lawyer, and a financial planner, each very successful financially.

When they saw their father in the coffin one day, they remembered his wish. First it was the doctor who put ten $100 bills onto the chest of the deceased.

Then came the financial planner who put a $1,000 bill there.

Finally, it was the heartbroken lawyer's turn. He dipped into his pocket, took out his checkbook, and wrote a check for $3,000. He put it into his father's coffin and took the $2,000 cash in change.

9 Months Later...

Bob decided to go golfing with his buddy, Ray.

So they loaded up Bob's minivan and headed out. After driving for a few hours, they got caught in a terrible thunderstorm.

They pulled into a nearby farm and asked the attractive lady who answered the door if they could spend the night.

'I realize its terrible weather out there and I have this huge house all to myself, but I'm recently widowed,' she explained. 'I'm afraid the neighbors will talk if I let you stay in my house.'

'Don't worry,' Bob said, 'We'll be happy to sleep in the barn, and if the weather breaks, we'll be gone at first light.'

The lady agreed, and the two men found their way to the barn and settled in for the night.

Come morning, the weather had cleared, and they got on their way.

They enjoyed a great weekend of golfing.

But about nine months later, Bob got an unexpected letter from an attorney.

It took him a few minutes to figure it out, but he finally determined that it was from the attorney of that attractive widow he had met on the golf weekend.

He dropped in on his friend Ray and asked, 'Ray, do you remember that good-looking widow from the farm westayed at on our golf holiday about 9 months ago?'

'Yes, I do.' said Ray

'Did you happen to get up in the middle of the night, go up to the house and pay her a visit?'

'Well, um, yes!,' Ray said, a little embarrassed about being found out, 'I have to admit that I did.'

'And did you happen to give her MY name instead of telling her your name?'

Ray's face turned beet red and he said, 'Yeah, look, I'm sorry, buddy, I'm afraid I did. Why do you ask?'

'She just died and left me everything.'

MEN ARE JUST HAPPIER PEOPLE

What do you expect from such simple creatures? Your last name stays put. The garage is all yours. Wedding plans take care of themselves. Chocolate is just another snack. You can never be pregnant. You can wear a white T-shirt to a water park. You can wear NO shirt to a water park.

Car mechanics tell you the truth. The world is your urinal. You never have to drive to another gas station restroom because this one is just too icky. You don't have to stop and think of which way to turn a nut on a bolt. Same work, more pay. Wrinkles add character. Wedding dress $5000. Tux rental-$100. People never stare at your chest when you're talking to them. New shoes don't cut, blister, or mangle your feet. One mood all the time. Phone conversations are over in 30 seconds flat. You know stuff about tanks.

A five-day vacation requires only one suitcase. You can open all your own jars. You get extra credit for the slightest act of thoughtfulness. If someone forgets to invite you, he or she can still be your friend. Your underwear is $8.95 for a three-pack. Two pairs of shoes are more than enough.. You almost never have strap problems in public. You are unable to see wrinkles in your clothes. Everything on your face stays its original color.. The same hairstyle lasts for years, maybe decades. You only have to shave your face and neck.

You can play with toys all your life. One wallet and one pair of shoes -- one color for all seasons. You can wear shorts no matter how your legs look.. You can 'do' your nails with a pocket knife. You have freedom of choice concerning growing a mustache. You can do Christmas shopping for 25 relatives On December 24 in 25 minutes. No wonder men are happier.

RELIGIOUS HUMOR...

By Rev. Jeraldene Dibley

Overcrowded church

The one thousand member Baptist church was filled to overflowing capacity one Sunday morning. The preacher was ready to start the sermon when two men, dressed in long black coats and black hats entered thru the rear of the church.

One of the two men walked to the middle of the church while the other stayed at the back of the church. They both then reached under their coats and withdrew automatic weapons.

The one in the middle announced, "Everyone willing to take a bullet for Jesus stay in your seats!"

Naturally, the pews emptied, followed by the choir. The deacons ran out the door, followed by the choir director and the assistant pastor.

After a few moments, there were about twenty people left sitting in the church. The preacher was holding steady in the pulpit.

The men put their weapons away and said, gently, to the preacher, "All right, pastor, the hypocrites are gone now. You may begin the service."

After giving a sermon

The Methodist preacher just finished his sermon for the day and proceeded toward the back of the church for his usual greetings and handshaking as the congregation left the church. After shaking a few adult hands he came upon the seven year old son of one of the Deacons of the church.

"Good morning, Jonathan," the preacher said as he reached out to shake Jonathan's hand.

As he was doing so he felt something in the palm of Jonathan's hand. "What's this?" the preacher asked.

"Money," said Jonathan with a big smile on his face, "It's for you!"

"I don't want to take your money, Jonathan," the preacher answered.

"I want you to have it," said Jonathan. After a short pause Jonathan continued, "My daddy says you're the poorest preacher we ever had and I want to help you."

An old man goes to the local parish priest to ask him if he can remove a curse he has been living with for the last 40 years. The priest says, 'Maybe, but you will have to tell me the exact words that were used to put the curse on you.' The old man says without hesitation, 'I now pronounce you man and wife.'

Moe: 'My wife got me to believe in religion.'

Joe: 'Really?'

Moe: 'Yeah. Until I married her I didn't believe in Hell.'

A POLITICAL FABLE

Pinocchio, Snow White and Superman are out for a stroll in town one day.

As they walk, they come across a sign: Beauty contest for the most beautiful woman in the world."

"I am entering" said Snow White.

After half an hour she comes out and they ask her, "Well, how did you do?"

"First Place," said Snow White.

They continue walking and they see a sign: "Contest for the strongest man in the world."

"I'm entering," says Superman

After half an hour he returns and they ask him, "How did you make out?"

"First Place," answers Superman. "Did you ever doubt?"

They continue walking when they see a sign: "Contest! Who is the greatest liar in the world?" Pinocchio says "this is mine."

Half an hour later, he returns with tears in his eyes.

"What happened?" they asked.

"Who the hell is Hillary Clinton?" asked Pinocchio.

LAFFIN AT THE LAW

By Douhey, Cheatham & Howe, LPA

Irish Courtroom

In an Irish Courtroom, the judge says to a double-homicide defendant "You're charged with beating your wife to death with a hammer".

A voice at the back of the courtroom yells out, "You bastard!"

The judge says, "You're also charged with beating your mother-in-law to death with a hammer."

The voice in the back of the courtroom yells out, "You rotten bastard!"

The judge stops and says to Paddy in the back of the courtroom....."Sir, I can understand your anger and frustration at these crimes but no more outbursts from you, or I'll charge you with contempt. Is that understood?"

Paddy stands up and says, "I'm sorry, Your Honor, but for 15 years I've lived next door to that jerk, and every time I asked to borrow a hammer, he said he didn't have one!

Divorce Court

'Mr. Clark, I have reviewed this case very carefully,' the Divorce Court Judge said, 'And I've decided to give your wife $775 a week,' 'That's very fair, your honor,' the husband said. 'And every now and then I'll try to send her a few bucks myself.'

WISDOM OF A RETIREE

I've often been asked, 'What do you old folks do now that you're retired?' Well..I'm fortunate to have a chemical engineering background, and one of the things I enjoy most is turning beer, wine, Scotch, and margaritas into urine.

RETIRED

One day, while going to the shop, I passed by a retirement village. On the front lawn were six old ladies, lying naked on the grass. I thought this was a bit unusual, but continued on my way.

On my return trip, I passed the same retirement village with the same six old ladies lying naked on the lawn. This time my curiosity got the better of me and I went inside to talk to the retirement village Administrator, and asked her, "Do you know there are six ladies lying naked on your front lawn?" "Yes," she said, "aren't they darlings? They're retired prostitutes - they're having a yard sale.."

Blondes...

Two Blondes With Hammers...

Lynn & Judy were doing some carpenter work on a Habitat for Humanity House. Lynn was nailing down house siding, would reach into her nail pouch, pull out a nail & either toss it over her shoulder or nail it in.

Judy, figuring this was worth looking into, asked, 'Why are you throwing those nails away?'

Lynn explained, 'When I pull a nail out of my pouch, about half of them have the head on the wrong end & I throw them away.'

Judy got completely upset & yelled, 'You moron! Those nails aren't defective! They're for the other side of the house!'

Sally and John

Sally and her husband John went for counseling after 25 years of marriage.

When asked what the problem was, Sally went into a passionate, painful tirade listing every problem they had ever had in the 25 years they had been married.

She went on and on and on: neglect, lack of intimacy, emptiness, loneliness, feeling unloved and unlovable, an entire laundry list of unmet needs she had endured over the course of their marriage.

Finally, after allowing this to go on for a sufficient length of time, the therapist got up, walked around the desk and after asking Sally to stand, embraced her, unbuttoned her blouse and bra, put his hands on her breasts and massaged them thoroughly, while kissing her passionately as her husband John watched with a raised eyebrow!

Sally shut up, buttoned up her blouse, and quietly sat down while basking in the glow of being highly aroused.

The therapist turned to John and said, 'This is what your wife needs at least three times a week. Can you do this?'

John thought for a moment and replied, 'Well, I can drop her off here on Mondays and Wednesdays, but on Fridays, I play golf.'

SENIOR ETIQUETTE SUGGESTIONS

Many people are 70, and are quite confused about how they should present themselves.

They're unsure about the kind of image they are projecting and whether or not they are correct as they try to conform to current fashions.

And for those of you receiving this who are getting close to 70, keep reading anyway . . . you'll be there.

Despite what you may have seen on the streets, the following combinations DO NOT go together and should be avoided.

1. A nose ring and bifocals
2. Spiked hair and bald spots
3. A pierced tongue and dentures
4. Miniskirts and support hose
5. Ankle bracelets and corn pads
6. Speedos and cellulite
7. A belly button ring and a gall bladder surgery scar
8. Unbuttoned disco shirts and a heart monitor
9. Midriff shirts and a midriff bulge

And the ultimate 'Bad Taste' in fashion:
10. A thong and Depends

Over 70

I was standing at the bar one night, minding my own business.

This fat ugly chick came up behind me, grabbed my ass and said, "You're kind of cute, you gotta a phone number?" I said, "Yea, you gotta pen?" She said "Yeah", I got a pen I said, "Well, you better get back in it before the farmer misses you".

Cost me 6 stitches.

When you are over seventy . . . who gives a crap!

I went to the pub last night and saw a fat chick dancing on a table. I said, "Good legs." The girl giggled and said, "Do you really think so." I said, "Definitely! Most tables would have collapsed by now." When you are over seventy, who gives a crap!

Two men knocked on my front door today and asked if I would kindly donate to the new, local swimming pool that is being built - so I gave them a bottle of water.

Nurses aren't supposed to laugh.....

A man comes into local BandAid Station with a problem and tells the examining nurse he has a problem and asks the nurse not to laugh.

"Of course I won't laugh," said the nurse. "I'm a professional."

In over twenty years I've never laughed at a patient. "Okay then," said Bill, and he proceeded to drop his trousers, revealing the smallest male part the nurse had ever seen. In length and width was almost identical to a AAA battery.

Unable to control herself, the nurse tried to stop a giggle, but it just came out. And then she started laughing at the fact that she was laughing.

Feeling very badly that she had laughed at the man's part, she composed herself as well as she could. "I am so sorry," she said. "I don't know what came over me. On my honour as a nurse and a lady, I promise That won't happen again. Now, tell me, what seems to be the problem?"

"It's swollen," Bill replied.

The nurse ran out of the room.

Hubby said the spark between us was gone, so I tasered him. I'll ask him again when he wakes up.

Resident Writes Book on 50 Great Dandelion Salads

Local resident Ellie McFerdie has published a new book entitled "50 Great Dandelion Salads" that can be picked up at the town hall. The local octogenarian is donating the 50 page book to anyone in the town.

"I really like this recipe," said Miss Ellie: Combine 1 pound of dandelion greens, half of one red onion, cherry tomatoes, shaved asiago cheese, one half tablespoon of dried basil and add a hot bacon dressing. This is a very good use of all those annoying dandelions growing in your yard. Just so long as you don't have a dog!

Miss Ellie recommends eating dandelion greens as it is a miracle drug. "Suppose your doctor tells you, on your next visit, that he has just discovered a miracle drug which, when eaten as a part of your daily diet or taken as a beverage, could, depending on the peculiarities of your body chemistry: prevent or cure liver diseases, such as hepatitis or jaundice; act as a tonic and gentle diuretic to purify your blood, cleanse your system, dissolve kidney stones, and otherwise improve gastro-intestinal health; assist in weight reduction; cleanse your skin and eliminate acne; improve your bowel function, working equally well to relieve both constipation and diarrhea; prevent or lower high blood pressure; prevent or cure anemia; lower your serum cholesterol by as much as half; eliminate or drastically reduce acid indigestion and gas buildup by cutting the heaviness of fatty foods; prevent or cure various forms of cancer; prevent or control diabetes mellitus; and, at the same time, have no negative side effects and selectively act on only what ails you. If he gave you a prescription for this miracle medicine, would you use it religiously at first to solve whatever the problem is and then consistently for preventative body maintenance?" she asks.

All the above curative functions, and more, have been attributed to one plant known to everyone, Taraxacum officinale, which means the "Official Remedy for Disorders." We call it the common dandelion. It is so well respected, in fact, that it appears in the U.S. National Formulary, and in the Pharmacopeias of Hungary, Poland, Switzerland, and the Soviet Union. It is one of the top 6 herbs in the Chinese herbal medicine chest.

According to the USDA Bulletin #8, "Composition of Foods" (Haytowitz and Matthews 1984), dandelions rank in the top 4 green vegetables in overall nutritional value. Minnich, in "Gardening for Better Nutrition" ranks them, out of all vegetables, including grains, seeds and greens, as tied for 9th best. According to these data, dandelions are nature's richest green vegetable source of beta-carotene, from which Vitamin A is created, and the third richest source of Vitamin A of all foods, after cod-liver oil and beef liver! They also are particularly rich in fiber, potassium, iron, calcium, magnesium, phosphorus and the B vitamins, thiamine and riboflavin, and are a good source of protein.

Mmmmmmm good, says Miss Ellie.

PEA HILL UPDATE

Local residents are planning the 2014 Memorial Day parade, community picnic and 12 K run

Mayor "Big John" Lolly presented his plans for the annual Memorial Day parade and community picnic. Local resident Gretta Schmultz proposed a 12 K run to Covington and back to raise money to build a memorial dog park downtown. The proposal was voted on and approved. Tom and Livonia Bettencrak were appointed to head the picnic committee while Gretta Schmultz was appointed to supervise the running event.

In other action, the town council rejected a motion again by member Rev. Gilroy T. Cleaver to move the monument to the proposed dog park.
