

DOWNTOWN STREET REPAIR AND PATCHING CONTINUES

City crews have been grinding down worn pavement to get ready for major paving stated Malcom Skidmore, assistant project manager. "We've ground down just about every street in town and the grindings have created a huge mound near the mobile home park" said Skidmore. "We might just call the mound "Mt. Souhey" after the mayor" he said. "With any luck at all, we'll be able to patch up the holes by the end of August just before the gas company comes along and digs up the streets again", he said.

STATE REPLANTING ON SR 36 DUE TO ROAD SALT

Due to the harsh winter of 2013 - 2014 and the application of street de-icing salt, all of the plantings in the city beautification of SR 36 must be redone. The million dollar project is going to cost the citizens of Wrinkle City more to finish. "Last year we planted some False Aurelia and the local hippies thought it was wacky weed and harvested it" said Tipps O'Rourke, project manager. "Then we planted some monkey grass and some spider plants, but the road salt destroyed them" he said. "Now we're going to plant native weeds as nothing destroys them" said O'Rourke.

SS SOUHEY LAUNCHED AGAIN TO HELP CLEAN THE LAKES AND PONDS

Mayor Alton J. Souhey christened the re-launching of the floating muck scooper "SS Souhey" at Echo Lake. The vessel was purchased by a local environmental group and donated last year to the city to help eradicate lake scum and improve fishing of carp and catfish. The boat accidentally sank in shallow water when then mayor took it out for a fishin party.

The vessel built by Bubba's Mobile Home and Marine Recreation Center in nearby Fletcher. The vessel has a control / living cabin with 40 gallon insulated beer cooler, a skimming platform and 20 hp outboard motor. The vessel will be able to be on the lake and operate 8 hours a day during the spring, summer and fall months unless it springs a leak or gets bogged down in the muck.

"We hope to get the muck out of the lake in 3 years," said Souhey. "It's a tedious process and our scoop is not that big," he said.

FISH KILL HITS SCHITZ CREEK AND SPREADS TO SWIFT RUN AGAIN

Another round of floating fish suddenly appeared on Swift Run again. Hundreds of fish were found floating on the lake.

The source of the fish kill was tracked to Schitz Creek where Father Enos was baptizing another batch of unclean transients (bums).

"This has got to stop!" exclaimed local Resident Burt Puckermann. "They're a killin the fish and makin the lake stink like dirty socks. This is the second time in two months this has happened." he said.

City workers were called to the creek and lake to clean up the dead fish and to install no fishing or swimming signs around the lake.

Mayor Souhey suggested that Wrinkleciti-ans need to purchase more bottled water as the stink has spread to the local water plant and they are currently trying to figure out how to get the dirty sock taste out of the water.

HAPPY BUNZ CLOTHING OPTIONAL SOCIETY HAVING RECORD SEASON DESPITE POISON IVY AND FIRE ANTS

The Happy Bunz Clothing Optional Society opened in late June and as temperatures climbed, business increased.

"We average 850 campers a day" said owner Orville Bunz. "Business has been boomin and we have to constantly keep our customers satisfied" said Fern Bunz, wife and co-owner. "We're doin a heck of a business in soda, ice cream, calamine lotion and bug repellent" she said.

Daily activities will include co-ed jogging, bad / awful mittin, yoga for beginners, mooning as a second hobby, protecting your buns through poisonous plant identification, how to throw darts and protect your naughty parts and proper sunning etiquette.

HAPPY BUNZ TO FEATURE FAMOUS MUSICAL REVIEW

Happy Bunz will feature the world famous Bare Creek Musical Revue featuring the Phil Diller Band on Wednesday, August 22 at 7:00 PM in the Rump Amphitheater. Tickets are on sale at the camp office. The ticket price is $17. A drawing will be held at 8:00 PM for a case of biodegradable toilet paper guaranteed to wilt at the touch of anything wet.

"If it's anything like last year's revue, we sold more than 40 cases of Depends and 30 boxes of hearing aid batteries to the old retirees who attended the event" said Orville Buns.

The camp is located next to the beginner course at the Echo Pond Golf Course.

REDNECK REUNION DAYS

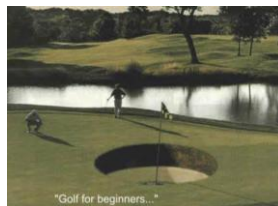

It's almost that time of year when Wrinkleciti-ans will celebrate the 28th annual Redneck Reunion Days at Swill Park. Event Planners have been meeting at Lusch's Bar and Grille once a week for the past 9 months to plan the event.

The planned events include diving for food stamps, playing "Who hid my work boots," watermelon sucking, pig mud wrestling, the Honey Dipper 500 race, beer bong drinking and the farting and belching contest. The crowning of Miss Redneck will take place on August 29th.

The reunion will take place from August 29th through September 5th. At the Swill Park Campgrounds near Schitz Creek.

GOLF COURSE ATTENDANCE BOOMING

Toots Kowalsi, Echo Pond Golf Course Pro announced to the city commission that the beginner course concession stand at Echo Pond has had a phenomenal growth in business. "We have over 200 golfers a day visit the stand, but they miss their Tee Times due to the activity at the club next door." "The beginners course is a busy place due to the activity at Happy Bunz," said Toots. "The beginner's concession stand made a lot of money for us last year thanks to the Golden Boyz and we want to continue a rise in the profits!" exclaimed Kowalski. "We hope to sell a lot of drinks and sun-blocker to the golfers" he said.

WRINKLE CITY HIGH SCHOOL SPORTS

SCAPEGOAT FOOTBALL PRACTICES ARE POSTPONED

WCHS football practices are postponed until Coach Smithers recovers from his recent testicle transplant as a result of the premature fireworks explosion on July Fourth. Smithers has been learning to walk and has been taking voice lessons to get his voice pitch back down to normal. Bertha Ballbrecher will be the temporary coach.

Before the final match, the wrestling coach came to Ole and said, "Now, don't forget all the research we've done on this Russian. He's never lost a match because of this 'pretzel' hold he has".

Whatever you do, do not let him get you in that hold! If he does, you're finished'. Ole nodded in acknowledgment.

As the match started, Ole and the Russian circled each other several times, looking for an opening. All of a sudden, the Russian lunged forward, grabbing Ole and wrapping him up in the dreaded pretzel hold. A sigh of disappointment arose from the crowd and the coach buried his face in his hands, for he knew all was lost. He couldn't watch the inevitable happen.

Suddenly, there was a scream, then a cheer from the crowd and the coach raised his eyes just in time to watch the Russian go flying up in the air.. His back hit the mat with a thud and Ole collapsed on top of him making the pin and winning the match.

The crowd went crazy. The coach was astounded.

When he finally got his wrestler alone, he asked, "How did you ever get out of that hold? No one has ever done it before!"

Ole answered, "Vell, I vas ready to give up ven he got me in dat hold, but at da last moment, I opened my eyes and saw dis pair of testicles right in front of my face...I had nuttin' to lose so wid my last ounce of strength I stretched out my neck and bit dose babies just as hard as I could."

So the trainer exclaimed, "That's what finished him off!"

"Vel not really. You'd be amazed how strong you get ven you bite your own nuts!"

GOLF TALES FROM THE 19TH HOLE

By Toots Kowalski

There was a man who lost one of his arms in an accident.

He became very depressed because he loved to play golf.

One day in his despair, he decided to commit suicide. He got on an elevator and went to the top of a building to jump off.

He was standing on the ledge looking down and saw this man skipping along, whooping and kicking up his heels.

He looked closer and saw that this man didn't have any arms at all.

He started thinking, what am I doing up here feeling sorry for myself, I still have one good arm to do things with.

There goes a man with no arms skipping down the sidewalk so happy, and going on with his life.

He hurried down and caught up with the man with no arms. He told him how glad he was to see him because he lost one of his arms and felt useless and was going to kill himself.

He thanked him again for saving his life and said he knew he could make it with one arm if that guy could go on with no arms.

The man with no arms began dancing and whooping and kicking up his heels again.

He asked, "Why are you so happy anyway?"

He said, "I'm NOT happy. My balls itch."

Heart-warming stories like this just makes one want to cry.

Golf and dentures

A couple of old guys were golfing when one mentioned that he was going to go to Dr. Steinberg for a new set of dentures in the morning.

His elderly buddy remarked that he, too, had gone to the very same dentist two years before.

"Is that so?" asked the first old guy. "Did he do a good job?"

The second oldster replied, "Well, I was on the golf course yesterday when a guy on the next fairway hooked a shot.

The ball must have been going at least 200 mph when it slammed me right in the nuts."

The first old guy was confused and asked, "What the hell does that have to do with your dentures?"

"It was the first time in two years my teeth didn't hurt....."

The golfer and the fridge

A golfer came home from the golf course today.

The wife had left a note on the fridge:

"IT'S NOT WORKING, I can't take it anymore!! Gone to stay with my Mother."

I opened the fridge, the light came on, and the beer was cold...

Confessional

An Irishman goes into the confessional box after years of being away from the Church.

There's a fully equipped bar with Guinness on tap.

On the other wall is a dazzling array of the finest cigars and chocolates.

Then the priest comes in.

"Father, forgive me, for it's been a very long time since I've been to confession, but I must first admit that the confessional box is much more inviting than it used to be.

"The priest replies: "Get out. You're on my side."

New From Schitz Industries!

Louis T. Crapper, CEO of Schitz Industries announced the development of a new two seat multi-roll mobile dump station. The cost will be approximately $1,000 and runs on bean / cauliflower methane. The unit will be called "The Fart'N Go" and will be available by late 2014.

Crapper also introduced a new personal news delivery system to add to any bathroom or outhouse by their Japanese subsidiary YinTien Electronics.

THE WAY I SEEZ IT

by Vic Lusch

Like a lot of unlucky stiffs in this town, I have to mow my yard every week and have a lawn service to take care of the dandelions ... I need to keep up with the Jones' so to speak.

My friend Vinnie has a broken down mower, and a lawn full of dandelions and weeds. Each year he has a beautiful yard festooned with these yellow flowers that turn fluffy. When the wind blows, those little white fluffy balls blow through the air and causes me to have an extra application of Weed B Gone on my yard. What I do have a problem with him is not keeping his property weed-free and mowed. Ole' Vinnie needs to wake up some mornin' smellin' the scent of gasoline poured on his weeds. If I gotsta mow and have a presentable yard, so duzz he! ...And that's the way I seez it!

Exercising

I feel like my body has gotten totally out of shape, So I got my doctor's permission to join a fitness club and start exercising. I decided to take an aerobics class for seniors. I bent, twisted, gyrated, jumped up and down, and perspired for an hour. But, by the time I got my leotards on, The class was over.

MORTAL HUMOR

BY EMERSON BALMER, JR., AMIGONE
FUNERAL HOME
(NEXT TO BUBBA'S BBQ)

Gun Powder

A tough old cowboy from Texas counseled his granddaughter that if she wanted to live a long life, the secret was to sprinkle a pinch of gun powder on her oatmeal every morning.

The granddaughter did this religiously until the age of 103, when she died.

She left behind 14 children, 30 grandchildren and a 40 foot deep hole where the crematorium used to be.

Aunt Mildred

Aging Aunt Mildred was a 93-year-old woman who was particularly despondent over the recent death of her husband. She decided that she would just kill herself and join him in death.

Thinking that it would be best to get it over with quickly, she took out his old Army pistol and made the decision to shoot herself in the heart, since it was badly broken in the first place.

Not wanting to miss the vital organ and become a vegetable and a burden to someone, she called her doctor's office to inquire as to just exactly where the heart would be on a woman. The doctor said, 'Your heart would be just below your left breast'.

Later that night, Mildred was admitted to the hospital with a gunshot wound to her knee.

Any day above ground is a good one.

GRUMPIN AROUND TOWN WITH GRUMP

By Falworth T. Grump

I was reading an article last night about fathers and sons and memories came flooding back of the time I took my son out for his first drink.

We headed for the closest tavern, and I gave him a Bud Light. He didn't like it so I drank it. Then I got him a Corona, but he did not like it either so I drank it. It was the same with the Coors, the Miller's High Life, and the Pabst Blue Ribbon.

By the time we got down to the whisky, I could barely push the stroller back home!

Grump out!

WRINKLE CITY WEEDS

By Emma T. Kretch

It's repulsive to drive around town and see unkempt homes with junk on the front porches and knee high grass. The most repulsive thing is weeds growing up in the cracks of the sidewalks and gutters. It makes the town look like a redneck rest haven on steroids.

People need to take more pride in Wrinkle City and make it look better than Detroit!

You Might Be From Wrinkle City If ...

1. The stuff in the back of your fridge is older than your wife.
2. The only time you pick up trash is during community service.
3. Your weeds in your yard are 3 feet tall.
4. You've launched fireworks off a propane tank.
5. Your grandma wears a tank top without a bra.
6. You fish coins out of outhouses.
7. The only time you talk to your wife is when the TV's broken.
8. You have to get a rabies shot and your dog hasn't.
9. Your fly is undone in your wedding photos.

10. Your bathroom tissue is Wendeez napkins.
11. Your idea of talking during making love is "Ain't no cars coming, baby!"
12. You were baptized on a boat ramp.
13. You left a bingo game in handcuffs.
14. Your sexiest gown came from a hospital.
15. You fart in public and blame it on your kid.
16. You don't recognize your relatives when they are sober.
17. You list Dr. Pepper as your family physician.
18. You were unable to start a family due to a childhood wedgie!
19. You send a lot of Emails and read the Wrinkle City Gazette on a regular basis.

The meeting will be held at the Covington Eagles on Friday night as the city hall air conditioning is still down for repair. People are urged to get their beer and broasted chicken before the meeting. Citizens will be limited to two beers during the meeting.

PEA HILL NEWS

LOCAL CHURCH CANCELS BAPTISMAL SERVICE

Saint Croissant's Church in Pea Hill had to cancel its quarterly baptismal service as someone has again misplaced its inflatable kiddy pool. Rev. Jimmy Joe Steinboller has asked parishioners to chip in so he can get another pool at Wil-Mart before they stop selling them for the season. If the money cannot be raised, the church will resort to the untraditional water hose fight and wet T-shirt contest that was done 10 years ago.

Street Construction ...Happening!

Construction has begun on the North Main Street section of Pea Hill. It will be a real mess for at least a year as new utilities and road are installed.

Residents are urged to begin building their outhouses as soon as possible. Town ordinances permit the installation of one light in the building and at least 40 feet of carpet from the back door to the outhouse. Any internal heat / flame is not permitted per town fire code.

We got it! You come and git it!

TOWN COUNCIL TO MEET

Covington Town Council will meet to discuss several issues concerning zoning ordinances, street light meters, street paving and painting. "We need to determine how to pay for non-working street lights. One way is to put pay timers on each pole, charge 25 cents an hour and let the residents take turns feedin the meter," said Commissioner Grover Lyle. "Summer lighting costs will be cheap, but it will be quite expensive in the winter!" he exclaimed.

WHAT'S HAPPENIN' AROUND TOWN

Golden Boyz to meet at Bob's Country Fixin's for breakfast.

Border City Luncheon Club meets every Monday at 11:30 AM at the Covington Eagles for lunch. New members always welcome! Old members expected.

Stone Cutters are dark for the summer. The Stone Cutters Companions meet on the first Tuesday next month somewhere, but not here. We're gone!

Pastor Bob's Church of the Covered Dish

Join us for our weekly sauerkraut and bean casserole dinner in the church congregational center every Friday. We've got a new cauliflower salsa and chips deal too! The women's auxiliary will be selling Beano for those who need the extra help.

Blessing of the Brew held at First Lutheran Universalist Church every Saturday at 7:00 PM in the church hall. Parishioners are urged to bring some friends and some fresh brew to be blessed. This month's specialties will be vintage Lemonade / Sangria Coolers!

Donut Sunday is held at Saint Croissants in Pea Hill on the last Sunday of the month. This month's special will be cream filled Bismarks. A special baptismal service will be held if someone can find the inflatable kiddie pool.

City Commission meetings (aka The Gong Show)

held on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month. Citizens will be frisked at the door for cream pies, rotten tomatoes and building plans for porches and decks. The traditional "afterglow" at Boobs 'N Beer will be followed by a tour of the city.
