OLD SCHOOL COMING DOWN

Shovels and backhoes began tearing down Wrinkle City Elementary School prior to building a brand new building with indoor plumbing. "The old 20 hole privy kept filling up after lunch," said principal Marletta Jessip. "We even had lines at times when the cook served her four bean broccoli and jalapeno casserole," said Jessip.

The new building will have 8 classrooms, gym, cafeteria, and rest rooms. A permanent counselor will also have an office next to the principal's along with a padded cell for kids (or parents) who go nuts.

Students will be housed in the old K-Mart facility on the west side of town.

The completion date will be the Fall of 2014.

HEATWAVE HITS WRINKLE CITY

Temperatures of over 90 degrees have forced some Wrinklecitians to stay inside where they can stay live in air conditioned luxury while others just sit in front of a fan with a block of ice in front of the fan.

Others just sit in their above ground pool, stand under the sprinkler or head down to the old swimmin hole like Schitz Creek.

Some people decide to modify their clothing to let more air in or head to HappyBunz and just let it all hang out!

Weather reports predict we are in for a heat wave during August and September.

FISH KILL HITS SCHITZ CREEK AND SPREADS TO SWIFT RUN

Another round of floating fish suddenly appeared on Swift Run again. Hundreds of fish were found floating on the lake.

The source of the fish kill was tracked to Schitz Creek where Father Enos was baptizing another batch of unclean transients (bums).

"This has got to stop!" exclaimed local Resident Burt Puckermann. "They're a killin the fish and makin the lake stink like dirty socks. This is the second time in two months this has happened." he said.

City workers were called to the creek and lake to clean up the dead fish and to install no fishing or swimming signs around the lake.

Mayor Souhey suggested that Wrinklecitians need to purchase more bottled water as the stink has spread to the local water plant and they are currently trying to figure out how to get the dirty sock taste out of the water.

GOLF TALES FROM THE 19TH HOLE

By Toots Kowalski

There was a man who lost one of his arms in an accident.

He became very depressed because he loved to play golf.

One day in his despair, he decided to commit suicide. He got on an elevator and went to the top of a building to jump off.

He was standing on the ledge looking down and saw this man skipping along, whooping and kicking up his heels.

He looked closer and saw that this man didn't have any arms at all.

He started thinking, what am I doing up here feeling sorry for myself, I still have one good arm to do things with.

There goes a man with no arms skipping down the sidewalk so happy, and going on with his life.

He hurried down and caught up with the man with no arms. He told him how glad he was to see him because he lost one of his arms and felt useless and was going to kill himself.

He thanked him again for saving his life and said he knew he could make it with one arm if that guy could go on with no arms.

The man with no arms began dancing and whooping and kicking up his heels again.

He asked, "Why are you so happy anyway?"

He said, "I'm NOT happy. My balls itch."

Heart-warming stories like this just makes one want to cry.

Golf and dentures

A couple of old guys were golfing when one mentioned that he was going to go to Dr. Steinberg for a new set of dentures in the morning.

His elderly buddy remarked that he, too, had gone to the very same dentist two years before.

"Is that so?" asked the first old guy. "Did he do a good job?"

The second oldster replied, "Well, I was on the golf course yesterday when a guy on the next fairway hooked a shot.

The ball must have been going at least 200 mph when it slammed me right in the nuts."

The first old guy was confused and asked, "What the hell does that have to do with your dentures?"

"It was the first time in two years my teeth didn't hurt....."

RELIGIOUSLY SPEAKING

By Pastor Geraldine Dibley

Golfing in Heaven

Three golfers, Jesus, Moses and an old man, get to the 18th tee. It's all tied. All three have the same score.

Jesus' second shot goes into the water and lands on a rock.

He walks on the water out to the ball and hits it within a foot of the hole.

Moses' second shot also goes into the water and sinks. He parts the water and then hits his ball within a foot of the hole.

The old man also hits his second shot into the water, but it lands on a water lily. A frog comes out of the water and takes the ball. Just then a bird swoops down and grabs the frog and carries him, with the ball, right over the 18th hole where the frog drops the ball right into the cup.

Moses turns to Jesus and says, "You know, I really hate playing with your Dad."

Confessional

An Irishman goes into the confessional box after years of being away from the Church.

There's a fully equipped bar with Guinness on tap.

On the other wall is a dazzling array of the finest cigars and chocolates.

Then the priest comes in.

"Father, forgive me, for it's been a very long time since I've been to confession, but I must first admit that the confessional box is much more inviting than it used to be.

"The priest replies: "Get out. You're on my side."

A Theory of Creation

God created the mule, and told him, "You will be mule, working constantly from dusk to dawn, carrying heavy loads on your back. You will eat grass and lack intelligence. You will live for 50 years."

The mule answered, "To live like this for 50 years is too much. Please, give me no more than 20." And it was so.

Then God created the dog, and told him, "You will hold vigilance over the dwellings of Man, to whom you will be his greatest companion. You will eat his table scraps and live for 25 years."

And the dog responded, "Lord, to live 25 years as a dog like that is too much. Please, no more than 10 years." And it was so.

God then created the monkey, and told him, "You are monkey. You shall swing from tree to tree, acting like an idiot. You will be funny, and you shall live for 20 years."

And the monkey responded, "Lord, to live 20 years as the clown of the world is too much. Please, Lord, give me no more than 10 years." And it was so.

Finally, God created Man and told him, "You are Man, the only rational being that walks the earth. You will use your intelligence to have mastery over the creatures of the world. You will dominate the earth and live for 20 years."

And the man responded, "Lord, to be Man for only 20 years is too little. Please, Lord, give me the 30 years the mule refused, the 15 years the dog refused, and the 10 years the monkey rejected." And it was so.

And so God made Man to live 20 years as a man, then marry and live 30 years like a mule working and carrying heavy loads on his back. Then, he is to have children and live 15 years as a dog, guarding his house and eating the leftovers after they empty the pantry; then, in his old age, to live 10 years as a monkey, acting like an idiot to amuse his grand children.

MORTAL HUMOR

Gun Powder

A tough old cowboy from Texas counseled his granddaughter that if she wanted to live a long life, the secret was to sprinkle a pinch of gun powder on her oatmeal every morning.

The granddaughter did this religiously until the age of 103, when she died.

She left behind 14 children, 30 grandchildren and a 40 foot deep hole where the crematorium used to be.

Aunt Mildred

Aging Aunt Mildred was a 93-year-old woman who was particularly despondent over the recent death of her husband. She decided that she would just kill herself and join him in death.

Thinking that it would be best to get it over with quickly, she took out his old Army pistol and made the decision to shoot herself in the heart, since it was badly broken in the first place.

Not wanting to miss the vital organ and become a vegetable and a burden to someone, she called her doctor's office to inquire as to just exactly where the heart would be on a woman. The doctor said, 'Your heart would be just below your left breast'.

Later that night, Mildred was admitted to the hospital with a gunshot wound to her knee.

GRUMPIN AROUND TOWN WITH GRUMP

By Falworth T. Grump

Everywhere I go I hear people talkin' about taxes going up and up. A tax for this and a tax for that. Don't people realize there is only so much money available!

The feds want to raise the debt ceiling so they can spend more of my tax dollars. Do they want to reduce the size of the federal government? No! Do they want to live within their means like the common folk in Wrinkle City? No! These politicians must live with their heads up their arses thinking about how they can continually screw the public and get away with it.

I say live within your means! I have to!

The essobeez need to wake up and smell the coffee!!!

Grump out!

THE WAY I SEEZ IT

by Vic Lusch

Like a lot of unlucky stiffs in this town, I have to mow my yard every week and have a lawn service to take care of the dandelions ... I need to keep up with the Jones' so to speak.

My friend Vinnie has a broken down mower, and a lawn full of dandelions and weeds. Each year he has a beautiful yard festooned with these yellow flowers that turn fluffy. When the wind blows, those little white fluffy balls blow through the air and causes me to have an extra application of Weed B Gone on my yard. What I do have a problem with him is not keeping his property weed-free and mowed. Ole' Vinnie needs to wake up some mornin' smellin' the scent of gasoline poured on his weeds. If I gotsta mow and have a presentable yard, so duzz he! ...And that's the way I seez it!

WRINKLE CITY WEEDS

By Emma T. Kretch

It's repulsive to drive around town and see unkempt homes with junk on the front porches and knee high grass. The most repulsive thing is weeds growing up in the cracks of the sidewalks and gutters. It makes the town look like a redneck rest haven on steroids.

People need to take more pride in Wrinkle City and make it look better than Detroit!

You Might Be From Wrinkle City If ...

1. You've cleaned hubcaps in a dishwasher.
2. The only time you pick up trash is during community service.
3. Your weeds in your yard are 3 feet tall.

4. You've launched fireworks off a propane tank.
5. The only time you have a candlelit dinner is when you're late on your electric bill.
6. You fish coins out of outhouses.
7. You consider pork and beans to be a gourmet food.
8. You have to get a rabies shot and your dog hasn't.
9. Your fly is undone in your wedding photos.
10. Your bathroom tissue is Wendeez napkins.
11. Your idea of talking during making love is "Ain't no cars coming, baby!"
12. You were unable to start a family due to a childhood wedgie!
13. You send a lot of Emails and read the Wrinkle City Gazette on a regular basis.

COVINGTON UPDATE LOCAL DENTIST EXPANDS BUSINESS

Dr. Billy Joe Dumplemeier has expanded his dentistry business to local pets. "The pet owners have had problems with their pets cracking or breaking their teeth, so I decided to devote some of my time and skill repairing their teeth" he said. "Now pet owners can schedule their cleanings along with their pets too!" The prices are reasonable and everyone leaves with a pet treat.

TOWN COUNCIL TO MEET

Covington Town Council will meet to discuss several issues concerning zoning ordinances, street light meters, street paving and painting. "We need to determine how to pay for non-working street lights. One way is to put pay timers on each pole, charge 25 cents an hour and let the residents take turns feedin the meter," said Commissioner Grover Lyle. "Summer lighting costs will be cheap, but it will be quite expensive in the winter!" he exclaimed.

The meeting will be held at the Covington Eagles on Friday night as the city hall air conditioning is still down for repair. People are urged to get their beer and broasted chicken before the meeting. Citizens will be limited to two beers during the meeting.

PEA HILL NEWS

LOCAL CHURCH CANCELS BAPTISMAL SERVICE

Saint Croissant's Church in Pea Hill had to cancel its quarterly baptismal service as someone has again misplaced its inflatable kiddy pool. Rev. Jimmy Joe Steinboller has asked parishioners to chip in so he can get another pool at Wil-Mart before they stop selling them for the season. If the money cannot be raised, the church will resort to the untraditional water hose fight and wet T-shirt contest that was done 10 years ago.

Street Construction ... Maybe

Construction will begin sometime on the North Main Street section of Pea Hill. It will be a real mess for at least a year as new utilities and road are installed.

Residents are urged to begin building their outhouses as soon as possible. Town ordinances permit the installation of one light in the building and at least 40 feet of carpet from the back door to the outhouse. Any internal heat / flame is not permitted per town fire code.
