

FUZZ FACTORY CLOSES

Dinglebury's Fuzz Factory closed its doors after 130 years of operation according to Delbert Dinglebury IV who was the fourth generation to operate the business. "Our business sold all kinds of felt blankets worldwide, but as the felt business moved to China, we had to find other sources of raw product to make our blankets and other products", said Dinglebury. "We used to make Great Northern Longjohn underwear from wool for use in northern climates, but it was a limited market," he stated. "We even innovated moving from wool to using donated dryer lint and belly button fuzz to cut costs, but it just didn't work out and we had to close the business once and for all laying off 28 people."

REDNECK REUNION DAYS

It's almost that time of year when Wrinklecitians will celebrate the 30th annual Redneck Reunion Days at Swill Park. Event Planners have been meeting at Lusch's Bar and Grille once a week for the past 9 months to plan the event.

The planned events include diving for food stamps, playing "Who hid my work boots," watermelon sucking, pig mud wrestling, the Honey Dipper 500 race, beer bong drinking, toilet seat horseshoes and the farting and belching contest. The crowning of Miss Redneck will take place on August 29th.

The reunion will take place from August 29th through September 5th. At the Swill Park Campgrounds near Schitz Creek.

ROCK WRINKLE CITY ALMOST SUCCESS

Last month's second annual Rock Wrinkle City was almost a success according local promoter Vic Lusch. Lusch stated that several groups attended the event to listen to some country and western gospel singers perform only to find out the acid rock band and gospel singers got on the wrong buses and went to the wrong concert location. Needless to say, the crowd was shocked to hear acid rock from half naked Kiss look-alikes in face paint dancing on the stage screaming obscenities. "Things got real tense in the beginning until someone something in the theatrical fog machine and whatever it was really calmed down the crowd," said Lusch.

RUBBER DUCK RACE A SUCCESS

Over a thousand rubber ducks were dumped in to Schitz Creek as hundreds watched to see if their duck would be the first to float to the finish line. Citizens who purchased a duck for $10 toward the "Clean Schitz Creek" project watched as their duck slowly floated in the water toward the finish line. "Weez went through three cases o'beer while awaitin the ducks to get through the muck to the finish line!" exclaimed Walt "Geezer" Schmidt. The winning duck was presented to local resident Scooter Doolin with a check for $50 worth of beer at Lusch's Bar and Grille.

SS SOUHEY GROUNDED

The SS Souhey was grounded in shallow water after the city lowered the water in the hydraulic canal plus the lack of rain and the duckweed infestation. It's still available to anyone who wants to wade out to it to have a beer party. Call City Hall for rental prices.

FISH KILL HITS SCHITZ CREEK AND SPREADS TO SWIFT RUN AGAIN

Another round of floating fish suddenly appeared on Swift Run again. Hundreds of fish were found floating on the lake. The source of the fish kill was tracked to Schitz Creek where Father Enos was baptizing another batch of unclean transients (bums).

"This has got to stop!" exclaimed local Resident Burt Puckermann. "They're a killin the fish and makin the lake stink like dirty socks. This is the second time in two months this has happened." he said.

City workers were called to the creek and lake to clean up the dead fish and to install no fishing or swimming signs around the lake.

Mayor Souhey suggested that Wrinklecitians need to purchase more bottled water as the stink has spread to the local water plant and they are currently trying to figure out how to get the dirty sock taste out of the water. The EPA and Police are looking for Fr. Enos.

STATE REPLANTING AGAIN ON SR 36 DUE TO ROAD SALT

Due to the harsh winter of 2015 - 2016 and the application of street de-icing salt, all of the plantings in the city beautification of SR 36 must be redone again. The million dollar project is going to cost the citizens of Wrinkle City more to finish. "Last year we planted some False Aurelia and the local hippies thought it was wacky weed and harvested it" said Tipps

O'Rourke, project manager. "Then we planted some monkey grass and some spider plants, but the road salt destroyed them" he said. "Now we're going to plant native weeds as nothing destroys them" said O'Rourke.

"We're doin a heck of a business in soda, ice cream, fans, extension cords, calamine lotion and bug repellent" she said. "We have partnered with local bar entrepreneur Vic Lusch to open a bar and pool hall on the property called "Ta-Ta's Bar" where campers and visitors can come and imbibe on some cheap brew," stated Fern.

HAPPY BUNZ TO FEATURE FAMOUS MUSICAL REVIEW

"If it's anything like last year's revue, we sold more than 50 cases of Depends and 35 boxes of hearing aid batteries to the old retirees who attended the event" said Orville Bunz. The camp is located next to the beginner course at the Echo Pond Golf Course.

HAPPY BUNZ TO HOST NEKKID 'N AFRAID CAST AND CREW

Orville Bunz has received a proposal from the TV show Nekkid 'N Afraid to be the September location for a rest and relaxation show for the cast and crew. "We'll keep the place open as long as they want to stay providing we can get the outhouses cleaned out in time," said Bunz.

Those who wish to stay at the camp during the Nekkid 'N Afraid visit need to get their reservations in early by calling 899-616-BUNZ.

GOLF COURSE ATTENDANCE BOOMING

Toots Kowalsi, Echo Pond Golf Course Pro announced to the city commission that the beginner course concession stand at Echo Pond has had a phenomenal growth in business. "We have over 250 golfers a day visit the stand, but they miss their Tee Times due to the activity at the club next door. "The beginners course is a busy place due to the activity at Happy Bunz," said Toots. "The beginner's concession stand made a lot of money for us last year thanks to the Golden Boyz and we want to continue a rise in the profits!" exclaimed Kowalski. "We hope to sell a lot of drinks and sun-blocker to the golfers" he said. We are planning a night golfing outing at the beginners course on August 26th so golfers can play golf and hear the Phil Diller Band as they play a round of gold. Tee time is 7:30 pm.

GOLF TALES FROM THE 19TH HOLE

By Toots Kowalski

There was a man who lost one of his arms in an accident.

He became very depressed because he loved to play golf.

One day in his despair, he decided to commit suicide. He got on an elevator and went to the top of a building to jump off.

He was standing on the ledge looking down and saw this man skipping along, whooping and kicking up his heels. He looked closer and saw that this man didn't have any arms at all.

He started thinking, what am I doing up here feeling sorry for myself, I still have one good arm to do things with.

There goes a man with no arms skipping down the sidewalk so happy, and going on with his life. He hurried down and caught up with the man with no arms. He told him how glad he was to see him because he lost one of his arms and felt useless and was going to kill himself.

He thanked him again for saving his life and said he knew he could make it with one arm if that guy could go on with no arms. The man with no arms began dancing and whooping and kicking up his heels again. He asked, "Why are you so happy anyway?" He said, "I'm NOT happy. My balls itch."

Heart-warming stories like this just makes one want to cry.

Ball Markers

A golfer walks into the pro shop at the local course and asks the golf pro if they sell ball markers.

The golf pro says they do, and they are $1.00.

The guy gives the golf pro a dollar. The golf pro opens the register, puts the dollar in, and hands him a dime.

Scottish Golfer

Bert and his wife Edith walked past a swanky new restaurant next to the pro shop.

"Did you smell that food?" she asked. "It smells absolutely incredible!"

Being a 'kind-hearted Scotsman, he thought, "What the heck... I'll treat her!"

So, they walked past it again...

AND THAT'S THE WAY I SEEZ IT

by Vic Lusch

Like a lot of unlucky stiffs in this town, I have to mow my yard every week and have a lawn service to take care of the dandelions ... I need to keep up with the Jones' so to speak.

My friend Vinnie has a broken down mower, and a lawn full of dandelions and weeds. Each year he has a beautiful yard festooned with these yellow flowers that turn fluffy. When the wind blows, those little white fluffy balls blow through the air and causes me to have an extra application of Weed B Gone on my yard. What I do have a problem with him is not keeping his property weed-free and mowed. Ole' Vinnie needs to wake up some mornin' smellin' the scent of gasoline poured on his weeds. If I gotsta mow and have a presentable yard, so duzz he! ...And that's the way I seez it!

WRINKLE CITY HIGH SCHOOL SPORTS SCAPEGOAT FOOTBALL PRACTICES ARE POSTPONED

Coach Smithers has postponed the start of Scapegoat football practice as the practice field was due to the installation of the new bubble gum infused rubber track. "The innovative track that is being installed is a mixture of recycled bubble gum and a flexible rubber and we can't get on to the practice field until it dries." He said. The team will be forced to play flag football indoors until the track dries out.

WRINKLE CITY WEEDS

By Emma T. Kretch

It's repulsive to drive around town and see unkempt homes with junk on the front porches and knee high grass. The most repulsive thing is weeds growing up in the cracks of the sidewalks and gutters. It makes the town look like a redneck rest haven on steroids.

People need to take more pride in Wrinkle City and make it look better than Detroit!

RELIGIOUSLY SPEAKING

By Pastor Geraldine Dibley

Lost on a rainy Friday night, a priest stumbles into a monastery and requests shelter there. Fortunately, he's just in time for dinner and was treated to the best fish and chips he's ever had.

After dinner, he goes into the kitchen to thank the chefs. He is met by two brothers, "Hello, I'm Brother Michael, and this is Brother Francis."

"I'm very pleased to meet you. I just wanted to thank you for a wonderful dinner. The fish and chips were the best I've ever tasted. Out of curiosity, who cooked what?"

Brother Michael replied, "Well, I'm the fish friar."

Father turns to the other brother and says, "Then you must be...."

"Yes, I'm afraid I'm the chip monk..."

A Mormon was seated next to an Irishman on a Flight from London. After the plane was airborne, drink orders were taken.

The Irishman asked for a whiskey, which was promptly brought and placed before him.

The Flight attendant then asked the Mormon if he would like a drink. He replied in disgust, "I'd rather be savagely raped by a dozen Wrinkle City hookers than let liquor touch my lips."

"The Irishman then handed his drink back to the attendant and said, "Me, too, I didn't know we had a choice."

MORTAL HUMOR

BY EMERSON BALMER, JR., AMIGONE
FUNERAL HOME
(NEXT TO BUBBA'S BBQ)

A funeral procession pulled into a cemetery. Several carloads of family members followed a black truck towing a boat with a coffin in it.

A passer-by remarked, "That guy must have been a very avid fisherman."

"Oh, he still is," remarked one of the mourners. As a matter of fact, he's headed off to the lake as soon as we bury his wife."

From The Cockpit

Shortly after a British Airways flight had reached its cruising altitude, the captain announced: "Ladies and Gentlemen, this is your captain. Welcome to Flight 293, non-stop from London Heathrow to New York. The weather ahead is good, so we should have a uneventful flight. So, sit back, relax, and... OH...MY GOD!"

Silence followed.....

Some moments later, the captain came back on the intercom. "Ladies and Gentlemen, I'm sorry if I scared you. While I was talking to you, a flight attendant accidentally spilled coffee in my lap. You should see the front of my pants!"

From the back of the plane, an Irish passenger yelled,

"For the luvva Jaysus you should see the back of mine!"

A father told his three sons when he sent them to the university: "I feel it's my duty to provide you with the best possible education, and you do not owe me anything for that. However, I want you to appreciate it; as a token, please each put $1,000 into my coffin when I die."

And so it happened. The sons became a doctor, a lawyer, and a financial planner, each very successful financially.

When they saw their father in the coffin one day, they remembered his wish. First it was the doctor who put ten $100 bills onto the chest of the deceased.

Then came the financial planner who put a $1,000 bill there.

Finally, it was the heartbroken lawyer's turn. He dipped into his pocket, took out his checkbook, and wrote a check for $3,000. He put it into his father's coffin and took the $2,000 cash in change.

NEW PIZZA HOUSE COMES TO WRINKLE CITY

ASK FOR THE MAGICAL SHROOM PIZZA - IT'S FREAKING DELICIOUS

WRINKLE CITY POLICE NEWS

"Hello, Sarge."

Yes?"

"It looks like we have a homicide here."

"What happened?"

"A woman has shot her husband for stepping on the floor she had just mopped."

"Have you placed her under arrest?"
"No sir. The floor is still wet."

Ole & Sven

One day Ole and Sven were paging through the Sears Catalog and admiring all the beautiful models.

Ole said to Sven, "Haf you seen da perdy girls in dis catalog?"

Sven replied, "Ya. Dey sure are bootiful, an yust look at da prices!"

Ole looked wide eyed and said, "Yumpin' yimminy. Dey ain't very expensive. At deez prices I'm buyin' me vun."

Sven smiled, patted Ole on the back and said, "by golly Ole, if she's as perdy as she looks in da catalog, I will get vun too."

Three weeks later Sven came by and asked Ole, "did ja ever git dat girl you ordered from da Sears Catalog?"

AT THE HOME

This is something that happened at an assisted living center.

The people who lived there have small apartments but they all eat at a central cafeteria. One morning one of the residents didn't show up for breakfast so my wife went upstairs and knocked on his door to see if everything was OK. She could hear him through the door and he said that he was running late and would be down shortly so she went back to the dining area.

An hour later he still hadn't arrived so she went back up towards his room and she found him on the stairs. He was coming down the stairs but was having a hell of time. He had a death grip on the hand rail and seemed to have trouble getting his legs to work right. She told him she was going to call an ambulance but he told her no, he wasn't in any pain and just wanted to have his breakfast. So she helped him the rest of the way down the stairs and he had his breakfast.

When he tried to return to his room he was completely unable to get up even the first step so they called an ambulance for him. A couple hours later she called the hospital to see how he was doing. The receptionist there said he was fine, he just had both of his legs in one leg of his boxer shorts.

Over 70

This fat ugly chick came up behind me, grabbed my butt and said, "You're kind of cute, you gotta a phone number?"

I said, "Yea, you gotta pen?"

She said "Yea", I got a pen".

I said, "Well, you better get back in it before the farmer misses you".

Cost me 6 stitches.

When you are over seventy . . . who gives a crap!

I was talking to a girl in the bar last night. She said, "If you lost a few pounds, had a shave and got your hair cut, you'd look all right."

I said, "If I did that, I'd be talking to your friends over there instead of you."

When you are over seventy ... who gives a crap!

I was telling a girl in the pub about my ability to guess what day a woman was born just by feeling her boobs.

"Really" she said, "Go on then...try."

After about thirty seconds of fondling she began to lose patience and said, "Come on, what day was I born?"

I said, "Yesterday."

When you are over seventy ... who gives a crap!

I went to the pub last night and saw a fat chick dancing on a table. I said, "Good legs."

The girl giggled and said, "Do you really think so."

I said, "Definitely! Most tables would have collapsed by now."

When you are over seventy who gives a crap!

TOWN COUNCIL TO MEET

Covington Town Council will meet to discuss several issues concerning zoning ordinances, street light meters, street paving and painting. "We need to determine how to pay for non-working street lights. One way is to put pay timers on each pole, charge 25 cents an hour and let the residents take turns feedin the meter," said Commissioner Grover Lyle. "Summer lighting costs will be cheap, but it will be quite expensive in the winter!" he exclaimed.

The meeting will be held at the Covington Eagles on Friday night as the city hall air conditioning is still down for repair. People are urged to get their beer and broasted chicken before the meeting. Citizens will be limited to two beers during the meeting.

PEA HILL NEWS

LOCAL CHURCH CANCELS BAPTISMAL SERVICE

Saint Croissant's Church in Pea Hill had to cancel its quarterly baptismal service as someone has again misplaced its inflatable kiddy pool.

Visiting Pastor Rev. Jimmy Joe Steinboller has asked parishioners to chip in so he can get another pool at Wil-Mart before they stop selling them for the season. If the money cannot be raised, the church will resort to the untraditional water hose fight and wet T-shirt contest that was done 10 years ago followed by some Dunkin Donutz and Charmaine's ultra hard cider.
