RESIDENTS DECORATE FOR HOLIDAY SEASON

Many of the residents of the Wrinkle City have begun to decorate for the Holiday Season with some owners going to extremes.

Vern Fernwell decided to display his inflatables in his front yard during the Christmas season. His display has its ups and downs as he continually keeps blowing the breakers.

In the local trailer park the residents have been in the process of decorating their mobile homes.

Bubba Jones suspended his old Volkswagen between two trees along with 2 reindeer. He was going to put his inflatable Santa on the inside, but after inflating it "farted" and blew off into the woods.

Local hot rod racer and bootleg runner Zeb "Scooter" Smith decided to light up his "ride" since the bank repossessed his racing engine.

HUNTING SEASON STARTS SOON

Area hunters are getting their gear ready for the hunting season to begin this month. "I hope the hunters act responsibly this year" said county game warden Leroy Williams. "Last year they shot up a lot of signs and only peppered the backsides of a few of the big game in the area. Rumors are the animals are seeking revenge for last year" he said.

Permits are being sold at Wil-Mart and Spanky's Hunting Supplies.

Spanky Shotwell, owner of Spanky's Hunting Supplies advises all hunters to be aware of game animal's tricks and urges sportsmen to drink plenty of coffee.

MEN FIGHT OVER FALSE TEETH AT LOCAL DINER

Two men were accused of causing a disturbance at Buttz's Buffet fighting over false teeth.

Wilson Plickett's false teeth accidentally were accidentally knocked into a vat of hot soup in the preparation area at the restaurant. "I tookem' out while I was workin' and when I turned around they weren't there. looked all over for them teeth and then had to get back to work" said Plickett. "Later someone holler'd they's teeth in my soup and I rushed out to see where they were!" he exclaimed. "Shonuff there was a guy with a bowl of minestrone with my teeфф in it!" he exclaimed. As he went to retrieve ownership of the teeth, the fight ensued.

Plickett retrieved his teeth and received a broken jaw in the process.

Police were called and charges against the person assaulting Plickett are pending .

WRINKLE CITY COMMISSION APPROVES TAX & FEE HIKES AGAIN

In an effort to stem the decreasing stream of tax income, the Wrinkle City Commission has passed several new taxes and fee increases to help keep the city operating.

Effective January 1, 2012 Wrinklecitians will pay an additional $15 fee for license plates to pay for repaving the poorly constructed and paved roads done by the city staff. The latest result is the poor paving in front of the City Building extending for two city blocks.

Trash removal fees will increase by another $15 unless city residence want to purchase a $15 trash burning fee or take it to the dump behind the city hall.

"With the rates going up, there is some "good news" this winter as there will be no snow removal fee as we are not going to plow...it's every man for themselves!" However, if you don't clean off your drives, sidewalks and across the frontage of your street parking area you'll be cited $50 per day for non renewal!" exclaimed Mayor Souhey.

SCHOOLS INSTALL PAY TOILETS TO EASE BUDGET CRUNCH

All Wrinkle City Schools will have pay toilets installed to help pay for increased budget costs. Melvin Pantewaiste, business manager, has contracted with Schitz Industries to install pay devices on the bathroom stall doors in all of the Wrinkle City Schools.

All restroom stalls will have the "Buck O Flush" devices installed and will accept only quarters as they are a coin operated device. Dollar bill changers will be installed at the entrances to the restrooms. The machines will accept $1 and $5 bills only. Those students needing change must go to the school office.

The schools estimate they will recover their initial cost in two months and add at least $ 1 million to the school coffers by June 2012.

$18,000 MILFOIL BUGS DISAPPEAR

Due to complaints from local residents who live on Bummsnagle's Pond two years ago, city commissioners introduced a small but hungry milfoil bug into the ponds to eat the algae and weeds. The city spent $18,000 to put those hungry little SOB's in the ponds only to discover later the wrong bugs were introduced.

The company recommended by the state said the bugs would eat up the gunk in two years but due to installing the wrong species, the bugs quit work and migrated south for the winter. "Dem wuz southern bugs who can't stand cold weather so they migrated back to Mississippi to be with their moon cricket cousins" said a disappointed Virgil Tinzlee.

"The company wants us to spend another $18,000 for the more aggressive and productive Northern milfoil bug from Michigan" said Tinzlee. "Those Michigan bugs will eat anything" he said.

Mayor Alton J. Souhey was contacted to appraise him of the predicament. When interviewed by phone, Souhey said "It looks like it's either the Northern bugs or else drain the ponds and let the pigs eat up the weeds and roll in the muck all summer" he said.

Either way it looks like it could either be an expensive replacement or a smelly summer.

URGENT REQUEST FROM CITY HALL!

Due to the lack of funds for the city services street maintenance budget, there is an anticipated severe salt shortage for the year. City Manager Virgil Tinzlee is asking every citizen to donate salt through March of 2012. Donations can be made at any time through the night deposit box. (Please do not use the salt packets from Wendell's Hamburgers or McDoogles.)

THE FESTIVE SEASON

With the Holiday Season upon us it is important to understand how much our parties are appreciated. Please use the listing below as reference.

Gauging the level of your Christmas Party Festivity Level 1 Your guests are chatting amiably with each other, admiring your Christmas tree ornaments, singing carols around the upright piano, sipping at their drinks and nibbling hors d'oeuvres.

Festivity Level 2 Your guests are talking loudly -- sometimes to each other, and sometimes to nobody at all, rearranging your Christmas tree ornaments, singing "I Gotta Be Me" around the upright piano, gulping their drinks and wolfing down hors d'oeuvres.

Festivity Level 3 Your guests are arguing violently with inanimate objects, singing "I can't get no satisfaction," gulping down other peoples' drinks, wolfing down Christmas tree ornaments and placing hors d'oeuvres in the upright piano to see what happens when the little hammers strike.

Festivity Level 4 Your guests, hors d'oeuvres smeared all over their naked bodies are performing a ritual dance around the burning Christmas tree. The piano is missing. You want to keep your party somewhere around level 3, unless you rent your home and own firearms, in which case you can go to level 4. The best way to get to level 3 is egg-nog.

NEW TACO HELL OPENING SOON

Wrinkle City will be getting a new Taco Hell restaurant. "We have been working on the building for 9 months and we are about to hatch this baby" said local manager and undocumented alien, Manuel Noriaga Cortez - Smith. " Our main problemmo has been the local ICE guys rounding up all of our workers" he said.

To commemorate the grand opening in mid-December, the store will be offering free T-shirts to all who purchase a spicy jalopeno taco dinner.

GRUMPIN AROUND TOWN WITH GRUMP

By Falworth T. Grump

I just love it when the city puts off paving streets until December when the temperatures get too cold to roll asphalt and then water breaks happen and they have to dig up a new surface. I also love it when the city street department has to rebuild a street because the original base put in several years ago was insufficient to support the traffic load.

Either do the !@%&?! paving right or let the professionals do it!

LAFFIN AT THE LAW

By Dewy Cheatham & Howe LPA

A New York Divorce Lawyer died and arrived at the pearly gates. Saint Peter asks him "What have you done to merit entrance into Heaven?"

The Lawyer thought a moment, then said, "A week ago, I gave a quarter to a homeless person on the street." Saint Peter asked Gabriel to check this out in the record, and after a moment Gabriel affirmed that this was true.

Saint Peter said, "Well, that's fine, but it's not really quite enough to get you into Heaven."

The Lawyer said, "Wait Wait! There's more! Three years ago I also gave a homeless person a quarter." Saint Peter nodded to Gabriel, who after a moment nodded back, affirming this, too, had been verified.

Saint Peter then whispered to Gabriel, "Well, what do you suggest we do with this fellow?"

Gabriel gave the Lawyer a sidelong glance, then said to Saint Peter, "Let's give him back his 50 cents and tell him to go to Hell."

RELIGIOUS HUMOR

by Rev. Geraldine Dibley

Santa was very cross. It was Christmas Eve and nothing was going right. Mrs. Claus had burned all the cookies. The elves were complaining about being paid overtime they had worked making toys and were threatening to go on strike. The reindeer had been drinking eggnog all afternoon. And to make matters worse, a fee of the other elves had taken the sleigh out for a spin earlier in the day and had crashed it into a tree. Santa was furious. "I've got to deliver millions of presents all over the world and all of this mess happens! I don't even have a Christmas tree" exclaimed Santa. "What am I going to do? I sent that stupid angel out hours ago to find a tree and he isn't even back yet! He exclaimed with despair.

Just then, the front door opened and in stepped the angel dragging a Christmas tree. The angel said "Yo, fat man! Where do you want me to stick this tree this year?" And now you know the rest of the story...

SCAPEGOAT SPORTS

Basketball

Coach Smithers has a serious losing season on his hands at the winless Wrinkle City High School's Fighting Scapegoats have yet to win a game "They's real scrappers tho!" exclaimed Smithers. "We can't help it the team is short" he said.

The basketball Scapegoats look like a group of midgets who can't shoot the side of a barn door hoop at three feet.

Wrestling

Wrinkle City Scapegoats new wrestling coach, Omazuno Jones, has been in the process of rebuilding the wrestling team. "We've been having them bulk up by eating 8 times a day and lifting weights. "The eating part is OK, but the lifting weights leave a rittle to be desired" he said.

"Dis is first time I ever coached a high school midget wrestling team dat gets beaten by wimmin cheereeders" he said. "Dis is a lot different than wrestling in the WWF. There I could walk into the rink and lift my arms and expose my pits and watch my opponent keel over from the smell!" he exclaimed.

Scapegoat Cheerleaders

Cheerleader advisor Lucinda "Big Hips" Bates is asking all 2012 sophomore cheerleaders to report to the Lenny's tattoo parlor for their team navel piercing, tattoo and group picture on December 16th. Pole dancing practice will begin December 21st.

FROM THE 19TH HOLE: WINTER GOLF TALES

By Toots Kowalski

Since nobody likes to play golf in Wrinkle City during the winter – especially the Golden Boys so I've been asked to write some golf stories for the WCG. Some may be funny; some not. But what the heck, it's a FREE paper.

A young man, who worked at a driving range, picked up a couple of dozen old balls one day and took them home with him, stuffing them into his pants pockets. On the bus on his way home, an elderly old lady sat down next to him, so he had to scrunch them up to make room for her.

He noticed after a while the lady was glancing sideways toward his pockets. A bit embarrassed, he said to the lady, "It's all right ma'am, they're just golf balls."

She nodded and smiled sympathetically said, "Tell me - is that something like tennis elbow?"

A couple met at Hilton Head and fell in love. They were discussing how they would continue the relationship after their vacations were over. "It's only fair to warn you, Jody," Bill said, "I'm a golf nut. I live, eat, sleep and breathe golf."

"Well, since you're being honest, so will I." Jody said. "I'm a hooker."

"I see." he said. Then, brightening, he smiled. "It's probably because you're not keeping your wrists straight when you hit the ball."

Verne was teeing off from the men's tee.

On his downswing, he realized that his wife, Joy, was teeing up on the woman's tee directly in front of him.

Unable to stop his swing, he nailed it, and hit her directly in the temple, killing her instantly.

A few days later, Verne got a call from the coroner regarding her autopsy.

Coroner: "Verne, your wife seemed to have died from blunt force trauma to the head. You said you hit a golf ball and hit her in the temple, is that correct?"

Verne: "Yes, sir, that's correct."

Coroner: "Well, inexplicably I found a golf ball wedged up her butt."

Verne: "Was it a Titleist 3?"

Coroner: "Yes, it was."

Verne: "That was my mulligan."

PEA HILL UPDATE

Crabbs Declares Bankruptcy

Local entrepreneur, Buster Crabbs’ corn maze failed to earn enough profit for a return on his investment. “I only had one blonde pay the entry fee and she got lost” said Crabbs. “I thought I’d have enough to pay for the entry tickets to the Turd Hearse convention, but lost money on the deal. I lost so much money I had to declare bankruptcy” he said.

Crabbs stated he would try to cesspool cleaning to make up for his losses. “Gotta do something in this crappy economy” he said.

LENA HAPPENINGS

Residents Protest Renovation

Lena residents are upset at the renovation of the new city center / town hall renovation. Deetin Construction finished a 9 year renovation of the old structure, privy and vehicle garage. "We don't see what the fuss is about as we used good second-hand materials" said Ozzy Deetin, developer. "They're just jealous of the pile carpeting we ran to the privy behind the building" he said.

Residents claim the property improvement has increased local property valuations by 200 per cent. Many are considering leaving the small town.
