

ROUTE 25-A NORTH IS A MESS

The expansion of Route 25-A on the north side of town is a mess if not confusing.

The roadway has been dropped over a period of months and then shoddily rebuilt with the ever-moving barrier walls.

"I have to move the barrels so I can get into my drive" said local resident, Marvin Belweather. You should have witnessed the big semi that had to turn around on Crazy Lane to get back on 25-A south", he said. "It took 15 minutes to do a U-turn and had traffic backed up to the interstate," Belweather said.

RESIDENTS DECORATE FOR HOLIDAY SEASON

Many of the residents of the Wrinkle City have begun to decorate for the Holiday Season with some owners going to extremes.

Vern Fernwell decided to display his inflatable's in his front yard during the Christmas season. His display has its ups and downs as he continually keeps blowing the breakers.

In the local trailer park, the residents have been in the process of decorating their mobile homes.

Bubba Jones suspended his old Volkswagen between two trees along with 2 reindeer. He was going to put his inflatable Santa on the inside, but after inflating it "farted" and blew off into the woods.

Local hot rod racer and bootleg runner Zeb "Scooter" Smith decided to light up his "ride" since the bank repossessed his racing engine.

HUNTING SEASON STARTS SOON

Area hunters are getting their gear ready for the hunting season to begin this month. "I hope the hunters act responsibly this year" said county game warden Leroy Williams. "Last year they shot up a lot of signs and only peppered the backsides of a few of the big game in the area. Rumors are the animals are seeking revenge for last year" he said.

Permits are being sold at Wil-Mart and Spanky's Hunting Supplies.

Spanky Shotwell, owner of Spanky's Hunting Supplies advises all hunters to be aware of game animal's tricks and urges sportsmen to drink plenty of coffee.

MEN FIGHT OVER FALSE TEETH AT LOCAL DINER

Two men were accused of causing a disturbance at Buttz's Buffet fighting over false teeth.

Wilson Plickett's false teeth accidentally were accidentally knocked into a vat of hot soup in the preparation area at the restaurant. "I tookem' out while I was workin' and when I turned around they weren't there. looked all over for them teeth and then had to get back to work" said Plickett. "Later someone holler'd they's teeth in my soup and I rushed out to see where they were!" he exclaimed. "Shonuff there was a guy with a bowl of minestrone with my teeфф in it!" he exclaimed. As he went to retrieve ownership of the teeth, the fight ensued.

Plickett retrieved his teeth and received a broken jaw in the process.

Police were called and charges against the person assaulting Plickett are pending .

SCHOOLS INSTALL PAY TOILETS TO EASE BUDGET CRUNCH

All Wrinkle City Schools will have pay toilets installed to help pay for increased budget costs. Melvin Pantewaiste, business manager, has contracted with Schitz Industries to install pay devices on the bathroom stall doors in all of the Wrinkle City Schools.

All restroom stalls will have the "Buck O Flush" devices installed and will accept only quarters as they are a coin operated device. Dollar bill changers will be installed at the entrances to the restrooms. The machines will accept $1 and $5 bills only. Those students needing change must go to the school office.

The schools estimate they will recover their initial cost in two months and add at least $ 1 million to the school coffers by June 2015 to help pay for 3 new elementary schools.

WRINKLE CITY COMMISSION APPROVES TAX & FEE HIKES AGAIN

In an effort to stem the decreasing stream of tax income, the Wrinkle City Commission has passed several new taxes and fee increases to help keep the city operating.

Effective January 1, 2014 Wrinklecitians will pay an additional $15 fee for license plates to pay for repaving the poorly constructed and paved roads done by the city staff. The latest result is the poor patch paving in the downtown area after new gas lines were installed.

Downtown re-landscaping will cost the local residents and additional $25 fee to pay for the nice-ities we don't need. Additional crews will be hired in the spring to cultivate the planting beds.

Trash removal fees will increase by another $15 unless city residence want to purchase a $15 trash burning fee or take it to the dump behind the city hall.

"With the rates going up, there is some "good news" this winter as there will be no snow removal fee as we are not going to plow...it's every man for themselves!" However, if you don't clean off your drives, sidewalks and across the frontage of your street parking area you'll be cited $50 per day for non renewal!" exclaimed Mayor Souhey.

URGENT REQUEST FROM CITY HALL!

Due to the lack of funds for the city services street maintenance budget, there is an anticipated severe salt shortage for the year. City Manager Virgil Tinzlee is asking every citizen to donate salt through March of 2014. Donations can be made at any time through the night deposit box. (Please do not use the salt packets from Wendell's Hamburgers or McDoogles.)

Tis the season!

Lets face it:

You need heat. You need us!
Gotcha!

THE FESTIVE SEASON

With the Holiday Season upon us it is important to understand how much our parties are appreciated. Please use the listing below as reference.

Gauging the level of your Christmas Party Festivity Level 1 Your guests are chatting amiably with each other, admiring your Christmas tree ornaments, singing carols around the upright piano, sipping at their drinks and nibbling hors d'oeuvres.

Festivity Level 2 Your guests are talking loudly -- sometimes to each other, and sometimes to nobody at all, rearranging your Christmas tree ornaments, singing "I Gotta Be Me" around the upright piano, gulping their drinks and wolfing down hors d'oeuvres.

Festivity Level 3 Your guests are arguing violently with inanimate objects, singing "I can't get no satisfaction," gulping down other peoples' drinks, wolfing down Christmas tree ornaments and placing hors d'oeuvres in the upright piano to see what happens when the little hammers strike.

Festivity Level 4 Your guests, hors d'oeuvres smeared all over their naked bodies are performing a ritual dance around the burning Christmas tree. The piano is missing. You want to keep your party somewhere around level 3, unless you rent your home and own firearms, in which case you can go to level 4. The best way to get to level 3 is eggnog.

GRUMPIN AROUND TOWN WITH GRUMP

By Falworth T. Grump

I just love it when some smarty know it all gets an idea to remove some parking places downtown and put in purdy plants and flowers and then we have to hunt for a place to park and walk two bleepin blocks to the Post Office just to mail a letter! Ya ever try to plow snow on a street that has concrete bump outs with plants in them?

LAFFIN AT THE LAW

By Dewy Cheatham & Howe LPA

A New York Divorce Lawyer died and arrived at the pearly gates. Saint Peter asks him "What have you done to merit entrance into Heaven?"

The Lawyer thought a moment, then said, "A week ago, I gave a quarter to a homeless person on the street." Saint Peter asked Gabriel to check this out in the record, and after a moment Gabriel affirmed that this was true.

Saint Peter said, "Well , that's fine, but it's not really quite enough to get you into Heaven."

The Lawyer said, "Wait Wait! There's more! Three years ago I also gave a homeless person a quarter." Saint Peter nodded to Gabriel, who after a moment nodded back, affirming this, too, had been verified.

Saint Peter then whispered to Gabriel, "Well, what do you suggest we do with this fellow?"

Gabriel gave the Lawyer a sidelong glance, then said to Saint Peter, "Let's give him back his 50 cents and tell him to go to Hell."

BEDPAN ALLEY

A man wakes up in the hospital bandaged from head to foot. The doctor comes in and says, "Ah, I see you've regained consciousness. Now you probably won't remember, but you were in a huge pile-up on the freeway. You're going to be okay. You'll walk again and everything. However, your tallywhacker was severed in the accident and we couldn't find it."

The man groans but the doctor goes on,"You have $9,000 in insurance compensation coming and we now have the technology to build a new tallywhacker. They work great but don't come cheap. It's roughly $1000 an inch." The man perks up.

So," the doctor says, "You must decide how many inches you want. But I understand that you have been married for over thirty years and this is something you should discuss with your wife. If you had a five-incher before and get a nine-incher now she might be a bit put out. If you had a nine-incher before and you decide to only invest in a five-incher now, she might be disappointed. It's important that she plays a role in helping you make a decision."

The man agrees to talk it over with his wife.

The doctor comes back the next day, "So, have you spoken with your wife?"

"Yes, I have," says the man. "And has she helped you make a decision?"

"Yes" says the man.

"What is your decision?" asks the doctor.

"We're getting granite counter tops."

RELIGIOUS HUMOR

by Rev. Geraldine Dibley

Santa was very cross. It was Christmas Eve and nothing was going right. Mrs. Claus had burned all the cookies. The elves were complaining about being paid overtime they had worked making toys and were threatening to go on strike. The reindeer had been drinking eggnog all afternoon. And to make matters worse, a fee of the other elves had taken the sleigh out for a spin earlier in the day and had crashed it into a tree. Santa was furious. "I've got to deliver millions of presents all over the world and all of this mess happens! I don't even have a Christmas tree" exclaimed Santa. "What am I going to do? I sent that stupid angel out hours ago to find a tree and he isn't even back yet! He exclaimed with despair. Just then, the front door opened and in stepped the angel dragging a Christmas tree. The angel said "Yo, fat man! Where do you want me to stick this tree this year?" And now you know the rest of the story...

SCAPEGOAT SPORTS

Basketball

Coach Smithers has a serious losing season on his hands at the winless Wrinkle City High School's Fighting Scapegoats have yet to win a game "They's real scrappers tho!" exclaimed Smithers. "We can't help it the team is short" he said.

The basketball Scapegoats look like a group of midgets who can't shoot the side of a barn door hoop at three feet.

Wrinkle City Scapegoats new wrestling coach, Omazuno Jones, has been in the process of rebuilding the wrestling team. "We've been having them bulk up by eating 8 times a day and lifting weights. "The eating part is OK, but the lifting weights leave a rittle to be desired" he said.

"Dis is first time I ever coached a high school midget wrestling team dat gets beaten by wimmin cheereeders" he said. "Dis is a lot different than wrestling in the WWF. There I could walk into the rink and lift my arms and expose my pits and watch my opponent keel over from the smell!" he exclaimed.

FROM THE 19TH HOLE: WINTER GOLF TALES

By Toots Kowalski

Since nobody likes to play golf in Wrinkle City during the winter – especially the Golden Boys so I've been asked to write some golf stories for the WCG. Some may be funny; some not. But what the heck, it's a FREE paper.

It is important for men to remember that, as women grow older, it becomes harder for them to maintain the same quality of housekeeping as when they were younger. When you notice this, try not to yell at them. Some are oversensitive, and there's nothing worse than an oversensitive woman.

Husband's Advice

My name is Pete . Let me relate how I handled the situation with my wife, Trudy . When I retired a few years ago, it became necessary for Trudy to get a full-time job, along with her part-time job, both for extra income and for the health benefits that we needed. Shortly after she started working, I noticed she was beginning to show her age. I usually get home from the golf club about the same time she gets home from work

Although she knows how hungry I am, she almost always says she has to rest for half an hour or so before she starts dinner. I don't yell at her. Instead, I tell her to take her time and just wake me when she gets dinner on the table. I generally have lunch in the Men's Grill at the club, so eating out is not an option in the evening. I'm ready for some home-cooked grub when I hit that door. She used to do the dishes as soon as we finished eating. But now it's not unusual for them to sit on the table for several hours after dinner.

I do what I can by diplomatically reminding her several times each evening that they won't clean themselves. I know she really appreciates this, as it does seem to motivate her to get them done before she goes to bed.

Another symptom of aging is complaining, I think. For example, she will say that it is difficult for her to find time to pay the monthly bills during her lunch hour.. But, Boys, we take 'em for better or worse, so I just smile and offer encouragement. I tell her to stretch it out over two, or even three days. That way, she won't have to rush so much. I also remind her that missing lunch completely now and then wouldn't hurt her any (if you know what I mean). I like to think tact is one of my strong points..

When doing simple jobs, she seems to think she needs more rest periods. She had to take a break when she was only half-finished mowing the lawn. I try not to make a scene. I'm a fair man.. I tell her to fix herself a nice, big, cold glass of freshly squeezed orange juice and just sit for a while. And, as long as she is making one for herself, she may as well make one for me, too.

I know that I probably look like a saint in the way I support Trudy . I'm not saying that showing this much patience & consideration is easy. Many men will find it difficult. Some will find it impossible! Nobody knows better than I do how frustrating women get as they get older. However, Guys, even if you just use a little more tact and less criticism of your ageing wife because of this article, I will consider that writing it was well worthwhile. After all, we are put on this earth to help each other.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Pete died suddenly on January 31 of a perforated rectum. The police report says he was found with a Calloway extra-long 50-inch Big Bertha Driver II golf club jammed up his keester , with barely 5 inches of grip showing, and a sledge hammer laying nearby. His wife Trudy was arrested and charged with murder. The all-woman jury took only 10 minutes to find her Not Guilty, accepting her defense that Pete , somehow without looking, accidentally sat down on his golf club.

Just Golf Balls

A young man, who worked at a driving range, picked up a couple of dozen old balls one day and took them home with him, stuffing them into his pants pockets. On the bus on his way home, an elderly old lady sat down next to him, so he had to scrunch them up to make room for her.

He noticed after a while the lady was glancing sideways toward his pockets. A bit embarrassed, he said to the lady, "It's all right ma'am, they're just golf balls."

She nodded and smiled sympathetically said, "Tell me - is that something like tennis elbow?"

A couple met at Hilton Head and fell in love. They were discussing how they would continue the relationship after their vacations were over. "It's only fair to warn you, Jody," Bill said, "I'm a golf nut. I live, eat, sleep and breathe golf."

"Well, since you're being honest, so will I." Jody said. "I'm a hooker."

"I see." he said. Then, brightening, he smiled. "It's probably because you're not keeping your wrists straight when you hit the ball."

Give Up Sex for Life

A golfer is in a competitive match with a friend, who is ahead by a couple of strokes. "Boy, I'd give anything to sink this putt," the golfer mumbles to himself.

Just then, a stranger walks up beside him and whispers, "Would you be willing to give up one-fourth of your sex life?"

Thinking the man is crazy and his answer will be meaningless, the golfer also feels that maybe this is a good omen, so he says, "Sure," and sinks the putt.

Two holes later, he mumbles to himself again, "Gee, I sure would like to get an eagle on this one."

The same stranger is at his side again and whispers, "Would it be worth giving up another fourth of your sex life?"

Shrugging, the golfer replies, "Okay." And he makes an eagle.

On the final hole, the golfer needs another eagle to win.

Without waiting for him to say anything, the stranger quickly moves to his side and says, "Would winning this match be worth giving up sex for the rest of your life?"

"Definitely," the golfer replies, and he makes the eagle.

As the golfer is walking to the club house, the stranger walks alongside him and says, "I haven't really been fair with you because you don't know who I am. I'm Satan, and from this day forward you will have no sex life."

"Nice to meet you," the golfer replies, "I'm Father O'Malley."

Vern's Wife

Verne was teeing off from the men's tee.

On his downswing, he realized that his wife, Joy, was teeing up on the woman's tee directly in front of him.

Unable to stop his swing, he nailed it, and hit her directly in the temple, killing her instantly.

A few days later, Verne got a call from the coroner regarding her autopsy.

Coroner: "Verne, your wife seemed to have died from blunt force trauma to the head. You said you hit a golf ball and hit her in the temple, is that correct?"

Verne: "Yes, sir, that's correct."

Coroner: "Well, inexplicably I found a golf ball wedged up her butt."

Verne: "Was it a Titleist 3?"

Coroner: "Yes, it was."

Verne: "That was my mulligan."
