U.S. 36 BIKE LANE AND ROUNDABOUT FINALLY OPENED

The US 36 East bridge improvements are finally completed. The bridge now accommodates two lanes of traffic into town and one car lane and a bike lane leading out to the old almost empty Down Valley Mall. The city held a brief dedication and installed special counters to monitor people using the bike lane. So far, only one person was in attendance to use the lane once the 5 minute speech from Mayor Alton B. Souhey ended. The bridge has been opened since November 25th and only one hit was registered on the counters.

Additionally, The new roundabout on Lunatic Way was recently completed and open for public use after months of design, re-design, re-re-design and other changes. Some of the delay was due to the Dyslexia Bros. painting the traffic arrows going in the opposite direction and the Qwik-Grow Weed and Feed Company planting weed seed in the center instead of grass. (That's what you get for using the lowest of the low bidders!) The city held a brief ribbon cutting and a moment of silent prayer for those who will attempt to use the roundabout.

CHRISTMAS ON THE GREEN PARADE A SUCCESS

All of the locals turned out on Saturday for the annual Christmas on the Green Parade and the return of Santa Clause to downtown Wrinkle City. The fifteen minute parade began at the local Stonecutters Lodge and went around the block to the Souhey Square. Participants were urged to take their time due to the short parade.

There were several floats from many of the community organizations and businesses.

There were floats from Wil-Mart, Poor Farmers Fotos, the Stonecutter Lodge, the Wrinkle City Schools, the Evil Empire Bank, the Wrinkle City Scapegoat Marching Band, Marvin's Magnificent Dancing Girls from Boob's 'N Beer and Vic Lusch's beer wagon.

WRINKLE CITY RESIDENTS DECORATE FOR THE SEASON

Many residents of the Wrinkle City Trailer Park have begun to decorate their trailers and lots for the Holiday Season with some going to extremes.

With the current poor economy The owner, many residents are making the most of things by decorating with items from around the house.

Victor Lusch decorated his front yard with a lighted beer keg tree and plans to leave it up through St. Paddy's Day.

"We all need to have something to cheer about since all the politicians and hoity-toity Wall Street bankers ruined our economy" said Lusch.

Many residences throughout the city had simple, but elegant decorations to mark the season.

Many people just leave them up year-round so they don't have to decorate in the cold Wrinkle City Weather. "We kin turn them suckers on for the Fourth of July if uer bulbs are just red, white, and blue" said Smitty Jones.

WRINKLE CITY RESCUE SQUAD FOOLED AGAIN

The Wrinkle City Rescue Squad was called by a passing motorist who noted someone hanging from a North Parkway Street residence.

When the squad arrived on the scene, they found a someone hanging lifeless and a single blinking light strand.

The squad rescued the person and began to realize they had just recued a dummy hanging from the side of the house.

The owner of the house, Herman Dullwitt, said he just wanted to be a little different with his decorations. Dullwitt was fined $50 for a non-emergency call. Dullwitt is protesting the fine as he said the city rescue squad should be able to recognize a dummy from a real person.

WRINKLE CITY COMMISSION APPROVES TAX & FEE HIKE

In an effort to stem the decreasing stream of tax income, the Wrinkle City Commission has passed several new taxes and fee increases to help keep the city operating.

Effective January 1, 2019 Wrinklecicians will pay an additional $5 fee for gigantic trash cans on wheels to pay for repaving the poorly constructed and paved roads done by the city staff. "We might be able to get it done right if we let some of the big companies do it" said City Manager Virgil Tinzlee.

Trash removal fees will increase by another $10 unless city residence want to purchase a $10 trash burning fee or take it to the dump behind the city hall.

"With the rates going up, there is some "good news" this winter as there will be no snow removal fee as we are not going to plow...it's every man for themselves!" exclaimed Tinzlee.

THE HISTORY OF THE CHRISTMAS TREE ANGEL

It was Christmas Eve and NOTHING was going right.

Mrs. Claus had burned all the cookies. The elves were complaining about not getting paid for the overtime they had worked making toys, and were threatening to go on strike. The reindeer had been drinking eggnog all afternoon. To make matters worse, a few of the other elves had taken the sleigh out for a spin earlier in the day and had crashed it into a tree.

Santa was furious. "I can't believe it! I've got to deliver millions of presents all over the world in just a few hours, and all of my reindeer are drunk, the elves are walking out, and I don't even have a Christmas tree! I sent that stupid little angel out HOURS ago to find a tree and he isn't even back yet! What am I going to do?"

Just then, the little angel opened the front door and stepped in from the snowy night, dragging a Christmas tree. The angel said, "Yo, fat man! Where do you want me to stick the tree this year?"

And thus the tradition of angels atop the Christmas trees came to pass...

Christmas Prayers

A few days before Christmas, two young brothers were spending the night at their grandparent's house. When it was time to go to bed, and anxious to do the right thing, they both knelt down to say their prayers.

Suddenly, the younger one began to do so in a very loud voice.

"Dear Lord, please ask Santa Claus to bring me a play-station, a mountain-bike and a telescope."

His older brother leaned over and nudged his brother and said, "Why are you shouting your prayers? God isn't deaf."

"I know" he replied, "But Grandma is!"

The Weather Man

A long time ago, in Communist Russia, there was a famous weather man named Rudolf.

He's always had a 100% accuracy rate for his forecasts of the Russian weather conditions. His people loved him and respected him for his faultless foresight. He was particularly good at predicting rain. One night, despite clear skies, he made the prediction on the 6:00pm news broadcast that a violent storm was approaching. It would flood the town in which he and his wife lived. He warned the people to take proper precautions and prepare for the worst.

After he arrived home later that evening, his wife met him at the door and started arguing with him that his weather prediction was the most ridiculous thing she had ever heard. This time, she said, he had made a terrible mistake. There wasn't a cloud anywhere within 10 miles of the village. As a matter of fact, that day had been the most beautiful day that the town had ever had and it was quite obvious to everyone it simply wasn't going to rain.

He told her she was to be quiet and listen to him. If he said it was going to rain, IT WAS GOING TO RAIN. He had all of his Russian heritage behind him and he knew what he was talking about. She argued that although he came from a proud heritage, IT STILL WASN'T GOING TO RAIN.

They argued back and forth for hours, so much that they went to bed mad at each other.

During the night, sure enough one of the worst rainstorms hit the village the likes of which they had never seen. That morning when Rudolf and his wife arose, they looked out the window and saw all the water that had fallen that night.

"See," said Rudolf, "I told you it was going to rain."

His wife admitted: "Once again your prediction came true. But I want to know, just how were you so accurate, Rudolf?"

To which he replied, "You see, Rudolf the Red knows rain dear!"

Shopping Early

It was coming up to Christmas and the Judge was in a jolly frame of mind.

"Now then, please tell me, what is the charge against you?"

"I was caught doing my Christmas shopping very early." replied the man in the dock.

"That doesn't seem like an offence to me. What do you mean by 'very early'?"

"Well, your Honor." said the defendant, "It was before the shop was open."

Blackmail

It was coming up to Christmas and Sammy asked his mum if he could have a new bike. So, she told him that the best idea would be to write to Santa Claus. But Sam, having just played a vital role in the school nativity play, said he would prefer to write to the baby Jesus. So his mum told him that would be fine.

Sam went to his room and wrote 'Dear Jesus, I have been a very good boy and would like to have a bike for Christmas.' But he wasn't very happy when he read it over. So he decided to try again and this time he wrote 'Dear Jesus, I'm a good boy most of the time and would like a bike for Christmas.' He read it back and wasn't happy with that one either. He tried a third version. 'Dear Jesus, I could be a good boy if I tried hard and especially if I had a new bike.' He read that one too, but he still wasn't satisfied.

So, he decided to go out for a walk while he thought about a better approach. After a short time he passed a house with a small statue of the Virgin Mary in the front garden. He crept in, stuffed the statue under his coat, hurried home and hid it under the bed. Then he wrote this letter. 'Dear Jesus, If you want to see your mother again, you'd better send me a new bike.'

SCAPEGOAT BASKETBALL TEAM DOESN'T HAVE ANY BALLS

With the past three seasons of lack of prowess on the basketball court, the WCHS Scapegoat basketball team has not exactly set the court on fire. Last year's 1 and 19 record produced attendance that averaged 300 at the game (most of which were from the neighboring towns). The shortest game on record last year was 20 minutes and that was due to Freddie Stahlbert's flatulence attack which caused the game as well as the squad to be called.

With the decline in attendance and an anemic athletic budget, the boy's and girl's teams only have one ball to share. Coach Smithers is hoping that someone in the community will be willing to donate at least two more balls. Interested people can call Coach Smithers at 468-2259 (GOT BALZ)

A Proper Goldfish Burial

Little Tim was in the garden filling in a hole when his neighbor peered over the fence.

Interested in what the cheeky-faced youngster was up to, he politely asked, "What are you up to there, Tim?"

"My goldfish died," replied Tim tearfully, without looking up, "and I've just buried him."

The neighbor was concerned, "That's an awfully big hole for a goldfish, isn't it?"

Tim patted down the last heap of earth then replied, "That's because he's inside your stupid cat."

Dying With Dignity

I have already informed my family that I will not be able to afford an expensive nursing home which would allow me to die poor and very old. I have therefore moved to Cambodia so that I can spend my final years enjoying life and dying with Dignity!

Birds of a feather flock together. . . .and then crap on your car.

A penny saved is a government oversight.

The real art of conversation is not only to say the right thing at the right time, but also to leave unsaid the wrong thing at the tempting moment..

The older you get, the tougher it is to lose weight, because by then your body and your fat have gotten to be really good friends.

The easiest way to find something lost around the house is to buy a replacement.

Keep Noxious Flatulence at Bay with the Gas Grabber

Oh good lord! Someone has finally invented a fart protector! After you've eaten the Thanksgiving turkey equivalent of a horse, some of that tryptophan is going to eventually turn into methane, and you're going to need some serious butt protection like this. Schitz Industries has developed The Gaz Grabber - - anal pad uses activated charcoal to neutralize those toxic fumes, sparing all of your beloved family members from your willful violation of their airspace by your noxious kamikazes. Although in the development and testing phase, the Gas Grabber only fits regular size butts and must be changed daily. "The device works better than a cork" said Byron Scattermann, head of development at Schitz Industries. Look for the Gaz Grabber to be available in late 2019.
