WRINKLE CITY CELEBRATES GROUND HOG DAY

A crowd of more than 20 Wrinklecitians gathered in the early hours outside the little den in Forest Park in anticipation of its resident groundhog to see if he would see his shadow and prognosticate an early Spring or more of the same crappy weather.

Rev. Lamar Spiceman presided at this year's the event pulling Dilburt G. Hogg, the Wrinkle City official groundhog, out of his den, whispering into Dilburt's ear, and then yelling "Dilburt says 6 more weeks of this crap!" Upon that great yell, Dilburt bit Spiceman on the hand and went back into his hole disgusted at the whole event muttering to himself "screw this getting up at 6AM just to have some jerk yell in your ear!"

Rev. Spiceman was taken to the Lower Valley Hospital Outpatient Center for treatment.

LOCAL BOYS STRANDED AGAIN WHILE ICE FISHERY

Cletus Smitts and Delbert Bowhart got stranded on Swift Run Lake for the third year while ice fishin. "Weez just took a beer break and the chunk of ice we were on broke loose and floated into the center of the lake" said Smitts. "Heck, we were doin good until we ran outta beer and then things got desperate" said Bowhart.

Vic Lusch made a delivery another case of beer and when he saw us floatin' in the lake he called the fire department to bring out a boat to supply us! "Dang near cost us a case of beer to pay off the firemen!" exclaimed Smitts. "Polmsieder and Red Spenders are really hard to bargain with" said Bowhart.

NUNS WITH GUNS TO PATROL WRINKLE CITY

It's that time of year! Chief Barney "One Bullit" McGinty has informed the Gazette that the entire police department will be attending the 2013 Police Extravaganza in Las Vegas during the month of February and has contracted their police duties to the Sisters of Nomermy Convent to patrol the streets and keep the peace. "They did such a good job every year we contracted with them we could take the month off to learn better gaming controls in Las Vegas just in case we get a casino in Wrinkle City in the next 50 years" said

McGinty. "These sisters mean business ... they shoot and ask questions later" he said.

Last year's record for the Nuns With Guns resulted in 500 arrests for illegal drugs and domestic altercations resulting in $10,500.59 in fines, notwithstanding the $5,000 in the Charity and Missions box.

Sister Mary Elephant (The Mother Superior) expects everyone to be on their best behavior while the nuns are in town. "We've also been equipped with steel rulers and Holy Water for the month" she said.

"Best be on your best behavior" said Mayor Alton J. Souhey. "Besides...they're working for free" he said. These nuns mean business!" he exclaimed.

BUBBA'S BIG BBQ REBOUNDS FROM FROM WACKY WOOD INCIDENT

Bubba's BIG BBQ is still in business!

After intense questioning by the state drug and alcohol boys, Bubba was forced to cough up the name of his wacky wood supplier and swear he'd never use the pot laced wood again. "They scared the bageesus outa me!" exclaimed Bubba.

"Customers will be able to get almost the same kinda BBQ they gots before," he said. "We are still gonna have our favorite sauces. "Our big seller is "Sweet Fire" quipped Bubba. "It's smokey, sweet and'll burn the short hairs off a hog too!" Too bad we couldn't bottle some of that wacky stuff." He said.

URGENT REQUEST FROM CITY HALL!

Due to the lack of funds for the city services street maintenance budget, there is an anticipated severe salt shortage for the year. City Manager Virgil Tinzlee is asking every citizen to donate salt through March of 2013. Donations can be made at any time through the night deposit box. (Please do not use the salt shakers from Bob's Country Fixin's or Cracker's Barrell.) Donations larger than 50 pounds can be placed next to the City Manager's desk.

GRUMPIN AROUND TOWN WITH GRUMP

By Falworth T. Grump

When it snows you are guaranteed one thing: the city plowboys will continually plow your drive and sidewalks closed after you've already done them. Those guys drive those plow trucks so fast they spray snow for 20 feet covering up everything you've done.

Salting is another issue. They never salt my street. So when you go to an intersection, you go through it even while your breaks were on for the past 60 feet!

I think the city's adoptin a new snow removal plan: SPRING!

Sometimes I just want to give them all the universal hand gesture and tell them to get the $#@^! out of my way.

Grump out!

YOU KNOW WHEN YOU'RE FROM WRINKLE CITY...

When you're in a restaurant and have to send your kids to the car to get your false teeth.

When you're the final owner of every car you buy.

When you've been hospitalized at the Premiere Partners Band Aid Station for a pain in the butt and they've run $50,000 worth of tests only to find you got a wedgie up yer crack!

When all the girls on your high school drill team are now "customer service agents" at Boobs 'N Beer.

When the only time your home gets dusted is for fingerprints.

When the tattoo parlor artist is the wealthiest man in town.

When you've ever pulled a boat behind your truck in a funeral procession.

When the local basketball team has won only 3 freakin games all year.

When your bar tab at Lusch's has page numbers.

When the city commissioners admit they've been negligent for over 21 years.

LOVE IS IN THE AIR: IT'S VALENTINE'S DAY FEBRUARY 14TH!

My One And Only

Roger, who was 19 years old, was buying an expensive bracelet, to surprise his girlfriend on Valentine's Day, at a very smart jeweler's shop in Troy.

The jeweler inquired, 'Would you like your girlfriend's name engraved on it?'

Roger thought for a moment, grinned, then answered, 'No, instead engrave "To my one and only love".'

The jeweler smiled and said, 'Yes, sir; how very romantic of you.'

Roger retorted with a glint in his eye, 'Not exactly romantic, but very practical. This way, if we break up, I can use it again.'

There once was an old man of Lyme

Who married three wives at a time
When asked "Why a third?"
He replied, "One's absurd!
And bigamy, Sir, is a crime."

RELIGIOUS HUMOR

by Rev. Geraldine Dibley

Denominational Falling

When the Brethren pastor falls down the stairs, he picks himself up and says, "That was an experience, how do I learn from it?" "I better consult with the Bishop."

When the Catholic priest falls down the stairs, he picks himself up and says, "I must have done something really bad to deserve that."

When the Presbyterian minister falls down the stairs, he picks himself up and says, "That was inevitable, I'm glad its over."

When the Baptist minister falls down the stairs, he picks himself up and says, "Which one of my deacons pushed me?"

VALENTINE'S DAY GIFT

Roger, a young rabbi, was buying an expensive bracelet, to surprise his girlfriend on Valentine's Day, at a very smart jeweler's shop.

The jeweler inquired, 'Would you like your girlfriend's name engraved on it?'

Roger thought for a moment, grinned, then answered, 'No, instead engrave "To my one and only love".'
The jeweler smiled and said, 'Yes, sir; how very romantic of you.'

The young rabbi retorted with a glint in his eye, 'Not exactly romantic, but very practical. This way, if we break up, I can use it again.'

THE TOP TEN REASONS THAT VALENTINES IS IN FEBRUARY

- Christmas and Easter got first dibs!
- Chocolate hearts melt in the summer!
- February temperatures make cuddling a matter of survival!
- With only 28 days you expect a big holiday in February? February should be grateful for what February gets!
- Greeting Card Cartels. If Hallmark wants a holiday
- in February, Hallmark gets a holiday in February!
- Little known fact: Ponxsutaway Phil/Wiarton Willie / Buckeye Chuck / Dilbert sub for Cupid!
- It's biological: male romantic rituals can occur only between the end of football season and the beginning hockey playoffs!
- Let's face it, red clothing with fuzzy white trim is a winter thing. Just ask Santa!
- 'Cause there's nothing else to do in between January and March.

And the number one reason Valentines is in February is:

- It is on the anniversary of St. Valentine's martyrdom silly

CHURCH BULLETIN FUN

* Remember in prayer the many who are sick of our church and community.

* This afternoon services will be held at the north and south ends of the church. Children will be baptized at both ends.

FLATULENCE CAUSES COMMOTION AT HIGH SCHOOL GAME

Stinky Bruggeman did it again!

Bruggeman was recently paroled from the county jail due to his flatulent behavior and celebrated by attending a high school basketball game.

Bruggeman, 38, ate 3 cans of Brush's Spicy Cajun Baked Beans before attending the game. During the game he developed a large amount of methane that let loose with a "WHOOM!" which promptly knocked three people out of the bleachers and caused others to faint. All in all, 30 people were affected and the game had to be temporarily halted until the gym could be aired out.

Chief Barney "One-Bullit" McGinty attempted to ask Stinky to leave the premises, but was felled by another blast of the Cajun-centered flatulence.

The Wrinkle City Rescue Squad was called to give first aid to those affected and had to enter the gym wearing their breathing apparatus.

Bruggeman was remanded to the flatulence ward at Lower Valley Hospital for isolation and treatment.

Judge Judy has ordered Bruggeman to always carry and ring an alarm bell to warn people of coming bodily eruptions.

SCAPEGOAT SPORTS

Coach Smithers has a serious losing season on his hands as the Wrinkle City High School's Fighting Scapegoats have only won 4 games this season. "They's real scrappers tho!" exclaimed Smithers. "We can't help it the team is short and shoots cross-eyed" he said.

"The 4-15 basketball Scapegoats look like a group of midgets who can't shoot the side of a barn door hoop at two feet" said Smithers.

SCAPEGOAT BOWLERS ON A LOSING ROLL

The Scapegoat bowling team will haul their balls to neighboring St. Paris to compete in a regional tournament. The 9-4 'goats will take on St. Paris Parasites without their ace bowler who is still out with a severe case of finger fungus.

FROM THE 19TH HOLE: WINTER GOLF TALES

By Toots Kowalski

I want to buy a golf ball

A blonde golfer goes into the pro shop and looks around frowning.

Finally the pro asks her what she wants. "I can't find any green golf balls," the blonde golfer complains.

The pro looks all over the shop, and through all the catalogs, and finally calls the manufacturers and determines that sure enough, there are no green golf balls.

As the blonde golfer walks out the door in disgust, the pro asks her, "Before you go, could you tell me why you want green golf balls?"

"Well obviously, because they would be so much easier to find in the sand traps!"

MORTAL HUMOR

By Emerson Balmer, Amigone Funeral Services

A funeral service is being held for a woman who has just passed away. At the end of the service, the pallbearers are carrying the casket out when they accidentally bump into a wall, jarring the casket. They hear a faint moan. They open the casket and find that the woman is actually alive! She lives for ten more years, and then dies. Once again, a ceremony is held, and at the end of it, the pallbearers are again carrying out the casket. As they carry the casket towards the door, the husband cries out, 'Watch that wall!'

This guy's father dies, so he goes to the undertaker and tells him he wants the best of everything for his father. The man gets really sick the day of the funeral, however, and is unable to attend.

The next day, he gets a bill for $16,000. He pays it. The next month, he gets another bill for $85. He figures it's just a little supplementary bill, so he pays that, too.

Next month, another bill for $85 arrives, so he calls up the undertaker and says, "I keep getting these bills for $85 dollars. I thought I paid for the funeral already." The undertaker says, "Well, you said you wanted the best for your father, so I rented him a tux."

PEA HILL UPDATE

LOCAL COUNCIL MEMBER SUGGESTS MOVING THE MONUMENT TO A SAFER LOCATION

Councilman Emil Schmultz has recommended the town monument be moved as recent accidents from drunks travelling on State Route 48 have caused the base to be chipped from cars hitting or scraping the monument.

"We've painted reflective striping and installed lights and the drunks still keep hitting the monument" Schmultz stated. "It seems like they're using it for target practice when driving from West Milton to Covington to Rowdee's Bar" he said. "We even have a problem with Emma Hiney who has Oldtimer's disease who tries to cross the street and follows the arrows at the base of the monument. She's never gotten across and she keeps circling the dang thing wearin a hole in the asphalt!" exclaimed Schmultz.

No decision has been made on moving the Civil War Veterans monument. However the council approved the purchase of extra tar and Big John Lolly said he'd donate the feathers.
