WRINKLE CITY CELEBRATES GROUND HOG DAY

A crowd of more than 20 Wrinklecitians gathered in the early hours outside the little den in Forest Park in anticipation of its resident groundhog to see if he would see his shadow and prognosticate an early Spring or more of the same crappy weather.

Rabbi Levi Krochkiz presided at this year's the event pulling Dilbert G. Hogg, the Wrinkle City official groundhog, out of his den , whispering into Dilbert's ear, and then yelling "Dilbert says 6 more weeks of this crap!" Upon that great yell, Dilbert bit Krochkiz on the cheek and went back into his hole disgusted at the whole event muttering to himself "screw this getting up at 6AM just to have some jerk yell in your ear! They don't make hearing aids for groundhogs!"

Rabbi Krochkiz was taken to the Lower Valley Hospital Outpatient Center for treatment. The rabbi said he should have turned the other cheek.

LOCAL PLOWBOYS GITTER DONE DURING HEAVY SNOW FALL AND FREEZING TEMPS

Despite sub-zero temperatures and heavy winds, the local Wrinkle City Sanitation crews put snow plows on their trucks and plowed the city streets. "We had to make sure we had the trucks full of garbage first so we could get good traction", said driver Delbert Dinzmores. "We were doin' real good until I hit a bump and accidentally opened the back hatch spewing out half a load of rotten garbage from Kerger's Market!", he exclaimed. "We'll have to wait until the thaw to scoop up the mess," stated Dinzmores.

FLATULENT COWS START FIRE AT GERMAN DAIRY FARM - WCFD

Methane gas from 90 flatulent cows exploded in a local farm shed, damaging the roof and injuring one of the animals, Wrinkle City Fire Chief Red Spenders reported.

The cows were eating a bean fortified feed mixture and drinking large volumes of water during the day. High levels of the gas from the flatulence had built up in the structure over a period of time and then "a static electric charge caused the gas to explode with flashes of flames," the force said in a statement.

One cow was treated for burns, a police spokesman added.

LOCAL BOYS STRANDED AGAIN WHILE ICE FISHIN

Cletus Smitts and Delbert Bowhart got stranded on Swift Run Lake for the fourth year while ice fishin. "Weez just took a beer break and the chunk of ice we were on broke loose and floated into the center of the lake" said Smitts. "Heck, we were doin good until we ran outta beer and then things got desperate" said Bowhart.

Vic Lusch made a delivery another case of beer and when he saw us floatin' in the lake he called the fire department to bring out a boat to supply us! "Dang near cost us a case of beer to pay off the firemen!" exclaimed Smitts. "Polsmeider and Red Spenders are really hard to bargain with" said Bowhart.

NUNS WITH GUNS TO PATROL WRINKLE CITY

It's that time of year! Chief Barney "One Bullit" McGinty has informed the Gazette that the entire police department will be attending the 2014 Police Extravaganza in Las Vegas during the month of February and has contracted their police duties to the Sisters of Nomercy Convent to patrol the streets and keep the peace. "They did such a good job every year we contracted with them we could take the month off to learn better gaming controls in Las Vegas just in case we get a casino in Wrinkle City in the next 50 years" said

McGinty. "These sisters mean business ... they shoot and ask questions later" he said.

Last year's record for the Nuns With Guns resulted in 500 arrests for illegal drugs and domestic altercations resulting in $10,500.59 in fines, notwithstanding the $5,000 in the Charity and Missions box.

Sister Mary Eliphant (The Mother Superior) expects everyone to be on their best behavior while the nuns are in town. "We've also been equipped with steel rulers and Holy Water for the month" she said.

"Best be on your best behavior" said Mayor Alton J. Souhey. "Besides...they're working for free" he said. These nuns mean business!" he exclaimed.

BUBBA'S BIG BBQ REBOUNDS FROM FROM WACKY WOOD INCIDENT AGAIN

Bubba's BIG BBQ is still in business after the wacky wood incident last month!

After intense questioning by the state drug and alcohol boys, Bubba was forced to cough up the name of his wacky wood supplier and swear he'd never use the pot laced wood again. "They scared the bageezus outa me!" exclaimed Bubba.

"Customers will be able to get almost the same kinda BBQ they gots before," he said. "We are still gonna have our favorite sauces. "Our big seller is "Sweet Fire" quipped Bubba. "It's smokey, sweet and'll burn the short hairs off a hog too!" Too bad we couldn't bottle some of that wacky stuff," he said.

URGENT REQUEST FROM CITY HALL!

Due to the lack of funds for the city services street maintenance budget, there is an anticipated severe salt and cold patch shortage for the year. City Manager Virgil Tinzlee is asking every citizen to donate salt through March of 2014. Donations can be made at any time through the night deposit box. (Please do not use the salt shakers from Bob's Country Fixin's or Cracker's Barrell.) Donations larger than 50 pounds can be placed next to the City Manager's desk. Anyone wanting to donate a bag of cold patch asphalt can do so by putting it inside the back door of the police department for safekeeping.

GRUMPIN AROUND TOWN WITH GRUMP

By Falworth T. Grump

When it snows you are guaranteed one thing: the city plowboys will continually plow your drive and sidewalks closed after you've already done them. Those guys drive those plow trucks so fast they spray snow for 20 feet covering up everything you've done.

Salting is another issue. They never salt my street. So when you go to an intersection, you go through it even while your breaks were on for the past 60 feet!

I think the city's adoptin a new snow removal plan: SPRING!

Sometimes I just want to give them all the universal hand gesture and tell them to get the $#@! out of my way.

Grump out!

YOU KNOW WHEN YOU'RE FROM WRINKLE CITY...

When you're in a restaurant and have to send your kids to the car to get your false teeth.

When you're the final owner of every car you buy.

When you've been hospitalized at the Premiere Partners Band Aid Station for a pain in the butt and they've run $50,000 worth of tests only to find you got a wedgie up yer crack!

When all the girls on your high school drill team are now "customer service agents" at Boobs 'N Beer.

When the only time your home gets dusted is for fingerprints.

When the tattoo parlor artist is the wealthiest man in town.

When your bar tab at Lusch's has page numbers.

When the city commissioners admit they've been negligent for over 21 years.

Letter to the Editor

Appreciation and Orville's Medical Update

Firstly, Both Orville and I would like to express our sincere gratitude to all of our campers for their support over the years. We couldn't have made a go of it if you hadn't frequented the camp grounds and attended activities at Happy Bunz Clothing Optional Campgrounds.

Secondly, I'd like to inform you about Orville's medical condition. Last week, Orville was playing lawn darts and forgot to protect his haughty parts during the game. One opposing player threw an errant dart which pierced Orville's naughty part and now he piddles in three directions! The doctors said they could either put in rings to fill the holes or Orville could have expensive surgery to correct the problem. We would like to get your suggestions as to how we should proceed. If we select surgery, we will open the campground a little later than usual but will keep it open longer.

Let us know how to proceed.

LOVE IS IN THE AIR: IT'S VALENTINE'S DAY FEBRUARY 14TH!

My One And Only

Roger, who was 19 years old, was buying an expensive bracelet, to surprise his girlfriend on Valentine's Day, at a very smart jeweler's shop in Troy.

The jeweler inquired, 'Would you like your girlfriend's name engraved on it?'

Roger thought for a moment, grinned, then answered, 'No, instead engrave "To my one and only love".' The jeweler smiled and said, 'Yes, sir; how very romantic of you.'

Roger retorted with a glint in his eye, 'Not exactly romantic, but very practical. This way, if we break up, I can use it again.'

There once was an old man of Lyme

Who married three wives at a time
When asked "Why a third?"
He replied, "One's absurd!
And bigamy, Sir, is a crime."

VALENTINE'S DAY GIFT

Roger, a young rabbi, was buying an expensive bracelet, to surprise his girlfriend on Valentine's Day, at a very smart jeweler's shop.

The jeweler inquired, 'Would you like your girlfriend's name engraved on it?'

Roger thought for a moment, grinned, then answered, 'No, instead engrave "To my one and only love".' The jeweler smiled and said, 'Yes, sir; how very romantic of you.'

The young rabbi retorted with a glint in his eye, 'Not exactly romantic, but very practical. This way, if we break up, I can use it again.'

THE TOP TEN REASONS THAT VALENTINES IS IN FEBRUARY

- Christmas and Easter got first dibs!
- Chocolate hearts melt in the summer!
- February temperatures make cuddling a matter of survival!
- With only 28 days you expect a big holiday in February? February should be grateful for what February gets!
- Greeting Card Cartels. If Halmark wants a holiday
- in February, Halmark gets a holiday in February!
- Little known fact: Ponxsutawey Phil/Wiarton Willie / Buckeye Chuck / Dilbert sub for Cupid!
- It's biological: male romantic rituals can occur only between the end of football season and the beginning hockey playoffs!
- Let's face it, red clothing with fuzzy white trim is a winter thing. Just ask Santa!
- 'Cause there's nothing else to do in between January and March.

And the number one reason Valentines is in February is:

- It is on the anniversary of St. Valentine's martyrdom silly

Barflies

I couldn't help but overhear two guys in their mid-twenties while sitting at a bar. One of the guys says to his buddy, "Man you look tired."

His buddy says, "Dude I'm exhausted. My girlfriend and I have whoopie all the time. I just don't know what to do."

A fellow about my age (77), sitting a couple of bar stools down had also overheard the conversation. He looked over at the two young men and with the wisdom of years says, "Marry her. That'll put a stop to that crap!"

RELIGIOUS HUMOR

by Rev. Geraldine Dibley

Denominational Falling

When the Brethren pastor falls down the stairs, he picks himself up and says, "That was an experience, how do I learn from it?" "I better consult with the Bishop."

When the Catholic priest falls down the stairs, he picks himself up and says, "I must have done something really bad to deserve that."

When the Presbyterian minister falls down the stairs, he picks himself up and says, "That was inevitable, I'm glad its over."

When the Baptist minister falls down the stairs, he picks himself up and says, "Which one of my deacons pushed me?"

MISCHIEVOUS BOYS

A couple had two little boys, ages 8 and 10, who were excessively mischievous. The two were always getting into trouble and their parents could be assured that if any mischief occurred in their town their two young sons were in some way involved. The parents were at their wits end as to what to do about their sons behavior. The mother had heard that a clergyman in town had been successful in disciplining children in the past, so she asked her husband if he thought they should send the boys to speak with the clergyman.

The husband said "We might as well. We need to do something before I really lose my temper!"

The clergyman agreed to speak with the boys, but asked to see them individually. The 8 year old went to meet with him first.

The clergyman sat the boy down and asked him sternly, "Where is God?" The boy made no response, so the clergyman repeated the question in an even sterner tone, "Where is God?" Again the boy made no attempt to answer. So the clergyman raised his voice even more and shook his finger in the boys face, "WHERE IS GOD?" At that point the boy bolted from the room and ran directly home, slamming himself in the closet.

His older brother followed him into the closet and said, "What happened?"

The younger brother replied, "We are in BIG trouble this time. God is missing and they think we did it."

Ham & Flesh

A Priest and a Rabbi were sitting next to each other on an airplane. After a while, the Priest turned to the Rabbi and asked, "Is it still a requirement of your faith that you not eat pork?"

The Rabbi responded, "Yes, that is still one of our laws."

The Priest then asked, "Have you ever eaten pork?"

To which the Rabbi replied, "Yes, on one occasion I did succumb to temptation and tasted a ham sandwich."

The Priest nodded in understanding and went on with his reading.

A while later, the Rabbi spoke up and asked the Priest, "Father, is it still a requirement of your church that you remain celibate?"

The Priest replied, "Yes, that is still very much a part of our faith."

The Rabbi then asked him, "Father, have you ever fallen to the temptations of the flesh?"

The Priest replied, "Yes, Rabbi, on one occasion I was weak and broke my faith."

The Rabbi nodded understandingly and remained silent, thinking, for about five minutes.

Finally, the Rabbi said, "Beats the hell out of a ham sandwich, doesn't it?"

Husband takes the wife to a church disco dance.

There's a guy on the dance floor living it large, break dancing, moon walking, back flips, the works.

The wife turns to her husband and says: "See that guy? 25 years ago he proposed to me and I turned him down."

Husband says: "Looks like he's still celebrating!!!"

FROM THE 19TH HOLE: WINTER GOLF TALES

By Toots Kowalski

I want to buy a golf ball

A blonde golfer goes into the pro shop and looks around frowning.

Finally the pro asks her what she wants. "I can't find any green golf balls," the blonde golfer complains.

The pro looks all over the shop, and through all the catalogs, and finally calls the manufacturers and determines that sure enough, there are no green golf balls.

As the blonde golfer walks out the door in disgust, the pro asks her, "Before you go, could you tell me why you want green golf balls?"

"Well obviously, because they would be so much easier to find in the sand traps!"

MORTAL HUMOR

By Emerson Balmer, Amigone Funeral Services

A funeral service is being held for a woman who has just passed away. At the end of the service, the pallbearers are carrying the casket out when they accidentally bump into a wall, jarring the casket. They hear a faint moan. They open the casket and find that the woman is actually alive! She lives for ten more years, and then dies. Once again, a ceremony is held, and at the end of it, the pallbearers are again carrying out the casket. As they carry the casket towards the door, the husband cries out, 'Watch that wall!'

This guy's father dies, so he goes to the undertaker and tells him he wants the best of everything for his father. The man gets really sick the day of the funeral, however, and is unable to attend.

The next day, he gets a bill for $16,000. He pays it. The next month, he gets another bill for $85. He figures it's just a little supplementary bill, so he pays that, too.

Next month, another bill for $85 arrives, so he calls up the undertaker and says, "I keep getting these bills for $85 dollars. I thought I paid for the funeral already." The undertaker says, "Well, you said you wanted the best for your father, so I rented him a tax.

At Amigone, we think of everything!

We do mouse funerals too!
