SEVERAL OUTHOUSE FIRES BLAMED ON COACH SMITHERS

A huge daisy chain explosion occurred when Coach Smithers was setting up the Wrinkle City fireworks display. It is believed that Smithers was again smoking his cigar when he was setting up the fireworks in Fountain Park.

One of the aerial bombs launched and accidentally hit a row of outhouses in the park. One by one, the old privies exploded and the fires lasted into the night keeping the fire department from their celebration at Lusch's and Boobs 'N Beer.

Smithers could not be reached for comment.

FOURTH PARADE A SUCCESS

Mayor Alton J. Souhey applauded the Fourth of July Parade in downtown Wrinkle City during last week's commission meeting. "The fifteen minute parade was really nice and we even made it go around the block twice" said Souhey. "We couldn't get any Congressmen or state politicians to participate as they wuz all seekin' legal advice as to how they could cheat and still stay in office with all the scandals in Washington," he quipped.

"Also, No fireworks display again this year," said Mayor Souhey. "We had everything arranged and invested some big money ($62.95) to shoot the display" he said. "but noooooo....Smithers had to ruin it and it blew up real big again!" Souhey exclaimed. Fire Chief Red Spenders remarked "this is absolutely the last time Coach Smithers is permitted to set up the fireworks display while he's smokin' his cigar". Smithers couldn't be reached for comment as his rear end was still smoking from the blast and the rescue squad is still looking for his testicles.

SS SOUHEY LAUNCHED AGAIN TO HELP CLEAN THE LAKES AND PONDS

Mayor Alton J. Souhey christened the re-launching of the floating muck scooper "SS Souhey" at Echo Lake. The vessel was purchased by a local environmental group and donated last year to the city to help eradicate lake scum and improve fishing of carp and catfish. The boat accidentally sank in shallow water when then mayor took it out for a fishin party.

The vessel built by Bubba's Mobile Home and Marine Recreation Center in nearby Fletcher. The vessel has a control / living cabin with 40 gallon insulated beer cooler, a skimming platform and 20 hp outboard motor. The vessel will be able to be on the lake and operate 8 hours a day during the spring, summer and fall months unless it springs a leak or gets bogged down in the muck.

"We hope to get the muck out of the lake in 3 or 4 years," said Souhey. "It's a tedious process and our scoop is not that big," he said.

DOWNTOWN STREET REPAIR AND PATCHING AHEAD OF SCHEDULE

Good weather kept the downtown street repair project ahead of schedule.

"We're at least 3 weeks ahead of schedule so far due to the warm dry weather" said Malcom Skidmore, assistant project manager. "With any luck at all, we'll be able to patch up the holes by the end of August just before the gas company comes along and digs up the streets again", he said.

CITY MANAGER ANNOUNCES CUTS AND ADDITIONAL TAXES

City Manager Virgil Tinzley presented a sad financial scenario to the city commissioners in a recent meeting at City Hall.

"Due to the decreasing income taxes coming into the city, we need to make several budgetary and tax adjustments and we are on course to lose approximately $1.5 million dollars in revenue" Tinzley said. "We will need to cut several positions, out-source some services and increase taxes just to balance the budget" he stated.

The following recommendations to out-source, reduction in services and / or elimination were made:

- Building Inspection
- Septic tank inspection
- Front yard junk inspection
- Bar / Alcohol enforcement
- Police and fire departments will not work weekends
- Health department inspection
- Trash collection

Recommendations for taxation to include:

- Assessment for more than one car on blocks in the front yard.
- Assessment for more than two refrigerators on the front porch.
- Air pollution thru belching and farting tax.
- Assessment for more than 3 tires on a vehicle.

- Assessment for more than 1 Sears catalog in the outhouse.
- Assessment for more than two trips daily to the liquor store. (This tax to be applied at the store for repeat offenders.)

CITIZENS URGED TO DONATE

City Manager Virgil Tinzley informed the Wrinkle City council that pothole repair will continue do to the excessive amount. Citizens are urged to report large sections to be filled as soon as possible.

"We've filled the obvious holes in town so motorists can travel safely" said supervisor Melvin Gitt. "The object is to get to them before they become a big nuisance as they are a real SOB to fix. It seems we are fixing potholes on top of potholes" he said.

As materials expensive and supplies are getting low, Virgil Tinzley is asking all Wrinklecitians to donate used asphalt and spare cold patch to the city. These can be placed in the payment night deposit box at city hall. Pieces are to be no larger than 2 inches wide and 4 inches long. Large bags of cold patch can be delivered to the city manager's office.

HAPPY BUNZ CLOTHING OPTIONAL SOCIETY FINALLY OPENS

The Happy Bunz Clothing Optional Society is finally open!

Over 200 clothing optional members arrived at the park along with their campers, pets and money. "Things are gonna get a hoppin and floppin around here," said owner Orville Bunz. "We hope to sell a lot of sun screen, beer and wrinkle remover this summer" he said.

Daily camp activities will include co-ed jogging, bad / awful mittin, yoga for beginners, mooning as a second hobby, poisonous plant identification, how to throw darts and protect your naughty parts, naked putt-putt golf and proper sunning etiquette without burning your naughty bits.

Campers are charged $50 a day per camp site and local gawkers are charged $100 per visit.

The camp is located next to the beginner course at the Echo Pond Golf Course.

GOLF COURSE EXPANDS CONCESSION SEATING AGAIN

Toots Kowalski, Echo Pond Golf Course Pro announced to the city commission that the beginner course concession stand at Echo Pond seating has been expanded by bleacher seats to hold 100 golfers.

"Our concession seating was limited to 100 people and the expansion to a total of 200 should relieve the back-up we experienced a year ago" said Kowalski. The beginners course is a busy place due to the activity at Happy Bunz," said Toots. "The beginner's concession stand made a lot of money for us last year thanks to the Golden Boyz and we want to continue a rise in the profits!," exclaimed Kowalski. "We hope to sell a lot of drinks, binoculars and sun-blocker to the golfers," he said.

GOLF TALES FROM THE 19TH HOLE

By Toots Kowalski

Sid and Barney head out for a quick round of golf. Since they are short on time, they decide to play only 9 holes.

Sid says to Barney, "Let's say we make the time worth the while, at least for one of us, and spot $5 on the lowest score for the day." Barney agrees and they enjoy a great game.

After the 8th hole, Barney is ahead by 1 stroke, but cuts his ball into the rough on the 9th. "Help me find my ball; you look over there," he says to Sid. After 5 minutes, neither has had any luck, and since a lost ball carries a four-point penalty, Barney pulls a ball from his pocket and tosses it to the ground. "I've found my ball!" he announces triumphantly. Sid looks at him forlornly, "After all the years we've been friends, you'd cheat me on golf for a measly five bucks?" "What do you mean cheat? I found my ball sitting right here!" "And a liar, too!" Sid says with amazement. "I'll have you know I've been standing on your ball for the last five minutes!"

And that's when... By Vic Lusch

I was talking to a girl in the bar last night.

She said, "If you lost a few pounds, got a shave,

And got your hair cut, you'd look pretty good."

I said, "If I did that, I'd be talking to your friends over there."

And that's when the fight started...

I went to the pub last night, had a shot of Jack Daniels And saw a fat chick dancing on a table.

I said to her, "Nice legs."

The girl giggled and said with a smile, "Do you really think so."

I said "Definitely, most tables would have collapsed by now. "

And that's when the fight started...

AMERICAN ECONOMY UPDATE

The economy is so bad:

CEO's are now playing miniature golf.

Even people who have nothing to do with the Obama administration aren't paying their taxes.

Hotwheels and Matchbox stocks are trading higher than GM.

McDonalds is selling the 1/4 ounce.

People running for city commission aren't running because the bribes are high enough.

A truck of Americans got caught sneaking into Mexico.

The most highly-paid job in the city is now unemployment.

Wrinkle City hookers are selling rugs on the side.

Motel Six won't leave the light on.

People are requesting free subscriptions to the Wrinkle City Gazette instead of the local newspaper.

RELIGIOUSLY SPEAKING

By Pastor Geraldine Dibley

A priest walked into a barber shop in Washington, D.C. After he got his haircut, he asked how much it would be. The barber said, "No charge. I consider it a service to the Lord."

The next morning, the barber came to work and there were 12 prayer books and a thank you note from the priest in front of the door.

Later that day, a police officer came in and got his hair cut. He then asked how much it was. The barber said, "No charge. I consider it a service to the community."

The next morning, he came to work and there were a dozen donuts and a thank you note from the police officer.

Then, a Senator came in and got a haircut. When he was done he asked how much it was. The barber said, "No charge. I consider it a service to the country."

The next morning, the barber came to work and there were 12 Senators in front of the door.

Church Bulletin Bloopers

The Fasting & Prayer Conference includes meals.

The sermon this morning: Jesus Walks on the Water.

The sermon tonight: Searching for Jesus.

Ladies, don't forget the rummage sale. It's a chance to get rid of those things not worth keeping around the house. Bring your husbands.

Remember in prayer the many who are sick of our community. Smile at someone who is hard to love. Say 'Hell' to someone who doesn't care much about you.

Don't let worry kill you off - let the Church help.

Miss Charlene Mason sang 'I will not pass this way again,' giving obvious pleasure to the congregation.

For those of you who have children and don't know it, we have a nursery downstairs.

MORTAL HUMOR

BY EMERSON BALMER, JR.,
 AMIGONE FUNERAL HOME
 (NEXT TO BUBBA'S BBQ)

Stanley died in a fire and his body was burned pretty badly. The morgue needed someone to identify the body, so they sent for his two best deer hunting friends, Cooter and Gomer. The three men had always hunted and fished together and were long time members of a hunting camp.

Cooter arrived first, and when the mortician pulled back the sheet, Cooter said, 'Yup, his face is burned up pretty bad. You better roll him over.' The mortician rolled him over and Cooter said, 'Nope, ain't Stanley.'

The mortician thought this was rather strange, So he brought Gomer in to confirm the identity of the body. Gomer looked at the body and said, 'Yup, he's pretty well burnt up, Roll him over.' The mortician rolled him over and Gomer said, 'No, it ain't Stanley.'

The mortician asked, 'How can you tell?'

Gomer said, 'Well, Stanley had two arse-holes.'

'What! He had two arse-holes?' asked the mortician.

Gomer continued, "Yup, we never seen 'em, but, everybody used to say: 'There's Stanley with them two arse-holes.'"

Cooter and Gomer are both now employed in the Obama administration as planning, development, and strategy consultants.

GRUMPIN AROUND TOWN

WITH GRUMP

By Falworth T. Grump

Everywhere I go I hear people talkin' about taxes going up and up. A tax for this and a tax for that. Don't people realize there is only so much money available!

Everybody wants more, more, more but aren't willing to pay for it.

For example, we gotta pay for 3 new schools, Obamacare that has a bunch of new taxes plus new carbon and Value Added taxes. Don't they know money's tight!

I say live within your means. If you're a city, county or federal government, live within your revenue and don't spend money lavishly or be heavy in administrative costs.

The essobeez need to wake up and smell the coffee!!!

Grump out!

You Might Be From Wrinkle City If ...

1. You fish coins out of outhouses.
2. You think that potted meat on a saltine is an hors d'ouerve.
3. There is a stuffed possum anywhere in your house.

4. You consider a six-pack and a bug-zapper high-quality entertainment.
5. Fewer than half of your cars run.
6. Your mother doesn't remove the Marlboro from her lips before telling the State Trooper to kiss her ass.
7. The primary color of your car is "bondo".
8. You honestly think that women are turned on by animal noises and seductive tongue gestures.
9. You stand under the mistletoe at Christmas and wait for Granny and cousin Sue-Ellen to walk by.
10. Your family tree doesn't fork.
11. Your home has more miles on it than your car.
12. The best way to keep things cold is to leave'em in the shade.
13. If yer wife's love seat is sunk in the middle and bugged out on the sides.
14. If you have to put wide load signs on your car when yer wife's big butt is in the car.
15. You read the Wrinkle City Gazette.

beer sales were so successful, they had to dump the water out of their current water tanker and fill it with beer to supply the customers. Luckily there were no fire runs as the crew was slightly snocked.

ST. CROISSANT'S TEA SIPPING CLUB RESUMES MEETINGS

President Marvella Pennywhistle of the local "Tea" Sipping Club at St. Croissant's Church informed the Gazette that the club is continuing their monthly meetings.

This month's tea flavor will be a fermented strawberry / raspberry blend with ginseng with a touch of Viagra. "This tea should be great with our leftover donuts from Donut Sunday. Besides ...we need to perk things up a little," she said.

STREET CONSTRUCTION BEGINS...MAYBE

State Route 48 construction will begin sometime in the north end of the town and will continue through the end of the year. New utilities, street and sidewalks will be installed. During the utility construction, residents will need to construct outhouses as the sewer system will be shut down. Citizens are urged to get building permits at the town hall on Mondays and Fridays at the town hall. Permits cost $ 10 for a tin privy, $15 for a wood privy and $25 for a deluxe brick privy. Please, no corncocks in the privies!

COVINGTON UPDATE

The town manager, Melvin Ledbetter, has been in the process of organizing his office and stocking his refreshment center. "I'm trying to get things cozy as I'm going to spend a lot of time here," he said.

Ledbetter is still the acting chief of police and outhouse inspector in the village of Russia to the north.

The Covington Volunteer Fire Department manned the beer concession at the Downtown July Celebration and made a lot of money towards their new tank truck. The
