

CITY MANAGER ANNOUNCES ADDITIONAL TAXES; RAISES TOLLS ON ROUNDABOUT

City Manager Virgil Tinzley presented a sad financial scenario to the city commissioners in a recent meeting at City Hall.

“Due to the decreasing income taxes coming into the city due to redneck unemployment, we need to make several budgetary and tax adjustments and we are on course to lose approximately $1.5 million dollars in revenue” Tinzley said. “We will need to cut several positions, out-source some services and increase taxes just to balance the budget” he stated.

The new roundabout fees will be raised from 50 cents each way to 75 cents. Tour guides will be provided for the mentally or directionally challenged drivers. Maps will be 25 cents if needed.

The following recommendations to out-source, reduction in services and / or elimination were made:

- Building Inspection

- Septic tank inspection
- Street repair and sweeping
- Weed control inspection
- Front yard junk inspection
- Bar / Alcohol enforcement
- Police and fire departments will not work weekends
- Health department inspection will be increased from $10 per permit to $45.
- Trash will have to be gift wrapped and placed in the new bins to make it easier for scroungers to take.

Recommendations for taxation to include:

- Assessment for more than one car on blocks in the front yard.
- Assessment for more than two refrigerators on the front porch.
- Air pollution thru belching and pharting tax.
- Assessment for more than 3 tires on a vehicle.
- Assessment for more than 1 Sears catalog in the outhouse.

CITY TO GET NEW MURAL

Rumors come and go in Wrinkle City. (It depends on how much you're had to drink as to the truth of them. Rumor has it that our downtown is going to get a new mural depicting the roundabout and the new bike lanes.

BIG STORMS RIP AREA: OUTHOUSES DAMAGED

Wrinkle City and the surrounding area was hit by a huge storm with high winds, lightning and heavy rain. The city was deluged with 2" of rain and a record wind topping speeds of 50 miles per hour swirled through the town causing havoc.

Several citizens observed the damage first hand. "I wuz sittin there readin the Gazette and doin my daily duty when I felt the old outhouse started to rumble and shake" said Elvira Skank. "It literally scared the livin crap outa me right then and thar!" she exclaimed.

On the other side of town in Souhey's trailer park. Mirna Twitt described her experience as being in a martini: tossed and shaken with a slight twist. Twitt said her trailer held up real good, but would need more bailin' wire to keep it together. Vic Lusch told the Gazette reporter that his used beer kegs were reported to have been last seen rolling down Main Street. "I need those back ...they're worth some bucks!" exclaimed Lusch.

Local damages are estimated at $27.50.

STREET REPAIR TO CONTINUE

City Manager Virgil Tinzley informed the Wrinkle City council that street repair will continue do to the excessive amount. Citizens are urged to streets to be repaved tp City Hall.

"We've filled the obvious holes in town so motorists can travel safely and now we're workin' on paving the streets." said supervisor Melvin Gitt. "The object is to get to them before they become a big nuisance as they are a real SOB to fix.

As materials expensive and supplies are getting low, Virgil Tinzley is asking all Wrinklecitians to donate used asphalt and spare cold patch to the city. These can be placed in the payment night deposit box at city hall. Pieces are to be no larger than 2 inches wide and 4 inches long.

WRINKLE CITY HIGH SCHOOL 2018 GRADUATES!

Wrinkle City High School's 2018 graduating class consisted of Jim and John Dowlrimple who began as students in 1964 in the Wrinkle City school system. They spent 5 years in the 5th grade, 7 years in the 6th grade, then passed along due to sympathy to the junior high school where they spent 15 years. After two decades of tutoring, they advanced to the high school where they majored in shop, home ec and study hall until they graduated.

After graduation Jim wants to be an engineer and John wants to study astrofiziks or proctology which ever is easier.

HAPPY BUNZ CLOTHING OPTIONAL SOCIETY FINALLY OPENS

The Happy Bunz Clothing Optional Society is finally open for business.

"The weeds have been pulled and our rashes from the poison ivy are finally over" said owner Orville Bunz.

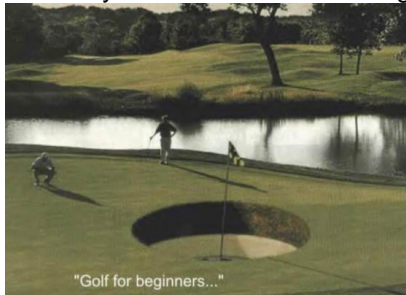

Problems arose prior to Memorial Day when a couple of the guys (Big Jim and The Twins) got into some poison ivy and the bush whacking had to be halted until the volunteers healed up. "That all-over itchin drives ya nutz!" exclaimed Orville and Fern Bunz, owners of the camp. "We wuz itchin 24 hours a day for 3 weeks" said Fern.

Daily activities will include co-ed jogging, bad / awful mittin, yoga for beginners, mooning as a second hobby, poisonous plant identification, how to throw darts and protect your naughty parts and proper sunning etiquette. The camp is located next to the beginner course at the Echo Pond Golf Course.

GOLF COURSE EXPANDS CONCESSION SEATING

Toots Kowalsi, Echo Pond Golf Course Pro announced to the city commission that the beginner course concession stand at Echo Pond seating has been expanded by bleacher seats to hold 100 golfers.

“Our concession seating was limited to 30 people and the expansion to a total of 100 should relieve the back-up we experienced a year ago” said Kowalski. The beginners course is a busy place due to the activity at Happy Bunz” said Toots. “The beginner’s concession stand made a lot of money for us last year thanks to the Golden Boyz and we want to continue a rise in the profits!” exclaimed Kowalski. “We hope to sell a lot of drinks and sun-blocker to the golfers” he said.

NEW AMISH BUGGY & HORSE WASH OPENS

Emil’s Genuine Amish Buggy Wash was opened this month after the Memorial Day Parade. The 2 bay coin operated horse and buggy wash was opened without ceremony by owner Emil Wasserman. The wash features the regular soap and water, rinse, scent machine and a blow dryer to paper any Saint’s rig. The cost is 50 cents per minute and is open from sun up to sun down Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday.

GOLF TALES FROM THE 19TH HOLE

By Toots Kowalski

Sid and Barney head out for a quick round of golf. Since they are short on time, they decide to play only 9 holes.

Sid says to Barney, "Let's say we make the time worth the while, at least for one of us, and spot $5 on the lowest score for the day." Barney agrees and they enjoy a great game.

After the 8th hole, Barney is ahead by 1 stroke, but cuts his ball into the rough on the 9th. "Help me find my ball; you look over there," he says to Sid. After 5 minutes, neither has had any luck, and since a lost ball carries a four-point penalty, Barney pulls a ball from his pocket and tosses it to the ground. "I've found my ball!" he announces triumphantly. Sid looks at him forlornly, "After all the years we've been friends, you'd cheat me on golf for a measly five bucks?" "What do you mean cheat? I found my ball sitting right here!" "And a liar, too!" Sid says with amazement. "I'll have you know I've been standing on your ball for the last five minutes!"

WRINKLE CITY STUDENTS CRAM FOR FINALS

The Wrinkle City School District has been preparing their students to retake their final graduation exams since they did so poorly last month. In an effort to help the students finally graduate, the Gazette is publishing past questions found on last year's exam:

Calculate the smallest limb diameter on a persimmon tree that will support a 10-pound possum 8 inches from the trunk.

2. Which of the following cars will rust out the quickest when placed on blocks in your front yard?
66 Ford Fairlane, 69 Chevrolet Chevelle, 64 Pontiac GTO.

3. If your uncle builds a still that operates at a capacity of 20 gallons of shine per hour, how many car radiators are necessary to condense the product?

4. A pulpwood cutter has a chain saw that operates at 2700 rpm. The density of the pine trees in a plot to be harvested is 470 per acre. The plot is 2.3 acres in size. The average tree diameter is 14 inches. How many Budweiser Tallboys will it take to cut the trees?

5. A front porch is constructed of 2x8 pine on 24-inch centers with a field rock foundation. The span is 8 feet and the porch length is 16 feet. The porch floor is 1 inch rough sawn pine. When the porch collapses, how many hound dogs will be killed?

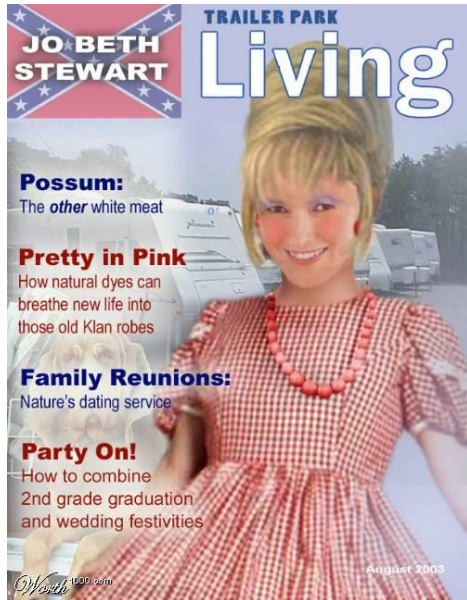

6. A man owns a Tennessee house and 3.7 acres of land in a hollow with an average slope of 15%. The man has 5 children. Can each of the children place a mobile home on the man's land?

7. At a reduction in gene pool variability rate of 7.5% per generation, how long will it take a town that has been bypassed by the interstate to breed a country-western singer?

Best of luck to the Class of 2018!

Git It At Wil-Mart

RELIGIOUSLY SPEAKING

By Pastor Geraldine Dibley

The Chief Rabbi of Israel and the Pope are in a meeting in Rome. The Rabbi notices an unusually fancy phone on a side table in the Pope's private chambers. "What is that phone for?" he asks the pontiff.

"It's my direct line to the Lord." The Rabbi is skeptical, and the Pope notices. The Holy Father insists the Rabbi try it out, and, indeed, he is connected to the Lord. The Rabbi holds a lengthy discussion with Him.

After hanging up the Rabbi says, "Thank you very much. This is great! But listen, I want to pay for my phone charges." The Pope, of course, refuses, but the Rabbi is steadfast and finally, the pontiff gives in.

He checks the counter on the phone and says, "All right! The charges were 100,000 Lira" ($56). The Chief Rabbi gladly hands over the payment.

A few months later, the Pope is in Jerusalem on an official visit. In the Chief Rabbi's chambers, he sees a phone identical to his and learns it is also a direct line to the Lord. The Pope remembers he has an urgent matter that requires divine consultation and asks if he can use the Rabbi's phone. The Rabbi gladly agrees, hands him the phone, and the Pope chats away.

After hanging up, the Pope offers to pay for the phone charges. Of course, the Chief Rabbi refuses to accept payment. After the Pope insists, the Rabbi relents and looks on the phone counter. "Shekel 50" ($0.42).

The Pope looks surprised, "Why so cheap?"

The Rabbi smiles, "Local call."

Haircut

A priest walked into a barber shop in Washington, D.C. After he got his haircut, he asked how much it would be. The barber said, "No charge. I consider it a service to the Lord."

The next morning, the barber came to work and there were 12 prayer books and a thank you note from the priest in front of the door.

Later that day, a police officer came in and got his haircut. He then asked how much it was. The barber said, "No charge. I consider it a service to the community."

The next morning, he came to work and there were a dozen donuts and a thank you note from the police officer.

Then, a Senator came in and got a haircut. When he was done he asked how much it was. The barber said, "No charge. I consider it a service to the country."

The next morning, the barber came to work and there were 12 Senators in front of the door.

Biblical Questions and Answers

Q. Who was the greatest financier in the Bible?
A. Noah. He was floating his stock while everyone else was in liquidation.

Q. What kind of man was Boaz before he got married?
A. Ruth-less.

MORTAL HUMOR

BY EMERSON BALMER, JR., AMIGONE
FUNERAL HOME
(NEXT TO BUBBA'S BBQ)

A woman in Brooklyn decided to prepare her Will and make her final requests. She told her rabbi she had two final requests. First, she wanted to be cremated, and second, she wanted her ashes scattered all over Bloomingdales.

"Why Bloomingdales?" asked the rabbi.

"Then I'll be sure my daughters visit me twice a week."

Any day above ground is a good one.
