ROUTE 36 BEAUTIFICATION TO BE RE- DONE

The Route 36 beautification project in the east end of town needs to be redone again. Last year the cold temperatures and the road salt obliterated the new landscaping. The state decided to re-plant the area with hardier plants. Louie's Landscaping of West Dayton was awarded the contract and the landscaping was re-planted and nurtured in July and August. It seems like Louie's Landscaping planted ornamental weeds instead of hardy plants. Now the place looks like West Dayton - full of weeds! Mayor Alton J. Souhey has requested the state put in a rock garden instead. Looks like it's back to the drawing boards again.

CITY STREETS ARE FINALLY BEING RE-SURFACED

Due to a tight budget from the downtown re-surfacing fiasco, the city is paving the streets with a mix of tar, fine stone, and a few hundred gallons of black paint. "This should help for a few years until we have to dig up the streets and start over" said Eddie Krinkle, street superintendent.

ELECTION CANDIDATE ROUND UP

Wannabees desiring political office are desperately looking for voters support prior to the 2014 Elections in November. Many of the candidates have been going door-to-door and bar to bar campaigning for office.

Luwanda Paunch is seeking the county treasurer's seat. "I wuz real good at middle school math and I believe I'm the best qualified for the job" she said in a recent interview.

Jimmy Joe Willit, local historian and official village idiot is running unopposed for his 5^h term.

Mayor Souhey is running for his 14th term as mayor and encourages everyone to vote Chicago style.

All of the above will be at Lusch's Bar and Grill on November 1st to meet and greet potential voters.

ANNUAL HALLOWEEN PARADE SUCCESSFUL DESPITE WIND

Despite the cold temps and a little rain, Wrinkle City held its annual Halloween Parade led by the Wrinkle City Scapegoat Band followed by kids of all ages. There were even a few floats in the mix for a change. The parade marched around MacDougle Square and then stopped at Lusch's and Boobs 'N Beer for special treats. Needless to say there was a lot of merriment going on!

AMIGONE FUNERAL HOME GIVES FREE TOURS

Emerson Balmer invited all Wrinklecitians to visit his location at 111 Dreary Lane next to Bubba's BBQ and Chitlins. The visitation and tours were held on Halloween night between 7 – midnite.

Over 175 people participated in games, prizes and finger food were provided by the staff of the funeral home to those participating. "Who's In The Coffin?" was a favorite game" said Balmer. Music was provided by the Body Snatchers.

"The kids really enjoyed the embalming / rejuvenation lab and saw a magic show performed by Abbra Cadaver aka Freddie Scissorhands Stahl" said Formalynn Balmer, the staff beautician.

HALLOWEEN PARTY COSTUME DILEMMA

A long-time Wrinkle City resident, Elwood Winzer, who is a bald man with a wooden leg gets invited to a Halloween Party. He doesn't know what costume to wear to hide his head and his leg, So he writes to a costume company to explain his problem. A few days later he received a parcel with the following note:

Dear Sir,

Please find enclosed a pirate's outfit. The spotted handkerchief will cover your bald head and, with your wooden leg, you will be just right as a pirate.

Very truly yours,
Acme Costume Co.

The man thinks this is terrible because they have emphasized his wooden leg and so he writes a letter of complaint. A week goes by and he receives another parcel and a note, which says:

Dear Sir,

Please find enclosed a monk's costume. The long robe will cover your Wooden leg and, with your bald head, you should really look the part.

Very truly yours,
Acme Costume Co.

Now the man is really upset since they have gone from emphasizing his wooden leg to emphasizing his bald head, so again he writes the Company another nasty letter of complaint. The next day he gets a small Parcel and a note, which reads:

Dear Sir,

We have TRIED our very BEST. Please find enclosed a bottle of molasses and a bag of crushed nuts. Pour the molasses over your bald head, pat on crushed nuts, stick your Wooden Leg up your butt and go as a caramel apple.

Very truly yours,
Acme Costume Co

HALLOWEEN PRANK LEAVES POLICE WITHOUT A POTTY...AGAIN

Local teens played a traditional Halloween prank on the local constabulary by heisting their only porcelain pot from inside the police station again at City Hall for the 6th straight year. Chief Barney "One Bullitt" McGinty estimates the theft occurred when the police were providing security at the Halloween parade at MacDougle Square. "We're going to get to the bottom of this as soon as possible" said McGinty. "Next thing you know they'll be stealing our toilet paper," he said.

Local members of the Huntin' and Game Klub provided the police with a homemade "camper's friend" complete with a complimentary roll of toilet paper to use while they can find theirs. "It's our duty to help others in need" said Herman Smiff, President of the club.

McGinty was the first to use it as he just couldn't wait!

BUBBA'S BIG BBQ IN TROUBLE AGAIN

Bubba's Big BBQ (next to Amigone Funeral Home) is in trouble again. This time it's not a fire.

It seems Bubba accidentally received some magical hemp (wacky tobacky) in his hickory wood used for slow cooking his

BBQ again. "The smoke comin' outa da chimney went all over the downtown due to a thermal inversion the night of the big Halloween Parade," said Bubba It was so bad, everyone got a real buzz on and the parade staggered all over town with the high school band playing tunes from the Moody Blues, Styx, The Beatles Magical Mystery Tour and Mellow Yellow. The pumpkin queen was found dancing in the fountain in front of city hall semi-naked in an orange over-sized thong while the parade judges were giving awards for anything that walked or floated by the reviewing stand.

Bubba is suing the supplier of the wood while parade goers were trying to get the supplier's address so they could buy some of his "magical" logs for themselves.

IT'S ELECTION TIME AGAIN! POLITICIANS WANTING TO STEAL YOUR VOTE

Hang on to your family and wallets as it's national, local and state election time and the politicians are out to promise you everything and then rid you of your hard-earned money during the current depression.

Study the issues closely and make up your own mind! Remember: Politicians and diapers should be changed frequently for the same reason!

SCAPEGOAT SPORTS...

The Wrinkle City Scapegoats football team plays better, but still ends with a 3-7 record. Girls soccer team earns more revenue than football during the 2013 season. Scapegoat Spankie Volleyball team has a successful season and plays in the district tournament.

SCAPEGOAT BASKETBALL TEAM PLAYS PRANK ON PRINCIPAL

Wrinkle City Scapegoat basketball seniors played a prank....they let three goats loose inside the school.

But before turning them loose, they painted numbers on the sides of the goats: 1, 2, and 4.

The principal spent most of the day looking for No. 3.....

WRINKLE CITY GOLF PRO REPORTS TO COMMISSION

Local golf Pro Wrinkle City Golf Course Pro Wally "Toots" Kowalski reported to the commission the golf course was being prepped for winter and a new supply of orange glow-in-the-dark golf balls have been ordered for winter golf. "We'll also sell hand and ball warmers too!" exclaimed Kowalski.

"Concerning revenues, we did real good this year due to the Happy Bunz nudist colony next to the beginners course." Toots said. "Income exceeded $90,500.33" he said. "As for the 33 cents, we think it was found in the bottom of the spittoon so we added it in" he said.

THE OLD DUFFER SPEAKS...

By Toots Kowalski

From time to time, I hear good jokes from some of the member of the Golden Gang that frequent the clubhouse. This one comes from Judge Cheatham:

A golfer hooks his drive into the woods to the left of the fairway. While looking for his ball he happens upon a leprechaun. The leprechaun asks him, "How's your round of golf is going?". The golfer admits, "I'm having one of my worst rounds ever." The leprechaun zaps the golfer with a magic spell. The leprechaun then asks, "How's your sex life doing?" The golfer replies, "In all honesty, I haven't had any in years." So, the leprechaun zaps him with another spell. The golfer goes on to have his best round ever.

Two months later the golfer is playing the same course. He checks to see if the leprechaun is still around. Sure enough, he spots him in the woods. The leprechaun asks, "How's how has your golf been lately?" The golfer responds with pride, "I'm playing the best golf of my life." The leprechaun then asks, "How's your sex life doing?" The golfer replies happily, "I've been getting some almost every other week." The leprechaun seemed dismayed and said, "Boy, I would have thought you would be doing much better than that."

The golfer replied, "Well for a priest, from a small town, with no car, every other week isn't so bad."

"My name is Helda, and I have a tendency to fly off the handle."

MORTAL HUMOR ...

By Emerson Balmer, Amigone Funeral Services

Estate planning

Tom was a single guy living at home with his father and working in the family business. When he found out he was going to inherit a fortune once his sickly father died, he decided he needed a wife with which to share his fortune.

One evening at an investment meeting, he spotted the most beautiful woman he had ever seen. Her natural beauty took his breath away.

"I may look like just an ordinary man," he said to her, "but in just a few years, my father will die, and I'll inherit 20 million dollars."

Impressed, the woman obtained his business card.

Three days later, she became his stepmother.

Women are so much better at estate planning than men.

RELIGIOUS HUMOR

By Pastor Geraldine Dibley

A few minutes before the church services started, the congregation were sitting in their pews and talking.

Pastor's false teeth

A Pastor goes to the dentist for a set of false teeth. The first Sunday after he gets his new teeth, he talks for only eight minutes. The second Sunday, he talks for only ten minutes. The following Sunday, he talks for 2 hours and 48 minutes.

The congregation had to mob him to get him down from the pulpit and they asked him what happened. The Pastor explains the first Sunday his gums hurt so bad he couldn't talk for more than 8 minutes. The second Sunday his gums hurt too much to talk for more than 10 minutes. But, the third Sunday, he put his wife's teeth in by mistake and he couldn't shut up...

Drunk in the confessional

A drunken man staggers in to a Catholic church and sits down in a confession box and says nothing. The bewildered priest cough to attract his attention, but still the man says nothing.

The priest then knocks on the wall three times in a final attempt to get the man to speak.

Finally, the drunk replies, "No use knocking, there's no paper in this one either."

PASTOR BOB SPEAKS ...

Here at the Church of the Covered Dish we welcome people into our small but friendly parish. Services are on Wednesdays and Sundays with a seven bean potluck supper on Friday nights.

Please pray for fellow parishioner Rick and keep him in your thoughts as he made a grievous err in his ways.

You see Rick was in trouble. He forgot his wedding anniversary.

His wife was really angry. She told him "Tomorrow morning, I expect to find a gift in the driveway that goes from 0 to 200 in less than 10seconds, AND IT BETTER BE THERE!!"

The next morning Rick got up early and left for work. When his wife woke up she looked out the window and saw a gift-wrapped box in the middle of the driveway.

Confused, the wife put on her robe and ran out to the driveway.

She unwrapped and opened the package. Inside she found a brand new bathroom scale.

Rick's memorial service will be at the Amigone Funeral Home this Friday at 7:00 PM. Please pray for him.

Go in peace!

GRUMPIN AROUND TOWN

WITH GRUMP

By Falworth T. Grump

I recently spent $6,500 on a young registered Black Angus bull.

I put him out with the herd but he just ate grass and wouldn't even look at a cow.

I was beginning to think I had paid more for that bull than he was worth.

Anyhow, I had the Vet come and have a look at him.

He said the bull was very healthy, but possibly just a little young, so he gave me some pills to feed him once per day.

The bull started to service the cows within two days, all my cows! He even broke through the fence and bred with all of my neighbor's cows!

He's like a machine!

I don't know what was in the pills the Vet gave him.... but they kind of taste like peppermint.
