NEW ROUNDABOUT ALMOST COMPLETE (KIND SORTA)

The new traffic round about is almost complete after several difficulties with the project. The latest snafu was when the Dyslexia Brothers got the bid to install the safety line painting. It seems they copied the English traffic system and painted the lines backwards. The lanes will need to be ground down and new lines painted. Will this mess ever cease!

ROUTE 36 BRIDGE REPAIR AND BIKE PATH PROJECT STILL A MESS

Additional repairs and paving for the bikeway has significantly narrowed the lanes of travel for cars and bikes. A new divider strip will be added to protect the bikers.

ANNUAL HALLOWEEN PARADE SUCCESSFUL DESPITE WIND

Despite the strong wind from hurricane Sandy, Wrinkle City held its annual Halloween Parade led by the Wrinkle City Scapegoat Band followed by kids of all ages. The parade stopped at Lusch's and Boobs 'N Beer for special treats.

AMIGONE FUNERAL HOME GIVES FREE TOURS

Emerson Balmer invited all Wrinklecitians to visit his location at 111 Dreary Lane next to Bubba's BBQ and Chitlins. The visitation and tours were held on Halloween night between 7 – midnite.

Over 175 people participated in games, prizes and finger food were provided by the staff of the funeral home to those participating. "Who's In The Coffin?" was a favorite game" said Balmer. Music was provided by the Body Snatchers.

"The kids really enjoyed the embalming / rejuvenation lab and saw a magic show performed by Abbra Cadaver aka Freddie Scissorhands Stahl" said Formalynn Balmer, the staff beautician.

HALLOWEEN PRANK LEAVES POLICE WITHOUT A POTTY...AGAIN

Local teens played a traditional Halloween prank on the local constabulary by heisting their only porcelain pot from inside the police station again at City Hall for the 5th straight year. Chief Barney "One Bullitt" McGinty estimates the theft occurred when the police were providing security at the gala celebration at the newly renamed McCullouch Square. "We're going to get to the bottom of this as soon as possible" said McGinty. "Next thing you know they'll be stealing our toilet paper," he said.

Local members of the Huntin' and Game Klub provided the police with a homemade "camper's friend" complete with a complimentary roll of toilet paper to use while they can find theirs. "It's our duty to help others in need" said

Herman Smiff, President of the club.

McGinty was the first to use it as he just couldn't wait!

BUBBA'S BIG BBQ IN TROUBLE AGAIN

Bubba's Big BBQ (next to Amigone Funeral Home) is in trouble again. This time it's not a fire.

This time it's not a fire.

It seems Bubba accidentally received some magical hemp (wacky tobacky) in his hickory wood used for slow cooking his BBQ again. "The smoke comin' outa da chimney went all over the downtown due to a thermal inversion the night of the big Halloween Parade," said Bubba It was so bad, everyone got a real buzz on and the parade staggered all over town with the high school band playing tunes from the Moody Blues, Styx, The Beatles Magical Mystery Tour and Mellow Yellow. The pumpkin queen was found dancing in the fountain in front of city hall semi-naked in an orange over-sized thong while the parade judges were giving awards for anything that walked or floated by the reviewing stand.

Bubba is suing the supplier of the wood while parade goers were trying to get the supplier's address so they could buy some of his "magical" logs for themselves.

MAYOR SOUHEY CAMPAIGNS FOR RE-ELECTION TO 16TH TERM

Incumbent Alton J. Souhey has been glad-handing the local residences with flyers and yard signs to encourage people to re-elect him as mayor of Wrinkle City.

"This year's election is getting more expensive as the dollar's not worth a dang and the price of booze and bribes are up!" exclaimed Souhey after a recent press conference. "I'll be buyin the first round at Lusch's Meet The Politician Nite on November 4th" he said.

ELECTION CANDIDATE ROUND UP

Wannabees desiring political office are desperately looking for voters support prior to the 2013 Elections in November. Many of the candidates have been going door-to-door and bar to bar campaigning for office.

Luwanda Paunch is seeking the county treasurer's seat. "I wuz real good at middle school math and I believe I'm the best qualified for the job" she said in a recent interview.

Jimmy Joe Willit, local historian and official village idiot is running unopposed for his 8th term.

All of the above will be at Lusch's Bar and Grill on November 1st to meet and greet potential voters.

WRINKLE CITY GOLF PRO REPORTS TO COMMISSION

Local golf Pro Wrinkle City Golf Course Pro Wally "Toots" Kowalski reported to the commission the golf course was being prepped for winter and a new supply of orange glow-in-the- dark golf balls have been ordered for winter golf. "We'll also sell hand and ball warmers too!" exclaimed Kowalski.

"Concerning revenues we did real good this year due to the Happy Bunz nudist colony next to the beginners course." Toots said. "Income exceeded $82,000.33" he said. "As for the 33 cents, we think it was found in the bottom of the spittoon so we added it in" he said.

THE OLD DUFFER SPEAKS...

By Toots Kowalski

From time to time, I hear good jokes from some of the member of the Golden Gang that frequent the clubhouse. This one comes from Judge Cheatham:

A golfer hooks his drive into the woods to the left of the fairway. While looking for his ball he happens upon a leprechaun. The leprechaun asks him, "How's your round of golf is going?". The golfer admits, "I'm having one of my worst rounds ever." The leprechaun zaps the golfer with a magic spell. The leprechaun then asks, "How's your sex life doing?" The golfer replies, "In all honesty, I haven't had any in years." So, the leprechaun zaps him with another spell. The golfer goes on to have his best round ever.

Two months later the golfer is playing the same course. He checks to see if the leprechaun is still around. Sure enough, he spots him in the woods. The leprechaun asks, "How's how has your golf been lately?" The golfer responds with pride, "I'm playing the best golf of my life." The leprechaun then asks, "How's your sex life doing?" The golfer replies happily, "I've been getting some almost every other week." The leprechaun seemed dismayed and said, "Boy, I would have thought you would be doing much better than that."

The golfer replied, "Well for a priest, from a small town, with no car, every other week isn't so bad."

LAFFIN AT THE LAW

By Dewy Cheatham & Howe LPA

A lawyer was standing in a long line to get tickets for a play. Suddenly, he felt the hands of the man behind him, kneading into his back. He turned around and gave the man a stern look, and the kneading stopped. But a few minutes later, he again felt the man's hands on his back "Excuse me," the lawyer asked, "But why are you touching my back?" "I'm a chiropractor," the man replied, "and I sometimes I can't keep myself from practicing my skills."

"Get control of yourself," the lawyer shot back. "I'm an attorney, and you don't see me shagging the guy in front of me, do you?"

MORTAL HUMOR ...

By Emerson Balmer, Amigone Funeral Services

Estate planning

Tom was a single guy living at home with his father and working in the family business. When he found out he was going to inherit a fortune once his sickly father died, he decided he needed a wife with which to share his fortune.

One evening at an investment meeting, he spotted the most beautiful woman he had ever seen. Her natural beauty took his breath away.

"I may look like just an ordinary man," he said to her, "but in just a few years, my father will die, and I'll inherit 20 million dollars."

Impressed, the woman obtained his business card.

Three days later, she became his stepmother.

Women are so much better at estate planning than men.

The memorial stone

A woman's husband died. He had only $20,000 to his name. After everything was done at the funeral home and cemetery, she told her closest friend that there was no money left.

The friend says, "How can that be? You told me he still had $20,000 a few days before he died. How could you be broke?"

The widow says, "Well, the funeral home cost $6,000. And of course, I made the obligatory donation to the church, so that was another $2,000. The rest went for the memorial stone."

The friend says, "$12,000 for the memorial stone? My Goodness, how big is it?"

Extending her left hand, the widow says, "Three carats."

RELIGIOUS HUMOR

By Pastor Geraldine Dibley

A few minutes before the church services started, the congregation were sitting in their pews and talking.

Suddenly, Satan appeared at the front of the church.....

Everyone started screaming and running for the front entrance, trampling each other in a frantic effort to get away from evil incarnate. Soon the church was empty except for one elderly gentleman who sat calmly in his pew without moving, seemingly oblivious to the fact that God's ultimate enemy was in his presence. So Satan walked up to the man and said, 'Do you know who I am?' The man replied, 'Yep, sure do. "Aren't you afraid of me?' Satan asked. 'Nope, sure ain't.' said the man. 'Don't you realize I can kill you with one word?' asked Satan. 'Don't doubt it for a minute,' returned the old man, in an even tone. 'Did you know that I can cause you profound, horrifying AGONY for all eternity?' persisted Satan. 'Yep,' was the calm reply. 'And you are still not afraid?' asked Satan. 'Nope,' said the old man More than a little perturbed, Satan asked, 'Why aren't you afraid of me?'

The man calmly replied, 'Been married to your sister for 48 years.'

Drunk in the confessional

A drunken man staggers in to a Catholic church and sits down in a confession box and says nothing. The bewildered priest cough to attract his attention, but still the man says nothing.

The priest then knocks on the wall three times in a final attempt to get the man to speak.

Finally, the drunk replies, "No use knocking, there's no paper in this one either."

PASTOR BOB SPEAKS ...

Here at the Church of the Covered Dish we welcome people into our small but friendly parish. Services are on Wednesdays and Sundays with a seven bean potluck supper on Friday nights.

Please pray for fellow parishioner Rick and keep him in your thoughts as he made a grievous err in his ways.

You see Rick was in trouble. He forgot his wedding anniversary.

His wife was really angry. She told him "Tomorrow morning, I expect to find a gift in the driveway that goes from 0 to 200 in less than 10seconds, AND IT BETTER BE THERE!!"

The next morning Rick got up early and left for work. When his wife woke up she looked out the window and saw a gift-wrapped box in the middle of the driveway.

Confused, the wife put on her robe and ran out to the driveway.

She unwrapped and opened the package. Inside she found a brand new bathroom scale.

Rick's memorial service will be at the Amigone Funeral Home this Friday at 7:00 PM. Please pray for him.

Go in peace!

THE YOUNG AND THE OLD

A young doctor had moved out to a small community to replace a doctor who was retiring. The older gent suggested the young one accompany him on his rounds so the community could become used to a new doctor.

At the first house a woman complained, "I've been a little sick to my stomach." The older doctor said, "Well, you've probably been overdoing the fresh fruit. Why not cut back on the amount you've been eating and see if that does the trick?"

As they left the younger man said, "You didn't even examine that woman. How'd you come to your diagnosis so quickly?"

"I didn't have to. You noticed I dropped my stethoscope on the floor in there? When I bent over to pick it up, I noticed a half dozen banana peels in the trash. That was what was probably making her sick."

"Huh," the younger doctor said, "Pretty clever. I think I'll try that at the next house."

Arriving at the next house, they spent several minutes talking with an elderly woman. She complained that she just didn't have the energy she once did. "I'm feeling terribly run down lately."

"You've probably been doing too much work for the church," the younger doctor told her. "Perhaps you should cut back a bit and see if that helps."

As they left, the elder doc said, "Your diagnosis is almost certainly correct, but how did you arrive at it?"

"Well, just like you at the last house, I dropped my stethoscope. When I bent down to retrieve it, I noticed the lawnboy under the bed."

WILL THERE BE ANOTHER WRINKLE CITY GAZETTE???

WHO KNOWS!

I recently spent $6,500 on a young registered Black Angus bull.

I put him out with the herd but he just ate grass and wouldn't even look at a cow.

I was beginning to think I had paid more for that bull than he was worth.

Anyhow, I had the Vet come and have a look at him.

He said the bull was very healthy, but possibly just a little young, so he gave me some pills to feed him once per day.

The bull started to service the cows within two days, all my cows! He even broke through the fence and bred with all of my neighbor's cows!

He's like a machine!

I don't know what was in the pills the Vet gave him....

but they kind of taste like peppermint.
