

COMMISSIONERS SERVED RECALL PETITIONS

Members of People United Together (PUNT) served recall petitions to members of the city commission at last night's scheduled meeting. Chairman Delbert Parwith said the recall petitions were being issued due to the fact the members were having "special meetings" at Boobs "N Beer after their regular meeting at Lusch's Bar and Grill. Additionally, according to PUNT, the city commissioners have not been spending public funds according to Hoyle and putting the city further into debt.

"The renovation of the Old Hotel for over $20 million and payin' for restaurant equipment didn't sit pretty with us citizens" said Parwith. "The streets is a goin to hades and we put over $20 million in an old pidgeon dung infested building" he said.

Mayor Alton J. Souhey indicated he would be willing to talk to members of PUNT in his office before the petitions would be formally filed.

The commissioners could not be reached for comment. However, a spokesperson from the county election commission commented that if the petitioners have signatures like I. M. Agit, Harry Backside or Stu Pidd the petitions would be thrown out like last time.

FALL ODORS INVADE CITY HALL

City workers in City Hall had to unexpectedly shut their windows for a couple of days and use copious amounts of air spray to make their offices breathable.

Lester Smidt was spreading manure on his east side farm when the wind blew in from east to west for three days inundating Wrinkle City with a strong stench of hooey. "The odor was so strong, some workers had to take a forced vacation from the city" said City Clerk Louise Longinkrak.

Local restaurants experienced at huge downturn in sales during the three days.

STRAY BALLOON KNOCKS OVER POR-TO-LETS AT AMERICAN OUTHOUSE FESTIVAL

Lance Hurtzell had problems landing his hot air balloon at the American Outhouse Festival and knocked over four por-to-lets.

Freddie Stahlbert was inside one of the units when he heard a big "whump" and then everything went upside down. "I thought the fat lady in the one next to me must have had a bad case of gas" he said.

No one was hurt. The Wrinkle City Fire Department and the Sanitation Departments was called in to hose down the victims and clean up the mess.

PROBLEMS WITH NEW TURF

Wrinkle City High School Coach Smithers had notified the Superintendent Jimonetta Carter that the new artificial carpet has problems.

"Some of the glue to hold down the carpet seeped through and stuck to our players shoes keeping them from scoring touchdowns" said Smithers after their 47-0 loss to Fairwood and the 28-6 loss to New Lebnen "The new carpet is neat, but it's a real shocker during dry weather," It holds static electricity and can create a problem when players touch each other. "It looks like WilMart gave us some of that Chinese static cling stuff that doesn't work!" exclaimed Smithers.

SCHITZ INDUSTRIES GREAT AMERICAN OUTHOUSE FESTIVAL A SUCCESS!

Schitz Industries sponsored the first ever Great American Outhouse Festival in beautiful downtown Wrinkle City on September 25th.

On display were old privies up to the new portolets of today. "The object was to promote the rich outhouse heritage and manufacturing of Schitz Industries in Wrinkle City and its contribution to the world" said Louis T. Crapper, CEO.

"We had events such as the "Undie 500 Underwear Race, Outhouses of the Rich and Famous Review, the Great Potty Race among other events for the public" said Crapper. "A large display of porto-poties and other devices was on display to the general public.

Crowds gathered to watch the Executive potty races on the makeshift race track in front of City Hall. Louis Crapper came in first followed by Mayor Souhey.

WRINKLE CITY SCHOOLS GET LESS THAN "LESS THAN EFFECTIVE" STATE RATING

Last month it was stated that Superintendent Jimonetta Carter received notification from the State Board of Education that Wrinkle City Schools have received a "Less Than Effective" rating as compared to last year's Effective Rating. Actually, it was a less than the "Less Than Effective State Rating" meaning the school system is in real deep hooley. It must be the idiots who can't read or do math in the 5th grade and the teen pregnancies that are dragin' us down" said Carter in her previous statement. In her new statement she added it must have been the class in junior high that was teaching distilling.

Superintendent Carter expressed interest in having the board re-hire Silliman Learning and AA to tutor the students and teachers. The board agreed and a contract will be let within 30 days.

HAPPY BUNZ CLOTHING OPTIONAL SOCIETY CLOSED FOR SEASON

The Happy Bunz Clothing Optional Society opened in late June and as temperatures climbed, business increased and increased and increased. "Now it's time to pack up and move south where we can stay warm" said Fern Butz.

"We averaged 900 campers a day and at 50 bucks a crack, we did quite well" said owner Orville Bunz.

See y'all next year!

GOLF COURSE ATTENDANCE BOOMING

Toots Kowalski, Echo Pond Golf Course Pro announced to the city commission that the beginner course concession stand at Echo Pond made a lot of money this year despite the slow Tee Times. "We often had a 2 hour wait to get on the tees" said Kowalski. "Those dang nudist next door slowed things way down" he said.

Kowalski updated the city commission on the plans to have more Fall golf outings and the plans for a Frisbee course next year.

Is he a good dentist?

A couple of old guys were golfing when one said he was going to Dr. Taylor for a new set of dentures in the morning.

His friend remarked that he had gone to the same dentist a few years before. "Is that so?" the first said. "Did he do a good job?"

"Well, I was on the course yesterday when the fellow on the ninth hole hooked a shot," he said. "The ball must have been going 200 mph when it hit me in the stomach.

That," he added, "was the first time in two years my teeth didn't hurt."

I want to buy a golf ball

A blonde golfer goes into the pro shop and looks around frowning.

Finally the pro asks her what she wants. "I can't find any green golf balls," the blonde golfer complains.

The pro looks all over the shop, and through all the catalogs, and finally calls the manufacturers and determines that sure enough, there are no green golf balls.

As the blonde golfer walks out the door in disgust, the pro asks her, "Before you go, could you tell me why you want green golf balls?"

"Well obviously, because they would be so much easier to find in the sand traps!"

THE RETIRED PREACHER

A preacher retired and moved to the country to enjoy life and practice his hobby of yard work. Needing a lawn mower, he headed into town to buy one. On the way he saw a sign advertising a lawn mower for sale. He stopped at the house and a young lad came out to greet him.

The preacher asked about the lawn mower and the kid said it was behind the house. The two went to look at the lawn mower. The engine was sputtering along at idle speed. The preacher increased the speed of the engine and mowed a few strips. Satisfied that the mower would do the job they settled on a price of $25.00.

Later in the day, the young lad was riding his bicycle when he spied the preacher pulling on the engine starter rope. The kid stopped and watched for a couple of minutes. He asked, "What's wrong?"

The reply came, "I can't get this mower started. Do you know how?"

The kid said, "Yep."

"Well, how do you do it? Tell me!", the preacher yelled.

The kid replied, "You have to cuss it."

The preacher rose up indignantly. "Now you listen here. I am a preacher and if I ever did cuss, not saying I have, I've forgotten how to do it after all these years."

With a wise look on his face well beyond his years, the kid said, "Preacher, you keep on pulling that rope and it'll all come back to ya."

NEW FROM SCHITZ INDUSTRIES!

Louis T. Crapper, CEO of Schitz Industries announced the development of a new two seat multi-roll mobile dump station. The cost will be approximately $1,000 and runs on bean / cauliflower methane. The unit will be called "The Fart'N Go" and will be available by mid 2011.

Schitz Industries also announced a new drinking bowl for sale by its pet division called the Pooch Pal. The device is a small drinking bowl that automatically dispenses water for your canine or feline pet. The Pooch Pal will be sold nationally by WilMart for $35.00 excluding bottled water.

MORTAL HUMOR

BY EMERSON BALMER, JR.,
AMIGONE FUNERAL HOME
(NEXT TO BUBBA'S BBQ)

An old man is lying on his deathbed with his children, grandchildren, and older great-grandchildren all around, teary-eyed at the approaching finale of a very long and productive life. The old man is in a terminal coma, and the doctors have confirmed that the waiting will be over within the next twenty-four hours. Suddenly, the old man opens his eyes and croaks: "I must be dreaming of heaven! I smell your grandmother's strudel!"

"No, grandfather, you are not dreaming. Grandmother is baking strudel now."

"I know I will never have another taste of her delicious strudel after this one. Could you please go down and get me a piece?", the old man begs with what is left of his final breath.

One of the grandchildren is immediately dispatched to honor the old man's last request. After a long time, he returns empty-handed.

"Did you bring me one last piece of your grandmother's delicious strudel?" the old man plaintively queries.

"I'm very sorry, grandfather, but she says it's for the funeral."

Workholic

A workholic man spends every second of the day trying to make more money than Bill Gates.

He makes his wife promise to bury him with all his money when the time comes.

One given Monday, before his "Week beginning meeting" he dies from a stroke produced by his high levels of cholesterol, stress, and hypertension.

During the funeral, the widow approaches and puts a small box next to the coffin. Her mother asks if she had been so silly to bury all the money and she replies:

"I'm Christian, and therefore I had to keep my promise. I took all his money and put it in my account. Then I wrote a check for the exact quantity, which is inside the box. If he can cash the check in the after word, the money is his to spend".

GRUMPIN AROUND TOWN

WITH GRUMP

By Falworth T. Grump

The recent recall petitions really shook everyone up. It's about time somebody took the commission by the ballz and made notice of the fact the city is run by the citizens.

The essobeez need to wake up and smell the coffee!!!

(Now...if they could only pay off the election commission!)

Grump out!

BEDPAN ALLEY

A lighter side of medical humor

By Dr. I. M. Nutz

Dr. Jones goes to the retirement home for his monthly rounds. He sees Joe and asks him, "Joe, how much is three times three?" Joe responds "59." He goes over to Tom and asks, "Tom, how much is three times three?" Tom responds, "Wednesday." He finally goes over to John and asks, "John, how much is three times three?" "NINE" replies John. "That's right ...now how did you come to that answer?" "It was easy...I just subtracted 59 from Wednesday!

THE BURST PIPE

A pipe burst in a doctor's house. He called a plumber. The plumber arrived, unpacked his tools, did mysterious plumber-type things for a while, and handed the doctor a bill for $600.

The doctor exclaimed, "This is ridiculous! I don't even make that much as a doctor!"

The plumber waited for him to finish and quietly said, "Neither did I when I was a doctor."

IN THE ASYLUM

A man who thought he was John the Baptist was disturbing the neighborhood, so for public safety, he was committed.

He was put in a room with another crazy, and immediately began his routine, "I am John The Baptist! Jesus Christ has sent me!"

The other guy looked at him and declared, "I did not!"

Medical Chart Bloopers

- I have suggested that he loosen his pants before standing, and then, when he stands with the help of his wife, they should fall to the floor.
- The patient is tearful and crying constantly. She also appears to be depressed.
- Discharge status: Alive but without permission.
- The patient will need disposition, and therefore we will get Dr. Blank to dispose of him.

- Healthy-appearing, decrepit 69 year old male, mentally alert but forgetful.
- The patient has no past history of suicides.
- The patient expired on the floor uneventfully.
- Patient has left his white blood cells at another hospital.
- Patient was becoming more demented with urinary frequency.
- The patient's past medical history has been remarkably insignificant with only a 40 pound weight gain in the past three days.
