LOCAL AMISH OKTOBERFEST IN FULL SWING

Local Amish finished selling their harvested goods at the Farmer's Market and celebrated as the Oktoberfest began at Old Farmer's Park north of town. The park featured the traditional apple butter churning race, a homemade scooter race for the youngins, the beard growing contest, the Amish stare down contest, the ugly beard trimming contest, the one man buggy pulling contest and the traditional Amish NASCAR 500 at the park's racetrack.

After the event, the faithful went to Lusch's Bar and Grille to eat and watch "Cops" on the big screen TV.

Brethren get in free; English cost is $10.

IT'S HOOEY TOSSIN TIME!!!

The local farmers will be clearing their fields and tossing their manure for the next week.

Everyone is urged to shut their windows for a couple of days and use copious amounts of air spray to make their offices and homes breathable 'cause it's hooey tossin time!

The city commission will reconvene their scheduled weekly meeting at city hall and moved it to Big Al's Tattoo Parlor in Covington.

The sources of the stench will be Lester Smidt and Daryl Pimmzler who own farms on the east side of town. Both were spreading manure on their east side farms when the wind blew in from east to west for three days inundating Wrinkle City with a strong stench of hooey.

When interviewed by the WCG reporter, Smidt said "When you have a lot of dairy cattle and sheep you get a lot of hooey. The stuff was a gettin so high I had to fire up the old turd hearse and spread it on my fields." "Besides, my allergies are firin up and I can t smell a dadbloomin thing" he said.

Local restaurants are expected experience a huge downturn in sales during the next week as most citizens will have to eat in neighboring cities.

US 36 / 25 A NORTH BEAUTIFICATION CONSTRUCTION STILL PLUGGIN ALONG

Good weather has helped the US 36 street beautification and SR 25 A north lane expansion projects are moving along. "The lanes on both roads are skrunched up a little so the workmen have room to tar up the roadways," sai Malcom Skidmore, assistant project manager. "We've been able to work longer hours to move the project along so we have at least an extra month to goof off" he said. "It is a relief to get the road open as we gave out 99 tickets for people driving on the roadway while it was under construction!" exclaimed Chief Barney "One Bullit" McGinty. "We couldn't afford to give out a new toaster on the 100th ticket," he said.

HAPPY BUNZ CLOTHING OPTIONAL SOCIETY CLOSED FOR SEASON

The Happy Bunz Clothing Optional Society opened in late June and as temperatures climbed, business increased and increased and increased. "Now it's time to pack up and move south where we can stay warm" said Fern Butz.

"We averaged 2900 campers a day and at 50 bucks a crack, we did quite well," said owner Orville Bunz.

SCHITZ INDUSTRIES GREAT AMERICAN OUTHOUSE FESTIVAL A SUCCESS!

Schitz Industries sponsored the second Great American Outhouse Festival in beautiful downtown Wrinkle City on September 29th.

On display were old privies up to the new port-o-lets of today." The object was to promote the rich outhouse heritage and manufacturing of Schitz Industries in Wrinkle City and its contribution to the world" said Louis T. Crapper, CEO.

"We had events such as the "Undie 500 Underwear Race, Outhouses of the Rich and Famous Review, the Great Potty Race among other events for the public" said Crapper. "A large display of porto-poties and other devices was on display to the general public.

Crowds gathered to watch the Executive potty races on the makeshift race track in front of City Hall. Louis Crapper came in first followed by Mayor Souhey.

GOLF COURSE ATTENDANCE BOOMING

Toots Kowalski, Echo Pond Golf Course Pro announced to the city commission that the beginner course concession stand at Echo Pond made a lot of money this year despite the slow Tee

Times. "We often had a 3 hour wait to get on the tees" said Kowalski. "Those dang nudists next door slowed things way down" he said. "However, they did spend at least $100 bucks a day per golfer in the shop and concession area buying sun screen, calamine lotion, pop, folding chairs and umbrellas as well as binoculars.

I want to buy a golf ball

A blonde golfer goes into the pro shop and looks around frowning. Finally the pro asks her what she wants. "I can't find any green golf balls," the blonde golfer complains.

The pro looks all over the shop, and through all the catalogs, and finally calls the manufacturers and determines that sure enough, there are no green golf balls.

As the blonde golfer walks out the door in disgust, the pro asks her, "Before you go, could you tell me why you want green golf balls?"

"Well obviously, because they would be so much easier to find in the sand traps!"

RELIGIOUSLY SPEAKING

By Pastor Geraldine Dibley

THE RETIRED PREACHER

A preacher retired and moved to the country to enjoy life and practice his hobby of yard work. Needing a lawn mower, he headed into town to buy one. On the way he saw a sign advertising a lawn mower for sale. He stopped at the house and a young lad came out to greet him.

The preacher asked about the lawn mower and the kid said it was behind the house. The two went to look at the lawn mower. The engine was sputtering along at idle speed. The preacher increased the speed of the engine and mowed a few strips. Satisfied that the mower would do the job they settled on a price of $25.00.

Later in the day, the young lad was riding his bicycle when he spied the preacher pulling on the engine starter rope. The kid stopped and watched for a couple of minutes. He asked, "What's wrong?"

The reply came, "I can't get this mower started. Do you know how?"

The kid said, "Yep."

"Well, how do you do it? Tell me!", the preacher yelled.

The kid replied, "You have to cuss it."

The preacher rose up indignantly. "Now you listen here. I am a preacher and if I ever did cuss, not saying I have, I've forgotten how to do it after all these years."

With a wise look on his face well beyond his years, the kid said, "Preacher, you keep on pulling that rope and it'll all come back to ya."

MORTAL HUMOR

BY EMERSON BALMER, JR.,
AMIGONE FUNERAL HOME
(NEXT TO BUBBA'S BBQ)

Workoholic

A workoholic man spends every second of the day trying to make more money than Bill Gates.

He makes his wife promise to bury him with all his money when the time comes.

One given Monday, before his "Week beginning meeting" he dies from a stroke produced by his high levels of cholesterol, stress, and hypertension.

During the funeral, the widow approaches and puts a small box next to the coffin. Her mother asks if she had been so silly to bury all the money and she replies:

"I'm Christian, and therefore I had to keep my promise. I took all his money and put it in my account. Then I wrote a check for the exact quantity, which is inside the box. If he can cash the check in the after word, the money is his to spend".

GRUMPIN AROUND TOWN

WITH GRUMP

By Falworth T. Grump

For the past 3 months when I drive around town, all I see are people using jack hammers digging up the gas pipes and making big holes in the streets. What a freaking mess! We just finished pavin' a street and they gotta come along and dig it up again!

I wish they'd hurry up and finish so I can get a place to park!

Grump out!

Robot Bartender

Guy goes into a bar in Louisiana where there's a robot bartender!

The robot says, "What will you have?"

The guy says, "Whiskey."

The robot brings back his drink and says to the man, "What's your IQ?"

The guy says, "168."

The robot then proceeds to talk about physics, space exploration and medical technology. The guy leaves, but he is curious. So he goes back into the bar.

The robot bartender says, "What will you have?"

The guy says, "Whiskey."

Again, the robot brings the man his drink and says, "What's your IQ?"

The guy says, "100."

The robot then starts to talk about NASCAR, Budweiser, the Saints and LSU Tigers.

The guy leaves, but finds it very interesting, so he thinks he will try it one more time. He goes back into the bar.

The robot says, "What will you have?"

The guy says, "Whiskey," and the robot brings him his whiskey.

The robot then says, "What's your IQ?"

The guy says, "Uh, about 50."

The robot leans in real close and says, "So, you people still happy with the President?"

BEDPAN ALLEY

A lighter side of medical humor

By Dr. I. M. Nutz

Dr. Jones goes to the retirement home for his monthly rounds. He sees Joe and asks him, "Joe, how much is three times three?" Joe responds "59." He goes over to Tom and asks, "Tom, how much is three times three?" Tom responds, "Wednesday." He finally goes over to John and asks, "John, how much is three times three?" "NINE" replies John. "That's right ...now how did you come to that answer?" "It was easy...I just subtracted 59 from Wednesday!"

THE BURST PIPE

A pipe burst in a doctor's house. He called a plumber. The plumber arrived, unpacked his tools, did mysterious plumber-type things for a while, and handed the doctor a bill for $600.

The doctor exclaimed, "This is ridiculous! I don't even make that much as a doctor!"

The plumber waited for him to finish and quietly said, "Neither did I when I was a doctor."
