

DOWNTOWN STREET REPAIR AND PAVING CAUSING PROBLEMS

Recent downtown Wrinkle City paving problems arose from paint being mixed in with tar and sand to spray-pave the streets. "We thought the mix was way to light so we added a little black paint to the mix only the guy who did it was colorblind and added pink instead" said Homer Blane, paving contractor representative for Harley's Home Paving who was awarded the contract. "It looked real purdy at first until it dried" said Blane.

City Manager, Virgil Tinzley indicated the city would not settle for the pink spray-on color and has demanded the streets be repaved with the correct mix of liquid asphalt and stone. Repairs will be completed in November.

IT'S HOOEY TOSSIN TIME!!!

The local farmers will be clearing their fields and tossing their manure for the next week.

Everyone is urged to shut their windows for a couple of days and use copious amounts of air spray to make their offices and homes breathable 'cause it's hooey tossin time!

The city commission will reconvene their scheduled weekly meeting at city hall and moved it to Big Al's Tattoo Parlor in Covington.

The sources of the stench will be Lester Smidt and Daryl Pimmzler who own farms on the east side of town. Both were spreading manure on their east side farms when the wind blew in from east to west for three days inundating Wrinkle City with a strong stench of hooey. "Bageezus Peets...the stench was so bad all the local skunks left town!" exclaimed City Manager Virgil Tinzley.

Many down town businesses had to purchase extra air fresheners so customers could visit their stores. Even the local army surplus store ran out of gas masks.

When interviewed by the WCG reporter, Smidt said "When you have a lot of dairy cattle and sheep you get a lot of hooey. The stuff was a gettin so high I had to fire up the old turd hearse and spread it on my fields." "Besides, my allergies are firin up and I can t smell a dadbloomin thing" he said.

SCHITZ INDUSTRIES GREAT AMERICAN OUTHOUSE FESTIVAL A SUCCESS!

Schitz Industries sponsored the second Great American Outhouse Festival in beautiful downtown Wrinkle City on September 29th.

On display were old privies up to the new port-o-lets of today." The object was to promote the rich outhouse heritage and manufacturing of Schitz Industries in Wrinkle City and its contribution to the world" said Louis T. Crapper, CEO.

"We had events such as the "Undie 500 Underwear Race, Outhouses of the Rich and Famous Review, the Great Potty Race among other events for the public" said Crapper. "A large display of porto-poties and other devices was on display to the general public.

Crowds gathered to watch the Executive potty races on the makeshift race track in front of City Hall. Louis Crapper came in first followed by Mayor Souhey.

LOCAL AMISH OKTOBERFEST IN FULL SWING

Local Amish finished selling their harvested goods at the Farmer's Market and celebrated as the Oktoberfest began at Old Farmer's Park north of town. The park featured the traditional apple butter churning race, a homemade scooter race for the youngins, the beard growing contest, the Amish stare down contest, the ugly beard trimming contest, the one man buggy pulling contest and the traditional Amish NASCAR 500 at the park's racetrack.

After the event, the faithful went to Lusch's Bar and Grille to eat and watch "Cops" on the big screen TV.

Brethren get in free; English cost is $20.

Local restaurants are expected experience a huge downturn in sales during the next week as most citizens will have to eat in neighboring cities.

GOLF TALES FROM THE 19TH HOLE

By Toots Kowalski

I want to buy a golf ball

A blonde golfer goes into the pro shop and looks around frowning. Finally the pro asks her what she wants. "I can't find any green golf balls," the blonde golfer complains.

The pro looks all over the shop, and through all the catalogs, and finally calls the manufacturers and determines that sure enough, there are no green golf balls.

As the blonde golfer walks out the door in disgust, the pro asks her, "Before you go, could you tell me why you want green golf balls?"

"Well obviously, because they would be so much easier to find in the sand traps!"

SCAPEGOAT SPORTS

MARY JANE LACED BONFIRE AT PEP RALLY CANCELS GAME AGAINST GREEN VILLA

Someone must have laced the Wrinkle City High School pep rally bonfire with a little home grown weed that caused the crowd to stop cheering and began chanting "Colors....I see colors!" according to superintendent Jimonetta Carter. We had to cancel the game as everyone was so hung over from inhaling the smoke they had to be carried home by their parents. Some of the parents were seen returning to the bonfire and lingering at the site prior to dancing in a semi-nude fashion in the city square fountain. Police Chief Barney "One Bullit" McGinty is investigating.

IRISH LOGIC

The mother-in-law arrives home from shopping to find her son-in-law Paddy in a steaming rage and hurriedly packing his suitcase.

"What happened Paddy?" she asks anxiously.

"What happened!! I'll tell you what happened. I sent an email to my wife (your daughter) telling her I was coming home today from my fishing trip. I get home... and guess what I found? Yes, your daughter, my wife Jean, naked with Joe Murphy in our marital bed! This is unforgivable, the end of our marriage. I'm done. I'm leaving forever!"

"Ah now, calm down, calm down Paddy!" says his mother-in-law. "There is something very odd going on here. My daughter would never do such a thing! There must be a simple explanation. I'll go speak to her immediately and find out what happened."

Moments later, the mother-in-law comes back with a big smile. "Paddy. I told you there must be a simple explanation ....

She never got your E-mail!"

AN IRISHMAN'S FIRST DRINK WITH HIS SON....

I was reading an article last night about fathers and sons, and memories came flooding back of the time I took my son out for his first drink. Off we went to our local pub, which is only two blocks from the house.

I got him a Miller Genuine. He didn't like it – so I drank it.

Then I got him an Old Style, he didn't like it either, so I drank it.

It was the same with the Coors and the Bud.

By the time we got down to the Irish whiskey...

I could hardly push the stroller back home. .

RELIGIOUSLY SPEAKING

By Pastor Geraldine Dibley

THE RETIRED PREACHER

A preacher retired and moved to the country to enjoy life and practice his hobby of yard work. Needing a lawn mower, he headed into town to buy one. On the way he saw a sign advertising a lawn mower for sale. He stopped at the house and a young lad came out to greet him.

The preacher asked about the lawn mower and the kid said it was behind the house. The two went to look at the lawn mower. The engine was sputtering along at idle speed. The preacher increased the speed of the engine and mowed a few strips. Satisfied that the mower would do the job they settled on a price of $25.00.

Later in the day, the young lad was riding his bicycle when he spied the preacher pulling on the engine starter rope. The kid stopped and watched for a couple of minutes. He asked, "What's wrong?"

The reply came, "I can't get this mower started. Do you know how?"

The kid said, "Yep."

"Well, how do you do it? Tell me!", the preacher yelled.

The kid replied, "You have to cuss it."

The preacher rose up indignantly. "Now you listen here. I am a preacher and if I ever did cuss, not saying I have, I've forgotten how to do it after all these years."

With a wise look on his face well beyond his years, the kid said, "Preacher, you keep on pulling that rope and it'll all come back to ya."

MORTAL HUMOR

BY EMERSON BALMER, JR.,
AMIGONE FUNERAL HOME
(NEXT TO BUBBA'S BBQ)

Workoholic

A workoholic man spends every second of the day trying to make more money than Bill Gates.

He makes his wife promise to bury him with all his money when the time comes.

One given Monday, before his "Week beginning meeting" he dies from a stroke produced by his high levels of cholesterol, stress, and hypertension.

During the funeral, the widow approaches and puts a small box next to the coffin. Her mother asks if she had been so silly to bury all the money and she replies:

"I'm Christian, and therefore I had to keep my promise. I took all his money and put it in my account. Then I wrote a check for the exact quantity, which is inside the box. If he can cash the check in the after word, the money is his to spend".

GRUMPIN AROUND TOWN

WITH GRUMP

By Falworth T. Grump

For the past 3 months when I drive around town, all I see are people using jack hammers digging up the gas pipes and making big holes in the streets. What a freaking mess! We just finished pavin' a street and they gotta come along and dig it up again!

I wish they'd hurry up and finish so I can get a place to park!

Grump out!

The guy says, "Whiskey," and the robot brings him his whiskey.

The robot then says, "What's your IQ?"

The guy says, "Uh, about 50."

The robot leans in real close and says, "So, you people still happy with the President?"

After a long day on the golf course, I stopped in at 'Hooter's' to see some friends and have some hot Wings and drinks.

I told them "The one who knows how to fix elevators.

I'm old, tired, and pee a lot."
