

SCHOOL BELLS RING AGAIN

TEACHERS AND KIDS GROAN, WILMART SELLS OUT AND PARENTS REJOICE

It's back to school time in Wrinkle City! The Dyslexia Brothers have been painting the school zone signs with their usual fare. "They sure do git yer attention when you drive along and try to figure out what they mean" said city manager Virgil Tinzley.

Moms have been taking the kids to WilMart to buy their school clothes and supplies in advance of the first day of classes. "We can only afford those cheap Chinese and Indonesian stuff" said Wilma Gnauw.

Paying for the cheap stuff is difficult as area dads are working three jobs just to pay off the debt incurred in getting ready. "Clothes and school supplies plus child support really hurt your paycheck!" exclaimed Delbert Smitt. "Don't leave no time for gambling or beer drinkin' he said.

BUBBA'S BIG BBQ IN TROUBLE

Bubba's Big BBQ (next to Amigone Funeral Home) is in trouble again. This time it's not a fire.

It seems Bubba accidentally received some poison sumac in his hickory wood used for slow cooking his BBQ. "The smoke comin' outa da chimney went all over the downtown. It was so bad, everyone was itchin like crazy....even the mourners at the funeral home," said Bubba. "Old Emmy Balmer had a New Orleans style funeral procession to the cemetery and the mourners were a dancing in the street...so we thought. It was the dang poison sumac causing them to gyrate down the street," said Bubba. "I even sent the remainder of the wood back and got scented charcoal instead", he said.

NEW TURF HOLDING UP

Superintendent Jimonetta Carter notified the Wrinkle City Bored of Education that the new turf at Loser Field has held up well for the first year.

The only detriment to the new turf is static electricity. "When the weather is dry, the turf builds up a lot of static electricity during practices" Carter said. "It's not uncommon to see a bolt of lightning come from between the center and the quarterback causing the center to jump off sides" she said. "We give the center as well as the rest of the players Beano before each practice to ensure flatulence is not a problem so we don't have any explosions on the field" Carter stated.

Concerning the continued maintenance of the turf, Custodian Dan "Fluffy" Beeman will continue to sweep the carpet once per week. Shagnasty Carpets will supply additional carpet tape free of charge" Carter stated. To keep the rug burns and electrocutions to a minimum to the footballers, Wil-Mart donated 300 gallons of anti-static spray to coat the field before each game.

HAPPY BUNZ CLOTHING OPTIONAL SOCIETY GETTING READY TO CLOSE DAILY CAMPING FOR THE SEASON

The Happy Bunz Clothing Optional Society opened in late June and as temperatures climbed, business increased and increased and increased. Now it's time to slow the pace and close up for the season.

"We averaged 1500 campers a day" said owner Orville Bunz. "Business was boomin a said Fern Bunz, wife and co-owner. "We were doin a heck of a business in soda, ice cream, calamine lotion and bug repellent" she said. Now it's time to sell out the stock and begin getting ready for fall weekend campers and closing the camp.

Weekend activities will still include co-ed jogging, bad / awful mittin, yoga for beginners, mooning as a second hobby, how to throw darts and protect your naughty parts and proper sunning etiquette. The camp is located next to the beginner course at the Echo Pond Golf Course.

GOLF COURSE ATTENDANCE BOOMING: FANTASTIC SUMMER

Toots Kowalski, Echo Pond Golf Course Pro announced to the city commission that the beginner course concession stand at Echo Pond has had a phenomenal growth in business. "We have over 250 golfers a day visit the stand, but they miss their Tee Times due to the activity at the club next door. However, we expect this to decline as Happy Bunz closes for the winter "The beginner's concession stand made a lot of money for us last year thanks to the Golden Boyz and we want to continue a rise in the profits!" exclaimed Kowalski

GOLF TALES FROM THE 19TH HOLE

By Toots Kowalski

Fatherly Advice.

A father spoke to his son, "It's time we had a little talk, my son. Soon, you will have urges and feelings you've never had before. Your heart will pound and your hands will sweat. You'll be pre-occupied and won't be able to think of anything else."

He added, "But don't worry, it's perfectly normal...it's called golf."

In The Rough

Mac and Jimmy are playing a challenging new course and as usual Mac is having a tough time off the tee.

On the 6th hole he hits a huge banana ball. "Did you see where that drive went...is it in the rough?" he asks. "Sort of " says Jimmy. "How far in?" asks Mac.

RELIGIOUSLY SPEAKING

By Pastor Geraldine Dibley

Irish Alzheimer's

Murphy showed up at Mass one Sunday and the priest almost fell down when he saw him. He'd never been to church in his life.

After Mass, the priest caught up with him and said, "Murphy, I am so glad ya decided to come to Mass. What made ya come?"

Murphy said, "I got to be honest with you Father, a while back, I misplaced me hat and I really, really love that hat. I know that McGlynn had a hat just like mine and I knew he came to church every Sunday. I also knew that he had to take off his hat during Mass and figured he would leave it in the back of the church. So, I was going to leave after Communion and steal McGlynn's hat."

The priest said, "Well, Murphy, I notice that ya didn't steal McGlynn's hat. What changed your mind?"

Murphy replied, "Well, after I heard your sermon on the 10 Commandments, I decided that I didn't need to steal McGlynn's hat after all."

With a tear in his eye the priest gave Murphy a big smile and said; "After I talked about 'Thou Shalt Not Steal' ya decided you would rather do without your hat than burn in Hell?"

Murphy slowly shook his head. "No, Father, after ya talked about 'Thou Shalt Not Commit Adultery' I remembered where I left me hat.

MORTAL HUMOR

BY EMERSON BALMER, JR., AMIGONE FUNERAL HOME (NEXT TO BUBBA'S BBQ)

Workholic

A workholic man spends every second of the day trying to make more money than Bill Gates.

He makes his wife promise to bury him with all his money when the time comes.

One given Monday, before his "Week beginning meeting" he dies from a stroke produced by his high levels of cholesterol, stress, and hypertension.

During the funeral, the widow approaches and puts a small box next to the coffin. Her mother asks if she had been so silly to bury all the money and she replies:

"I'm Christian, and therefore I had to keep my promise. I took all his money and put it in my account. Then I wrote a check for the exact quantity, which is inside the box. If he can cash the check in the after word, the money is his to spend".

Any day above ground is a good one.

GRUMPIN AROUND TOWN

WITH GRUMP

By Falworth T. Grump

Everywhere I go I hear people talkin' about taxes going up and up. A tax for this and a tax for that. The government's motto is "gimme, gimme, gimme....the public be damned! Don't people realize there is only so much money available!

Everybody wants more, more, more but aren't willing to pay for it. Credit, credit, and more credit puts us in a deep hole that's dammdifficult to dig out of.

I say live within your means. If you're a city or county government, live within your revenue and don't spend money lavishly or be heavy in administrative costs.

The essobeez need to wake up and smell the coffee!!!

A lighter side of medical humor

AN OLD COUPLE AT THE DOCTORS

An old couple go to the doctor. The old man goes first to have his physical. When the doctor is done with him, he sends the old man back into the waiting room and calls the old woman in.

The doctor tells her, "Before we proceed with the examination, I would like to talk to you about your husband first."

The old woman says, "Oh, no, it's his heart. I told him to lay off the eggs."

The doctor says, "Well, I asked your husband how he is feeling and he told me he felt great. He said that when he got up to go to the bathroom, he opened the door and God turned the light on for him. When he was done, he would shut the door and God would turn the light out for him."

The old woman responded, "Damn it, he's peeing in the fridge again!"

THE OLD FAMILY PHYSICIAN

The old family physician being away on vacation, entrusted his practice to his son - a recent medical student. When the old man returned, the youngster told him among other things, that he cured Miss Ferguson, an aged and wealthy spinster, of her chronic indigestion.

"My boy," said the old doctor, "I'm proud of you, but Miss Ferguson's indigestion is what put you through college."
