

BIG ICE HOUSE FIRE

Wrinkle City firemen responded to a multi-alarm fire at the old ice house in the southeast end of town.

The blazing structure fire was called in at 10 pm when neighbors smelled burning wood and heard several explosions going off in the building. "I smelled something burning and heard a big exploshun an called 911" said Marla Schmucker.

It took several hours to extinguish the fire according to fire department sources.

Fire inspectors have not yet determined the cause of the blaze but signs of an illegal still being used in the rear part of the building exists.

CITY PAVING THE POTHOLES

They're finally paving the streets! After 10 years of neglect, the city is finally paving the streets. Wrinkle City Street Department Director, Narley Gurt, told reporters at a city press conference the city is in the process of paving the worst streets in town so motorists and pedestrians alike don't disappear in the potholes. "It was gittin' real bad when a school bus and a dump truck disappeared in one of the potholes downtown," said Gurt. "We had to git cranes to lift them out," he said.

Gurt stated the main streets will get used re-cycled asphalt and the side streets will get an application of stone and tar.

SCHOOL BELLS RING AGAIN

TEACHERS AND KIDS GROAN, WILMART SELLS OUT AND PARENTS REJOICE

It's back to school time in Wrinkle City! The Dyslexia Brothers have been painting the school zone signs with their usual fare. "They sure do git yer attention when you drive along and try to figure out what they mean," said city manager Virgil Tinzley.

Moms have been taking the kids to WilMart to buy their school clothes and supplies in advance of the first day of classes. "We can only afford those cheap Chinese and Indonesian stuff" said Wilma Gnauw.

Paying for the cheap stuff is difficult as area dads are working three jobs just to pay off the debt incurred in getting ready. "Clothes and school supplies plus child support really hurt your paycheck!" exclaimed Delbert Smitt. "Don't leave no time for gambling or beer drinkin" he said.

STATE SCHOOL REPORT CARD : WRINKLE CITY SCHOOLS SUCK

Superintendent Jimonetta Carter received the bad news from the state board of education showing the Wrinkle City Schools have received an over-all score of "D+" on the newly restructured state achievement goals. "It's not our fault they changed the rules to Common Core in the middle of the game," she said. "We try to teach the kids the 3-R's so they can function in society!", she exclaimed.

The results were presented to the school board at last night's meeting. The board recommended Sillyman's Learning Systems be hired to teach the students and teachers how to meet the state expectations. Board member Delbert Lubby suggested someone from the board to visit the testing division of the State BOE to pay them off and change the ratings like other area schools do. "Money talks!", he exclaimed. The board could only raise $29.95 toward the bribe and the idea was scrapped.

SCHITZ INDUSTRIES TO SPONSOR THE 3RD ANNUAL GREAT AMERICAN OUTHOUSE FESTIVAL

Schitz Industries will sponsor the first ever Great American Outhouse Festival in beautiful downtown Wrinkle City on September 24th. "The object will be to promote the rich outhouse heritage and manufacturing of Schitz Industries in Wrinkle City and its contribution to the world" said Louis T. Crapper, CEO.

"We plan on having events such as the "Undie 500 Underwear Race, Outhouses of the Rich and Famous Review, the Great Potty Race among other events for the public" said Crapper. "A large display of porto-poties and other devices will be on display to the general public.

This year the International Toilet Drill Team will participate in the grand parade. The drill team has participated in different parades across the United States.

The city-wide event will take place in front of City Hall on the town square.

BUBBA'S BIG BBQ IN TROUBLE AGAIN

Bubba's Big BBQ (next to Amigone Funeral Home) is in trouble again. This time it's not a fire.

It seems Bubba accidentally received some poison sumac in his hickory wood used for slow cooking his BBQ. "The smoke comin' outa da chimney went all over the downtown. It was so bad, everyone was itchin like crazy....even the mourners at the funeral home," said Bubba. "Old Emmy Balmer had a New Orleans style funeral procession to the cemetery and the mourners were a dancing in the street...so we thought. It was the dang poison sumac causing them to gyrate down the street," said Bubba. "I even sent the remainder of the wood back and got scented charcoal instead", he said. "It cost me 3 cases of calamine lotion from Wil-Mart to stop the complainin' and moanin," said Bubba. "Maybe I oughta use natural gas instead of wood," he said.

NEW TURF HOLDING UP

Superintendent Jimonetta Carter notified the Wrinkle City Bored of Education that the new turf at Loser Field has held up well for the third year. The only detriment to the new turf is static electricity. "When the weather is dry, the turf builds up a lot of static electricity during practices” Carter said. “It’s not uncommon to see a bolt of lightning come from between the center and the quarterback causing the center to jump off sides” she said. “We give the center as well as the rest of the players Beano before each practice to ensure flatulence is not a problem so we don’t have any explosions on the field” Carter stated. “I remember last year the gas jet coming out of the halfback’s rear end as he zoomed toward the goal line only to be found in a tree near the 1 foot line. So that’s why we use Beano before the game”, she said.

Concerning the continued maintenance of the turf, Custodian Dan “Fluffy” Beeman will continue to sweep the carpet once per week providing he doesn’t eat chili at Wendell’s Burgers before fluffing. “We don’t want a backfire on the machine as it will send us into the next county!” exclaimed Beeman.. Shagnasty Carpets will supply additional carpet tape free of charge” Carter stated. To keep the rug burns and electrocutions to a minimum to the footballers, Wil-Mart donated 300 gallons of anti-static spray to coat the field before each game.

GOLF COURSE ATTENDANCE BOOMING: FANTASTIC SUMMER

Toots Kowalski, Echo Pond Golf Course Pro announced to the city commission that the beginner course concession stand at Echo Pond has had a phenomenal growth in business. “We have over 400 golfers a day visit the stand, but they miss their Tee Times due to the activity at the club next door. However, we expect this to decline as Happy Bunz closes for the winter “The beginner’s concession stand made a lot of money for us last year thanks to the Golden Boyz and we want to continue a rise in the profits!” exclaimed Kowalski

Fatherly Advice.

A father spoke to his son, "It's time we had a little talk, my son. Soon, you will have urges and feelings you've never had before. Your heart will pound and your hands will sweat. You'll be pre-occupied and won't be able to think of anything else."

He added, "But don't worry, it's perfectly normal...it's called golf."

In The Rough

Mac and Jimmy are playing a challenging new course and as usual Mac is having a tough time off the tee.

On the 6th hole he hits a huge banana ball. "Did you see where that drive went...is it in the rough?" he asks.

"Sort of " says Jimmy. "How far in?" asks Mac.

RELIGIOUSLY SPEAKING

By Pastor Geraldine Dibley

Irish Alzheimer's

Murphy showed up at Mass one Sunday and the priest almost fell down when he saw him. He'd never been to church in his life.

After Mass, the priest caught up with him and said, "Murphy, I am so glad ya decided to come to Mass. What made ya come?"

Murphy said, "I got to be honest with you Father, a while back, I misplaced me hat and I really, really love that hat. I know that McGlynn had a hat just like mine and I knew he came to church every Sunday. I also knew that he had to take off his hat during Mass and figured he would leave it in the back of the church. So, I was going to leave after Communion and steal McGlynn's hat."

The priest said, "Well, Murphy, I notice that ya didn't steal McGlynn's hat. What changed your mind?"

Murphy replied, "Well, after I heard your sermon on the 10 Commandments, I decided that I didn't need to steal McGlynn's hat after all."

With a tear in his eye the priest gave Murphy a big smile and said; "After I talked about 'Thou Shalt Not Steal' ya decided you would rather do without your hat than burn in Hell?"

Murphy slowly shook his head. "No, Father, after ya talked about 'Thou Shalt Not Commit Adultery' I remembered where I left me hat.

The Pastor's Ass

The Pastor entered his donkey in a race and it won. The Pastor was so pleased with the donkey that he entered it in another race and it won again. The local paper read:

PASTOR'S ASS OUT FRONT. The Bishop was so upset with this kind of publicity that he ordered the Pastor not to enter the donkey in another race. The next day the local paper headline read:

BISHOP SCRATCHES PASTOR'S ASS.

This was too much for the Bishop so he ordered the Pastor to get rid of the donkey. The Pastor decided to give it to a Nun in a nearby convent. The local paper, hearing of the news, posted the following headline the next day: NUN HAS BEST ASS IN TOWN. The Bishop fainted. He informed the Nun that she would have to get rid of the donkey so she sold it to a farmer for $10. The next day the paper read: NUN SELLS ASS FOR $10. This was too much for the Bishop so he ordered the Nun to buy back the donkey and lead it to the plains where it could run wild. The next day the headlines read: NUN ANNOUNCES HER ASS IS WILD AND FREE.

The Bishop was buried the next day. The moral of the story is . . . being concerned about public opinion can bring you much grief and misery...even shorten your life.

Marriage

A husband takes the wife to a disco. There's a guy on the dance floor living it large - break dancing, moon walking, back flips, the works. The wife turns to her husband and says: "See that guy? 25 years ago he proposed to me and I turned him down."

Husband says: "Looks like he's still celebrating!!!

Go away! I'm Broke!

A little old lady answered a knock on the door one day, only to be confronted by a well-dressed young man carrying a vacuum cleaner. 'Good morning,' said the young man. 'If I could take a couple of minutes of your time, I would like to demonstrate the very latest in high-powered vacuum cleaners.'

'Go away!' said the old lady. 'I'm broke and haven't got any money!' and she proceeded to close the door.

Quick as a flash, the young man wedged his foot in the door and pushed it wide open.

Don't be too hasty!' he said. 'Not until you have at least seen my demonstration.'

And with that, he emptied a bucket of horse manure onto her hallway carpet. 'If this vacuum cleaner does not remove all traces of this horse manure from your carpet, Madam, I will personally eat the remainder.'

The old lady stepped back and said, 'Well let me get you a fork, 'cause they cut off my electricity this morning.'

What part of I'm broke don't you understand?

CITY UPDATE

The economy is so bad:

Even the second-hand stores have changed their names to fourth-hand stores.

The town hookers are selling rugs on the side.

The village idiots have moved to Troy and Sidney for lack of work.

The Section 8 apartments have changed to Chapter 13.

City employees are shootin craps to earn extra money.

Paving companies only pave half the street and skip town.

DON'T MESS WITH SENIORS

When I was ready to pay for my purchases of gun powder and bullets, the cashier said, "Strip down, facing me."

Making a mental note to complain to the NRA about the gun control wackos running amok, I did just as she had instructed.

When the hysterical shrieking and alarms finally subsided, I found out that she was referring to how I should place my credit card in the card-reader.

I have been asked to shop elsewhere in the future.

They need to make their instructions to us seniors a little clearer.

I still don't think I looked that bad.

MORTAL HUMOR

BY EMERSON BALMER, JR., AMIGONE FUNERAL HOME (NEXT TO BUBBA'S BBQ)

Burial Plans

A man and woman were married for many years. Whenever there was a confrontation, yelling could be heard deep into the night. The old man would shout, "When I die, I will dig my way up and out of the grave and come back and haunt you for the rest of your life!"

Neighbors feared him. The old man liked the fact that he was feared. Then one evening, he died when he was 98. After the burial, her neighbors, concerned for her safety, asked, "Aren't you afraid that he may indeed be able to dig his way out of the grave and haunt you for the rest of your life?"

The wife said, " Let him dig. I had him buried upside down...and I know he won't ask for directions."

Workholic

A workholic man spends every second of the day trying to make more money than Bill Gates.

He makes his wife promise to bury him with all his money when the time comes.

One given Monday, before his "Week beginning meeting" he dies from a stroke produced by his high levels of cholesterol, stress, and hypertension.

During the funeral, the widow approaches and puts a small box next to the coffin. Her mother asks if she had been so silly to bury all the money and she replies:

"I'm Christian, and therefore I had to keep my promise. I took all his money and put it in my account. Then I wrote a check for the exact quantity, which is inside the box. If he can cash the check in the after word, the money is his to spend".

At the Restaurant

Because they had no reservations at a busy restaurant, my elderly neighbor and his wife were told there would be a 45 minute wait for a table.

"Young man, we're both 90 years old," the husband said. "We may not have 45 minutes."

They were seated immediately.

Everywhere I go I hear people talkin' about taxes going up and up and it costs more to live on. It got so difficult this week that a construction company stole its own copper piping to re-sell.

Everybody wants more, more, more but aren't willing to pay for it or they're out trying to scam or steal from everyone else. Credit, credit, and more credit puts us in a deep hole that's dammdifficult to dig out of.

I say live within your means.

Down at the Barber Shop

An old cowboy walks into the barbershop for a shave and a haircut and he tells the barber he can't get all his whiskers off because his cheeks are wrinkled from age.

The barber gets a little wooden ball from a cup on the shelf and tells the old cowboy to put it inside his cheek to spread out the skin.

When he's finished, the old cowboy tells the barber that was the cleanest shave he's had in years.

But he wanted to know what would have happened if he had swallowed that little ball.

The barber replied, "Just bring it back in a couple of days like everyone else does".
